

See Burton's change of ad on page 1. C. S. Cartwright of Shelvin was in town Sunday.

The best screen doors for the money at Swedback's.

Smallpox is reported as raging around Nebish.

Guy Remore has a number of young pigs for sale.

U. S. Commissioner Brown of Bagley was here Sunday.

Geo. Buckley visited his parents near Wadena last week.

Windows and doors at rock bottom prices at Swedback's.

F. B. Defrees, the U. S. inspector, came up from Crookston Saturday.

For Sale—One spring dray and one flat truck, cheap. Wes Wright. 22-23

Fred. Hall has moved his tailoring establishment into the Markham hotel annex.

Dr. Arnold's Cough Killer for asthma cannot be equalled.—S. B. Gillespie, Guthrie Center, Ia.

C. J. Carlson was able to hobble around Sunday after having been laid up a week with a sprained ankle.

T. J. Kline returned from Solway Sunday where he has been superintending the logging road building.

Ladies' shoes at 98 cents per pair and upwards. A complete line always on hand. SNOW & SCHROEDER.

Miss Emma Gullickson arrived Friday to spend a week with the family of I. B. Olson. She lives in Grafton, N. D.

The head officials of the Northern Pacific, including President Mellin, came to Bemidji in a special car Saturday evening.

Don't buy inferior plaster when you can get the well known and highly recommended Hardenell and the best Kelly Island white lime cheaper at Swedback's.

A party from Park Rapids enjoyed themselves here over Sunday. They were George Mandigo, the merchant, and Misses Eva Mandigo, Hetta Barran and Myne Jay.

J. Ludington and wife returned Sunday from Marshalltown, Iowa, where they spent a couple of weeks visiting his parents. They are glad to get back to a cooler zone.

The Clavin & Tanner building just west of Malzah's store on Third street is being thoroughly fitted up and J. P. Taylor will open his saloon about the middle of this month.

Remember H. W. Barker's cough, catarrh and consumption remedy when you need a medicine that cures that awful disease, catarrh, and all throat and lung troubles. Always for sale at Mayo's drug store.

Andy Clavin and wife returned Saturday from their visit to the Winnipeg fair. He says it was not up to the standard of the Minnesota state fairs, but it was more of a novelty.

George Fuller has been appointed leader of the Bemidji band in place of J. Spere, resigned. Mr. Fuller has recently arrived from Chicago, and is an excellent musician. As a leader he has had much experience.

The township embracing Grand Falls, in Itasca county, has been organized and named Campbell, after Dan, who has lived there long enough to deserve greater honors than that. An election of town officers will be held Aug. 15.

R. L. Coombs, who has been acting as cashier and operator in the Great Northern express office here for the past two months, left Saturday for Fargo where he will work for the Western Union. His place will be filled here by a Mr. Broms.

A fourth tailoring establishment in Bemidji has been opened this week in the building recently vacated by the Misses Jones & Ross on East Third street. The new firm calls itself the Bemidji Tailoring Co., and its members are Messrs. McDonald, Moe and Mosberg, all late employes of T. Beaudette.

Superintendent Potter informs the Akeley Independent that the Northern Minnesota Telephone Co.'s line will reach Walker this week. He says the crew experienced great difficulty after they had reached the lake near Walker. Mr. Potter was on yesterday morning's train en route to Brainerd to see about getting a special train to distribute poles between Walker and Bemidji.

Last week W. R. Baumbach, general manager of the Iron Range Electric Telephone Co., let the contract for the construction of 200 miles of his line in the Red River Valley. Work on that line between Fosston and Bemidji began this week. A train of 15 cars loaded with poles and other material started west from here Sunday morning on the 45 miles stretch. Photographer Reed took a snap shot of the unusual load.

Don't forget the clearance sale now on at The Fair.

Ex-Judge Holland of Brainerd spent Sunday here.

You will find Scott, the Jewler, at Wheelock's news stand.

Owen McElroy had a touch of the fever the first of the week.

Attorney Bailey went to Brainerd Monday on legal business.

Bargains at The Fair for 30 days to make room for new fall goods.

If you want the best blooded St. Bernard pups in the country, consult H. L. Heffron.

J. O. Johnson, business manager of the Cass Lake Times, visited Bemidji friends Sunday.

Mr. Regan, the Solway drink merchant, was in town between trains Friday on business.

I. O. Manger returned Saturday from a business trip to western points along the Great Northern.

For sash, doors and all kinds of building lumber go to E. J. Swedback. Prices greatly reduced.

Ole Bang and wife have returned to Grand Forks after spending most of the summer in their cottage here.

Wm. Flynn and J. R. Poupore and their wives arrived from Grand Forks Saturday for a taste of pine ozone.

Furnished rooms for rent signs, neatly printed on heavy cardboard, for sale at this office at ten cents each.

A pleasant afternoon party was given Saturday by Miss Dolly Bailey in honor of her guest, Miss McNarry of Little Falls.

Dr. Doran, the specialist, made his first visit here last week, and was pleased with his initial practice. He returns next month.

F. M. Hartley passed through here Thursday on a visit to his son at Turtle River. Vernon has purchased the Dudley meat market here.

C. C. Blake went to Crookston where Saturday he appeared in the bankruptcy court and successfully graduated from pressing indebtedness.

Contractors of the new railroad are paying $2.25 per day for common labor, but their men cannot be induced to stay. Work is practically at a standstill.

The Walker company has gotten all of its logs out of the Upper Mississippi and is now clearing out Lake Marquette. Their logs are driven down stream.

Dr. Adamson and family returned Tuesday from Chicago where they have spent the summer. The doctor looks as if school had agreed with him mightily.

It is reported that the prairie chicken crop will be unusually good around Fosston, McIntosh and Red Lake Falls. Local hunters are already spunging out their shotguns.

Two hundred members of the National Druggists Association are expected to stop off here today for dinner at Hotel Markham. They are on their way to Duluth from a tour of the Dakota harvest fields.

People who desire to purchase goods in Duluth and do not care to stand the expense of a trip to the Zenith City will do well to correspond with the Duluth Purchasing Agency, 309 Palladio Building, Duluth, Minn.

The new board of education of the Bemidji Independent School district, consisting of Mrs. L. H. Bailey, P. J. O'Leary, R. McLennan, M. J. Leak, D. C. Smith and George Tanner had their first meeting Saturday evening, and organized as follows: President of board, M. J. Leak; treasurer, P. J. O'Leary; clerk, D. C. Smith.

J. V. Speelman was down from Buena Vista Monday and left at this office a sample of wheat known as Winter Fife. Three acres of it matured on his farm and yielded about 35 bushels per acre. It is of large kernels and can easily be classed as No. 2 hard. Mr. Speelman has sold it all to an eastern seed house at fancy prices, but has saved enough to exhibit at our county fair.

On the 28th of this month the settlers of Buena Vista will hold a picnic on the shores of the fair lake, Julian, to which the people of the county are cordially invited. The occasion is the 78th anniversary of the arrival of the first white man to this county—Beltrami—whose exploits here in 1823 were recently published in the PIONEER.

In this "Beltrami picnic" the settlers will continue the discoveries of the man they honor by trying to measure the depths of the lake which has not yet been fathomed.

Sunday afternoon occurred the funeral of the 3-year-old son of J. C. Johnson and wife. The child died suddenly Friday night, having, it is thought, eaten some poisoned fruit which he gathered in the woods. The funeral services were held at the home of the parents, ably conducted by Rev. Swinnerton. The Odd Fellows lodge, of which Mr. Johnson is a member, made all arrangements, and four members, Messrs. John McDonald, Phibbs, Grant and McCarthy acted as pallbearers. The ceremonies concluded at the Greenwood cemetery.

Accident insurance and sick benefits are at least as essential as life insurance in a man's or a woman's life. Join the Brotherhood of American Yeomen and secure them all. No increase rates nor double assessments in the Yeomen. ample reserve fund to meet any extra call. J. Peterson, Jr., deputy, Hotel Brinkman. Rates the lowest, standing the highest, security perfect in the Yeomen. You don't have to die to win in the Yeomen. The social features of the Yeomen are most attractive. It admits ladies and gentlemen on equal terms—all ages—18 to 55.

Miss Lillie Halliday visited Crookston friends last week.

Tamarack land for sale, heavily timbered. Enquire at this office.

A new line of gents' hats at Mrs. Berman's, next to Wheelock's.

Mrs. G. Houghtaling of Fosston visited friends in Bemidji last week.

W. W. Browne and wife left Saturday for a visit with his parents in sunny Georgia.

Married, the 17th of July by Rev. J. Wilmann, Ole Engstad and Hanna Peterson, both of the town of Frohu.

Boyd & Gilbert are advertising in the Twin City papers for 10 bricklayers to work on the new buildings here.

C. M. Taylor of Cass Lake passed through here last week on his way to Tenstrike, where he has a branch store.

H. C. McBride of Dysart was in town Tuesday. He says his people are all pining for the sound of a locomotive whistle.

The cost of attending Mankato Commercial College is 25 per cent less than at other first class business colleges. Send for particulars.

Just received, a new line of ladies' walking dress goods and ladies' and gentlemen's dress furnishings. Mrs. Berman, next to Wheelock's.

Ole Olson came down from Grand Falls last week and continued on to Dakota, where he will work as engineer this fall in the wheat fields.

"Brocky" LaPage and Mike Short left Sunday for Tenstrike, where they are going to look over some timber for the Thief River Falls Lumber Co.

Since the Walker outbreak Indians have not been seen in so large numbers on our streets as during the past month. They all have blueberries for sale.

We are informed that Miss Julia Ellis, a prominent young lady of Minneapolis, will spend her summer vacation here with her father at Hotel Markham.

Prof. Mobius delivered a highly instructive and interesting lecture on Spiritualism at the opera house Sunday. It placed that faith in a most favorable light.

J. Peterson, a deputy for the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, arrived in the city last week and is trying to organize a local branch of this fraternal beneficiary society.

Mare Lost—Strayed from the premises of H. Jenson, 2 1/2 miles east of Bemidji, on Aug. 2, one brown mare, white spot in the forehead. Reward will be paid to finder.

Several fine pearls have been found in clamshells littering the shores of the Mississippi at this point. John Patterson recently found one of great purity and size in Lake Irvine.

Few men can be happy unless they are well dressed. The Bemidji Tailoring Co. are ready to make you happy. Call in and look over their nobby samples on Third street.

The following young people enjoyed a picnic party on Diamond Point Sunday: Misses Winifred Sprague, Lela Solberg, Edna Casler, Bessie Walker and Eva English, and Charles Casler, Arthur Narveson, Robert English, Roger Harvey and Arthur Wright.

The dates for the Fosston county fair have been set for Sept. 17, 18 and 19. This is the tenth annual meeting of this association, which is the oldest of its kind in Northern Minnesota. We presume Western Beltrami will as usual be well represented in the matter of exhibits.

Prof. Mobius, the hypnotist, and his supporting specialty company gave five performances here, closing the engagement tonight. He was certainly the most clever artist in that line that has ever been here, yet the attendance was only fair. If he is as good off as on the stage he would be able to put down an Indian outbreak with three quick motions of his hand.

C. E. Oberg, cashier of the Blackduck bank, was here last week. He reports business as fairly good in spite of the fact that lack of connections with the outside world makes banking unusually awkward. He says the heavy soil and timber of this section will retard its development as an agricultural section, but ultimately it will become second to no other in the state in that line.

Harry Geil has received a letter giving the particulars concerning the death of Prof. Eschliman, who was the first principal of the Bemidji schools and a general favorite with the pupils. For several months his health had been failing and the end came March 26, following a hemorrhage of the lungs. He died at Seattle and his body was shipped back to his home at Vestaburg, Mich. All who know him can but deplore the early taking off of one whose life promised great and good things.

Accident insurance and sick benefits are at least as essential as life insurance in a man's or a woman's life. Join the Brotherhood of American Yeomen and secure them all. No increase rates nor double assessments in the Yeomen. ample reserve fund to meet any extra call. J. Peterson, Jr., deputy, Hotel Brinkman. Rates the lowest, standing the highest, security perfect in the Yeomen. You don't have to die to win in the Yeomen. The social features of the Yeomen are most attractive. It admits ladies and gentlemen on equal terms—all ages—18 to 55.

Rev. Higgins went down to Brainerd Monday.

Ben Moe returned Monday from his Duluth-Superior visit.

Kelsey & Reynolds will soon put a beautiful sailboat on the lake.

Rev. Moxie of McIntosh spent last week here inhaling lake breezes.

New goods received daily at Mrs. Berman's, next to Wheelock's.

Attorney Scrutchin transacted legal business in Crookston Saturday.

Any person wishing herding done apply to the Ralph boys, Third street.

Solon Finley returned from Nebish, where he has been for the past 10 days. The new front in the Dewey House improves its appearance an hundred fold.

For Sale—A 1-acre lot and 4-room house in White's addition of Bemidji. L. S. Foster.

Joe Harrington arrived from Eau Claire, Wis., Monday evening, where he has been visiting friends.

W. A. Walker spent last week visiting his son, G. A. Walker, of the Minnesota & International at Walker.

Just received, four cars of oats which we are selling at cut prices. Best grade. Call and see us. SNOW & SCHROEDER.

Don't wear a dirty suit when you can get it cleaned up to look as good as new by the Bemidji Tailoring Co., Third street.

Commissioners Gallagher, Sibley and Johnson are busy appraising the state land in the county which will be sold Aug. 20.

The St. Hilaire Lumber Co. of St. Hilaire have for sale a good second hand "Keystone 14 mather." Write them for price and description.

W. E. Kelsey of Crookston spent Monday in town marveling over the great changes which have taken place since his last visit two years ago.

F. J. Smith, assistant superintendent of railway mail service, arrived here Monday from St. Paul to look up a mail route from Blackduck to Bridgie and possibly further north-easterly.

Two excursions to Bemidji this month are being talked of. One on Sunday, the 18th, from the Wadena line, and the other on the 23rd from Brainerd. Company F is getting up the latter.

John Porter and a party of mixed blood Indians were in the city Friday with a batch of blueberries that measured up eleven bushels, the result of two days' picking by nine persons. Snow & Schroeder paid $22 dollars for the lot. They were secured about fifteen miles from the city.

Mrs. H. Harmon and daughter returned the first of the week from Brainerd, where they went to attend the funeral of the former's sister, Miss Lilly Floyd. This young lady was drowned in Horseshoe lake while trying to propel an improvised raft of logs. She was 21 years old and a particularly amiable young lady.

Catarrh is a terrible scourge, a disease whose germs are spread broadcast over this fair land of ours, and in many cases is the forerunner of consumption, that terrible disease whose fangs when set upon its victim usually means death. But there is a cure for catarrh and disease of the throat and lungs. It is H. W. Barker's cough, catarrh and consumption remedy, and we always keep it. Mayo's drug store.

"The Palace Furnishing and Tailoring Co." is the name of the firm which will on the 20th of this month occupy the building on Third street vacated by the Palace hotel. L. Blooston will transfer his business from its present place to that building, and in company with Harvey Woodward will conduct the clothing business on a much larger scale. They will also employ a number of tailors to turn out the most finished products. Mr. Blooston went to the Twin Cities yesterday to select a stock of furnishing goods that will be a revelation to Bemidji buyers. Mrs. Berman will continue her millinery business at the old stand.

Midsummer Clearance Sale.....

IS NOW ON AT

THE FAIR

And our terms from now on will be strictly cash. The hot weather is now here, and this is your opportunity to get Strictly Fresh Goods at Cut Prices.

TELEPHONE No. 70.

James McNair, Prop.

Workers in wood and iron can get tools of the right pattern and quality here. We carry a fine line of

Carpenters and Mechanics Tools of standard makes. They are not cheaply made, but goods of superior material and construction at low prices.

These items will give an idea of our values. Not another store in town can sell these figures.

Saws, Hammers, Chisels, Etc.

We are Agents for the Columbia Bicycles.

McLennan & Graham

Opposite Court House

Bemidji, Minnesota.

CAPITAL

$25,000.

The Lumbermen's Bank of Bemidji

Respectfully Solicits your Business.

FIRE INSURANCE written in the best old line companies.

OFFICERS:
W. R. Baumbach, Pres.
C. W. Baumbach, V. Pres.
W. L. Brooks, Cashier.

THE Jerrard Plumbing Co. BEMIDJI, MINN.

Plumbing, Steam and Hot Water Heating

YOUR Plumbing is the most important part of your home, and cannot be too well constructed. Fifteen year's experience in this line of work qualifies us to give you the best that can be had. Our Prices Are Right.

E. H. JERRARD,

Office in City Hall. Manager. Full Stock of Pipes and Fittings Constantly on Hand

Tenstrike

The new Townsite

Located at East End of Gull Lake

In Center of Best Agricultural Land in Beltrami Co.

Apply to

A. A. WHITE, PROPRIETOR, St. Paul, Minn.

Or to A. M. BELDING, Tenstrike.

Now is the time to subscribe for the Bemidji Pioneer.