Remarkable Cure of Croup—A Little Boy's Life Saved.

I have a few words to say regarding Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It saved my little boy's life and I feel that I cannot praise it enough. I bought a bottle of it from A. E. Steere of Goodwin, S. D., and when I got home with it the poor baby could hardly breathe. I gave the medicine as directed, every ten minutes, until he "threw up" and then I thought sure he was going to choke to death. We had to pull the phlegm out of his mouth in great, long strings. I am positive that if I had not got that bottle of cough medicine, my boy would not be on earth today. Joel Demont, Inward, Iowa. WINSOR WAVELETS.

Clifford Phibbs and Andrew Johnson came back from the woods and are not certain whether they will go up again or not.

Peter Jacobson has gone on a visit to his old home at Baldwin, Wis. Peter has not been there for five long years, and goes there to protect his interests.

A brother of Eric Wideh's has arrived from Dakota and will go to school here next term.

The school in District No. 23 has closed for a vacation of two weeks. A Christmas tree was held in the district Christmas eve. There was a large crowd present, and the program rendered was a credit to the teacher, Miss Ragna Olson, and her school.

Guy Dunning, teacher in District No. 19, has just closed a three months' term in the district and left for his home in Bemidji last until after the state examination in February. The following is the report of the term which was handed in to us by him before he left: Total enrollment, 35; number of days in term, 60; total attendance of days by all scholars, 1,200; average daily attendance, 20; number who attended 40 days or over in the term, 20, who are Alfred Hanson, Clarence Hanson, Bertha Bruckman, Ella Bruckman, Olga Hanson, Cora Ask, Carl Ask, Henry Hanson, Tolef Hanson, Elmer Jacobson, Clarence Jacobson, Mabel Halvorson, Earl Lindstrom, Ida Lee, Hilda Lee, Oscar Lee, Jensine Baanrud, Emma Baanrud, John Bruckman and Willie Bruckman.

A packed house greeted the Christmas tree which was held in District No. 19 on Christmas night, and there was not a single person in the vast audience who was not well pleased with the entertainment afforded them. The unanimous answer to the question: "What kind of a time did you have?" was "delightful." In fact, everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and this particular Christmas tree will be remembered by the people of Winsor township and for miles around as the one at which everybody had a good time. The most laughable feature of the program was the pie eating contest. Three pies were set upon the table and as many men were requested to come and eat them. The man who had his pie eaten first was to get the prize, a peck of choice apples. William Bruckman, Christ Jacobson and Gust Berquist entered the contest. Mr. Bruckman won out, although Christ Jacobson was a close second. Berquist quit in the early part of the contest. Mr. Bruckman has the apples and also the pie eating record of Beltrami county, as he ate his pie in one minute and thirty-six seconds. We "wonder why" he does not like currant pie any more?

The Christmas tree in the Otto Anderson schoolhouse Sunday night drew an immense crowd from all around the neighborhood. A program was rendered by the Sunday school children, and the choir gave some of its selections, which was very much appreciated by the audience. Rev. Lehart of Wilborg and Student Gunderson were also present and gave some pointers in their usual straight forward manner. The committee who had the affair in charge deserves much credit for their labor.

A Good Hearted Man, or in other words, men with good sound hearts, are not very numerous. The increasing number of sudden deaths from heart disease daily chronicled by the press, is proof of the alarming prevalence of this dangerous complaint, and as no one can foretell just when a fatal collapse will occur, the danger of neglecting treatment is certainly a very risky matter. If you are short of breath, have pain in left side, smothering spells, palpitation, unable to lie on side, especially the left, you should begin taking

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

J. A. Kreamer of Arkansas City, Kans., says: "My heart was so bad it was impossible for me to lie down, and I could neither sleep nor rest. My decline was rapid, and I realized I must get help soon. I was advised to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, which I did, and candidly believe it saved my life."
