In the District Court of the United States for the District of Minnesota, Sixth Division, in the matter of MINNIE WILLIAMS, Bankrupt.

To the Honorable William Lochren, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District of Minnesota.

Minnie Williams, of Bemidji, in the County of Beltrami and State of Minnesota, do hereby certify that she has duly surrendered all her property and rights of property and has fully complied with all the requirements of said act and the orders of the court touching her bankruptcy.

Wherefore she prays that she be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against her estate under said bankruptcy act except such debts as are excepted by law from such discharge.

MINNIE WILLIAMS, Bankrupt.

Dated November 23, 1902.

United States District Court, District of Minnesota, Sixth Division.

On the 23rd day of January, A. D. 1903, on reading the foregoing petition, it is Ordered by the Court, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 16th day of February, A. D. 1903, before said Court, at St. Paul, in said District; and that notice thereof be given to the creditors of said estate, by publication in said District, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the said time and place, and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the Court, that the Clerk shall send by mail to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

Witness the Honorable William Lochren, Judge of the said Court, and the seal thereof, at Fergus Falls, in said District, on the 20th day of January, A. D. 1903.

PROCLAMATION.

STATE OF MINNESOTA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

WHEREAS, pursuant to Chapter 143, of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota, for the year 1902, entitled "An Act to provide for the creation and organization of new counties and the government of the same," as amended by Chapter 124, of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1903, which act is entitled "An Act to amend sections two (2) and four (4) of Chapter 143, of the General Laws of the year 1902, providing for the creation and organization of new counties and the government of the same," a petition was filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota, on the 23rd day of March, 1902, praying for the creation of a new county out of territory now lying in Beltrami County, in the State of Minnesota, to be named Clearwater County, and which territory is described as follows:

"Commencing at the point where the town line between townships one hundred and fifty-two (152) and one hundred and fifty-three (153) intersects the boundary line between Red Lake and Beltrami Counties, thence south along the range line between ranges thirty-five (35) and thirty-six (36), and thence north (36) to the point where said range line intersects the northern boundary line of Becker County, Minnesota, thence east along the town line between townships one hundred and forty-two (142) and one hundred and forty-three (143) to a point where said town line intersects the eastern boundary line of Hubbard County, Minnesota, thence north along the range line between ranges thirty-five (35) and thirty-six (36) and thence east to the point where said range line intersects the southern shore of Red Lake, in said Beltrami County, thence following the said meandered line around the western shore of said Red Lake, to where said meandered line intersects the township line between townships one hundred and fifty-two (152) and one hundred and fifty-three (153) thence west along the township line between townships one hundred and fifty-two (152) and one hundred and fifty-three (153) to the place of commencement, containing and embracing therein townships one hundred and forty-three (143), one hundred and forty-four (144), one hundred and forty-five (145), one hundred and forty-six (146), one hundred and forty-seven (147), one hundred and forty-eight (148), one hundred and forty-nine (149), one hundred and fifty (150), one hundred and fifty-one (151), one hundred and fifty-two (152), north of range thirty-five (35), west of the Fifth Principal Meridian, being in all the thirty (30) townships aforesaid of said Beltrami County, Minnesota."

And that the village of Bagley be the county seat of said proposed new county, as named in said petition, and that E. N. Johnson, of the town of Copley, J. W. Johnson, of the town of Leon, Knute Norn of the town of Norn, Ben Peterson, of the town of Copley, and J. W. Pearson, of the town of Pine Lake, all in said County of Clearwater, be and constitute the first Board of County Commissioners of said proposed new county. All as provided in said petition.

AND WHEREAS, on the 28th day of May, 1902, said petition was duly considered by the Governor, State Auditor and Secretary of State of the State of Minnesota, and found that the petition was in conformity with the provisions of sections two and three (3) of Chapter one hundred and forty-three (143) of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1902, and that the said petition was in conformity with the provisions of said section two (2) of said chapter one hundred and forty-three (143) of the General Laws of said State for the year 1902.

AND WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of said section two (2) of said chapter one hundred and forty-three (143) as amended by said chapter one hundred and forty-four (144) of the General Laws of the State of Minnesota for the year 1903, said petition was duly considered by the Governor of the State of Minnesota, on the 28th day of May, A. D. 1902, duly issued his proclamation declaring that said petition was in conformity with the provisions of the general election to be held in said state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1902, which proclamation was duly filed, recorded and published in accordance with the provisions of the said act of the Legislature.

AND WHEREAS, it appears that the notice of an election, as provided by section four (4) of chapter one hundred and forty-three (143) of the general laws of the state of Minnesota for the year 1902, was duly published, and that the said petition was duly considered by the Governor of the State of Minnesota, on the 28th day of May, A. D. 1902, duly issued his proclamation declaring that said petition was in conformity with the provisions of the general election to be held in said state on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1902, which proclamation was duly filed, recorded and published in accordance with the provisions of the said act of the Legislature.

NOW THEREFORE, I, S. R. VAN SANT, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby publish, declare and proclaim that the proposition to organize and create the said County of Clearwater did receive the said election of a majority of the voters cast thereupon the said proposition and the same was duly adopted, and that the said County of Clearwater as hereinbefore defined and described, with the county seat located and named as hereinbefore defined and described, with the county seat located and named as hereinbefore defined and described, with all the rights and privileges conferred by law upon an organized county of the State of Minnesota.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be hereunto affixed, at the Capitol, in the City of St. Paul, in said State, on the 10th day of December, A. D. 1902.

Attest: P. H. HANSON, Secretary of State. S. R. VAN SANT, Governor.
