length. G. E. Carson. 8-tf.

G. W. Millet went to Cass Lake on business this morning.

B. F. Lum, an attorney of Minneapolis, is here on legal business.

D. Van Baalen, whose home is at Duluth, was a caller in the city today.

Fred McAllister came down from Blackduck and spent the day among friends here.

The Modern Samaritan conundrum supper tonight, only 10 cents. Don't fail to attend.

Dick Underwood one of Solway's representative citizens, was an arrival in the city today.

Seats on sale today at Mayo's drug store for the "Thoroughbred Tramp" at the opera house tonight night.

We do not handle ready-mixed paints. Our paints are mixed to order with the best lead and oil. Jones.

Geo. C. Smith and Alex Stroth each purchased a house and lot in the Nymore addition yesterday from A. E. Smith.

M. E. Harlin, representing the New York Life Insurance company, is in the city today writing policies. His home is in Crookston.

Any paint won't go on all surfaces, but each surface wants a special treatment. It is our business to mix paints to stay on any surface. 6tf

Next Sunday evening, May 3d, Rev.
Foster will deliver a sermon on "The Relation of the Church to Temperance Reform." All should hear him.

J. B. McLarin, insurance inspector of Duluth, was in town yesterday rating the new saw mill. The gentleman pronounces the mill one of the best he has ever rated.

Miss Laura Lawhead, one of Akeley's well known and popular young ladies, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Reed this week.

The shingle mill recently erected by the Itasca Paper company was started last week and is now making shingles.
This company recently purchased the entire stock of cedar logs belonging to Dunn & Marcia of Cohasset, consisting of about 1,000,000 feet, which with the large amount of other material they have on hand, will be manufactured into shingles during the coming season.

Deputy Sheriffs Hulbert and Sawyer lost heavily on a game of "backwoods authors" recently in Anderson's place and got even by arresting C. Fish, Otto Olson and D. Gunderson for selling liquor without a license, the latter having no connection with the place.
S. J. Lachapelle accompanied the party to the county seat to secure a saloon license, which he had applied for some time ago.—Big Fork Compass.

In the case of Henry Buenther vs. the State Game Commission et al., the joint motion of the defendants, the game commission; S. T. Fullerton, executive agent; J. W. Whitney and J. P. Saunders, deputy wardens: to set aside and dissolve the temporary injunction granted to Henry Buenther has been denied by the district court, and, therefore, the injunction having stood the test, is good. There will be further developments in the case in the near future.

Few traveling attractions carry such a thorough scenic equipment as "A Thoroughbred Tramp." Everything is carried, including a very realistic street scene in the city of Ouray, Colorado, a baggage room, two moving trains, a mountain canyon and a cave in the Rockies. The play itself is one of the strongest in this class of dramas, the tramp part being without doubt the greatest ever written, and while the comedy element predominates there is enough of the dramatic to more than satisfy theatre goers whose taste leans to the stronger drama. The company are at the opera house tonight.

Lots in Bailey's addition for sale by Lang & Carter. 6-10 G. Crone leaves Tuesday for Oregon to take up a timber claim.

Peter Larkin and wife of Turtle River were in the city today.

W. N. Bowser returned this afternoon from a trip to Duluth.

Chas. Vanderslues passed through here last night enroute to Blackduck.

C. L. Kidder is down from Tenstrike doing business with our merchants today.

Misses Edith and May Waldron have entirely recovered from a severe attack of typhoid.

P. J. McKeon dropped in on friends in the city. He registered at the Markham from Brainerd.

J. C. McCarthy, a St. Paul liquor house representative, is calling on the liquor trade here today.

R. A. Grim, done business with E.
H. Winter & Co. today in the interest of the Garland Stove Works.

James Tourcott and Ole Tollefson, both of Nebish, were released from the county pest house this morning.

Jack Hennessey is jacking up the Malzahn block today. A new foundation will be put under the building.

Frank W. Tufts, deputy United States marshal, left for the Schoolcraft river country today, where his duties called him.

M. J. Scanlon of the Scanlon-Gibson Lumber company of Minneapolis, is looking after the interests of the firm in this vicinity today.

E. L. Naylor has an elegant stock of new furniture from the Grand Rapids Furniture company, and is offering the public some excellent bargains.

Samuel Chase walked from the Headquarters camp near Solway to the county pest house last night. He has a well developed case of small-pox.

Frank Sprague has returned from Ashland, Wis., but did not have an operation performed, as it was thought dangerous because of his weakened condition.

Doran & Lyon, who have purchased the McCuaig & Ludington tin shop, are young men deserving of success.
Both are thorough mechanics and are well and favorably known.

County Commissioners Sibley and McDougald inspected the county poor farm this morning and it is understood that several needed improvements will be suggested to the board.

Mrs. A. E. Smith accompanied her husband down town today. This is the first time Mrs. Smith has been able to be down town since she was taken ill with the measles some ten weeks ago.

Miss Alice M. Cook arrived on the afternoon train for a day's visit with her sister, Mrs. Harry Reynolds.
Miss Cook is an artist with the Hudson Bay company and is enroute to Winnipeg.

Alex Monahan, a bartender, was taken to the county pest house last night. His is the worst case ever taken to the pest house, and little hope of his recovery is entertained by the physician in charge.

Sheriff Bailey's team tried to cut a figure eight around Olson's barber pole on Minnesota avenue and sprung the axle of the buggy. On the team's promise of good behavior in the future the genial sheriff made no arrest.

Evidence in the case of the J. Neils Lumber company vs. Wm. Hines was taken by Miss H. Holdeman. Attorneys Lum & Scanlon of Minneapolis represent the lumber company and Attorney Crawford Mr. Hines. The case will be heard before Judge Spooner shortly.

Ray McNece of Sauk Centre has taken Mail Clerk Olson's run on the line between this city and Sauk Center, the latter having resumed his duties on his regular run on the main line. Mr. Olson has made many friends here who will learn with regret of his transfer.

C. B. Freeman came in from Lincoln Center, Kan., and has been busy looking over the city with a view to locating here. It is noticeable that Bemidji's reputation as the coming business center of northern Minnesota is not confined to our own state, but judging from the distance those looking for locations are daily arriving, is know both near and far.

John Cline and Norm Helmer, two of our popular limbs of the law, are hot on the trail of the forger who used their names to secure two blank lines on the register of a well known hotel.
The officials allege that they have a clear case against the perpetrator of the crime, as they can prove alibis for themselves. Future development in the case will be watched with intense interest.

O'Brien & Hurley of Brainerd have reopened the Minneapolis News stand and are preparing to place before the public a stock second to none in northern Minnesota. Both members of the firm come to Bemidji highly recommend, and will undoubtedly win the success to which their business and hustling abilities entitle them. Mr.
Hurley will have the management of the business.

John Wilm is seriously ill.
Dr. Gilmoure went to Solway yesterday.

And still they pile wood on the street.

Mrs. Cleary of Melrose is at St.
Anthony's hospital under the care of Dr. Gilmoure.

Willis Dunlap, manager of "The Thoroughbred Tramp" company, found an old friend here in A. H. Harris.

Sartell Bros. of St. Cloud, accompanied by Dr. Blakeslee, were at Sol-way yesterday looking over the planing mill at that place with a view to purchasing same. The mill is held by the county.

Mmes. G. Croon and Joe Steidl returned from their trip to Oregon last night. The ladies made the round trip in two weeks and filed on two fine stone and timber claims. They staged 150 miles in order to reach the claims and report a pleasant journey.

Street Commissioner Pogue has his force at work putting in a cross-walk at the corner of Beltrami avenue and Fourth street. The commissioner is a busy man these days, and the people thoroughly appreciate his earnest efforts to give the city the metropolitan appearance it should have.

Sunday Ball.

A New York magistrate has decided that base ball played on Sunday is legal, if there is no real disturbance of the "repose and religious liberty of a community." He classes golf, driving, bicycling, etc., all of which are indulged in on Sunday, along with base ball, and implies that if one amusement is to be stopped the others should be. He holds that public opinion has greatly changed since the anti-amusement statutes were enacted, which is undoubtedly true. At the same time magistrates are not supposed to make the law but to enforce them. If changes are needed the legislature should be asked to make them.

Hotel Changes Hands.

Recently a deal was closed whereby E. J. Druecker secured the interest of Brink Bros. in the Hotel Markham at St. Hillare, which was formerly owned by A. M. Markham of this city, and will take possession today. Emil J.
Brink, who has been conducting the hotel, will move to Bemidji and probably engage in business here.

Dr. Druecker has conducted the Palace hotel at Red Lake Falls for the past year, and is a first class hotel man. The hotel has had a splendid reputation in the past, and Bemidji will welcome Mr. Brink to our business circles.

Must Wait for Scott.

A report from Solway states that the Indians at Red Lake requested that Major Scott be present at their council with Major McLaughlin. They have postponed the council until his arrival. The major is expected to arrive there tonight.

Reduced Rates to Canada.

We have just completed arrangements with the Canadian immigration agent to furnish reduced railroad tickets to all points in Manitoba, Assinibol, Saskatchewan and Alberta.
We have maps and plats and can locate parties on government lands or sell lands upon easy payments.

Harvester Plant Closed.

Chicago, May 1. — The entire Deering harvester plant has shut down, notice being posted to the effect that the works would be closed until further notice. Over 6,000 persons were employed at beginning of the strike.

To Succeed Beck.

Washington, May 1. — Attorney General Knox has appointed J. C. Mc-Reynolds of Tennessee assistant attorney general of the United States to succeed James M. Beck, resigned. Mc-Reynolds is forty-two years old.

'A Thoroughbred Tramp' Tonight.

Elmer Walters' great sensational comedy, "A Thoroughbred Tramp," will be seen at the City Opera House tonight.

This production is said to be one of Mr. Walters' greatest efforts. All special scenery is carried and a strong company, among whom may be mentioned Will B. Wheeler, W. B. Fredericks, J. E. Riley, Harry Darlington, Blanchard Brand, Guy Errol, Della Watson and Margaret Flintwood.

Willis Dunlap, the manager, is well known in Bemidji having appeared here on several occasions with Sanford Dodge. He reports a successful season with "A Thoroughbred Tramp." Their tour has extended from Chicago to the Pacific coast over the N. P. and down to Southern California, back east over the Santa Fe, playing the larger cities in Colorado, Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Michigan.

The advance sale indicates a large house tonight.
