DYNAMITE AGAIN

BLACKMAILERS MAKE THREATS TO DESTROY N. P. PROP-ERTY GOOD.

ENGINE WRECKED NEAR HELENA

DETECTIVES, SHERIFFS AND BLOODHOUNDS BEGIN
THE CHASE.

FINAL CAPTURE IS CERTAIN

MONEY IS NO OBJECT IN THEIR EFFORTS TO RUN THE MEN DOWN.

Helena, Mont., Oct. 8.—The Northern Pacific suffered again Monday night from the work of the dynamit-ers. At 10:30 p. m., when an extra west-bound freight was near Bird's Eye, which is eight miles west of Helena, the explosion occurred. A portion of the track was destroyed. As wore the pilot of the engine and the headlight.

The engine stopped the train quickly and prevented its being ditched. News of the outrage was received in Helena by the railroad detectives soon after midnight and a special train with detectives left for the scene. Six bloodhounds were taken.

Chief of Detectives McPetridge and a party of officers and detectives returned yesterday from the scene of the latest dynamite outrage. It began to rain heavily soon after the explosion that wrecked the freight engine Monday night, and by the time the officers arrived every trace of the blackmailers had been washed away.
Bloodhounds were unable to gain a scent.

Officials Are Concerned.

St. Paul, Oct. 8.—News of the new dynamite outrage Monday night eight miles west of Helena, Mont., was received with much concern by headquarters officials of the Northern Pacific yesterday and it is not improbable that General Manager Thomas Cooper will go West personally to take charge of the work of tracing the outlaws.

Northern Pacific operating officials until yesterday were confident that the end of the trouble with the dynamit-ers had been reached. The limit under which the blackmail demanded was to have been paid expired Sunday without further incident, and it was believed that nothing further would be heard of the band until their capture.

Sure to Catch Them.

The dynamiters, operating officials believe now, are still within easy reach of the Montana and Idaho main line. Hundreds of detectives and state and county officers are searching for them and track guards have been doubled and trebled. The precautions for perfect safety of trains were believed to be perfect, yet the dynamit-ers made their attack and escaped.

"There is no question that we will get these men yet," a prominent executive official said yesterday. "It seems impossible for them to escape, and money is no object in the effort to capture them. We will refuse to grant their demands, even though it costs us five times $50,000 to catch them and send them over the road."

Express Messenger Insane.

Storm Lake, Iowa, Oct. 8.—W. A.
Fish of this city has been taken to the insane hospital at Cherokee. Mr.
Fish became violently insane Thursday while on his run as express messenger between this city and Des Moines. He imagined some one was trying to break into the car and emptied his revolver in the car.

Wisconsin Pioneer Dead.

Sparta, Wis., Oct. 8.—Abramam Fairbanks, aged seventy-three, one of Sparta's prominent pioneers, died yesterday morning after months of suffering from cancer. He was a veteran of the Civil war, and belonged to Company A, Fifty-second Wisconsin volunteers. A wife and five children survive him.

Richardson Appeals.

Des Moines, Oct. 8.—Deputy United States Marshal W. A. Richardson, one of the oldest and best known government officers in Iowa, who was sentenced last week to eighteen years for the robbery of P. Sullivan, has provided an appeal bond and will be released.

Killed by Cars.

Marquette, Mich., Oct. 8.—While stealing a ride on an ore train George Anderson, a lumberman, fell in between the cars last night near here and was fatally injured.

Cashier Is Removed.

Iowa Falls, Iowa, Oct. 8.—Edward O. Soule, cashier of the Home Savings bank of this city, has been removed by the directors and the institution is in the hands of a corps of expert accountants looking after a shortage.

Killed in a Runaway.

Minot, N. D., Oct. 8.—Ed Dunn, a well known man residing north of this city, was killed in a runaway yesterday. He was driving a team of coits, hauling oats, and fell under a wheel of the wagon.

BEAR WILL STAY

NOT TO BE FRIGHTENED OUT OF MANCHURIA BY JAPANESE MENACES.

GIVES SEMI-OFFICIAL WARNING

JAPANESE DIPLOMATS PROFESS TO HOPE FOR AMICABLE SETTLEMENT.

BUT THEY GET READY FOR WAR

ARMY AND NAVY IS PLACED IN READINESS FOR EVENTU-ALITIES.

Port Arthur, China, Oct. 8.—Commenting on the warlike attitude of Japan—its secret preparations for hostilities, its military mobilizations and the significant move meats of its fleet—the Navy Krai, a semi-official newspaper published here, says:

"Russia will not be frightened by Japanese menaces out of Manchuria on Oct. 8 (the date set by the Russian authorities for the evacuation of the Chinese province) or after."

Japs Have War Fever.

Yokohama, Oct. 8.—With the approach of Oct. 8, the nominal date for Russia's evacuation of Manchuria, great tension is observable among the Japanese populace, but in diplomatic circles it is reaffirmed that hopefulness prevails of an amicable settlement of the imbroglio between Russia and Japan on the basis of minor concessions by Russia to Korea and Manchuria, though officials do not profess to expect that the evacuation of Manchuria will be effected on the exact date named.

Baron von Rosen, the Russian minister to Japan, has returned here from a conference with Viceroy Alexieff at Port Arthur, and he had a short conference with Baron Komura, the Japanese foreign minister, on Oct. 3.

Ready for War.

Baron Komoru has since given out a hopeful interview, but the Japanese ministers of war and navy thereafter had long conferences with the emperor. Marquis Ito, president of the privy council, and Viscount Katsu, the premier, indicating that preparations are going on to meet any eventuality.
The fleet and the army are both without question in readiness, and large supplies for both the army and navy have been accumulated.

Popular feeling in Japan is exasperated at Russia's dilatory tactics, and the excitement has been aggravated by the sensational press, which is constantly circulating rumors of fresh Russian aggressions.

INSURGENTS REPULSED.

They Seek Shelter in Bulgarian Territory.

Sofia, Oct. 8.—A dispatch forwarded from Rilo monastery yesterday says that the insurgents have withdrawn entirely from the Razlog district and valley, having sustained serious repulses. The insurgents and their agents are attempting to conceal the truth, but the fact remains that combined operations on the part of the insurgents in that direction are no longer possible. The Turkish troops having effected a clearance and driven the hands to seek shelter in Bulgarian territory. Details of the fighting at Kittkar, near Kratovo, thirty miles from Uskub, Oct. 1 and 2 have reached the revolutionary headquarters here. The battle was waged for thirty-six hours. The Turks found it impossible to dislodge the band of eighty insurgents from their strong position and they brought up two cannons. The shots, however, went over among the insurgents and wrought havoc among the Turks on the other side of the position. The insurgents ultimately escaped. The Turkish losses are variously estimated at from 60 to 250 men killed or wounded.

A PLAIN CRANK.

Peter Olson Elliott Had No Connection With Paterson Anarchists.

New York, Oct. 8.—Inquiry among the few anarchists left in Paterson, N. J., since the crusade against them following the Dyers' riots, failed to show that Peter Olson Elliott, who attempted to force his way into the presence of President Roosevelt, had over mixed with the Paterson anarchists. The incident at the White House was discussed in resorts frequented by the Italian and French anarchists, but none of the men had any knowledge of Elliott. One of the leaders said: "While we are opposed to rulers, we have no particular grievance against Mr. Roosevelt. My personal opinion is that Elliott is simply a crank."

COLT FOR GOVERNOR.

Republicans of Rhode Island Name a State Ticket.

Providence, R. I., Oct. 8.—The Republicans of Rhode Island met here yesterday in state convention, formed a permanent organization and selected a ticket headed by Col. Samuel P.
Colt of Bristol, president of the United States Rubber company. The platform adopted supported President Roosevelt's administration and the principles of the party as adopted at the last Republican convention.

There Is Land

the Northwest

And the Northern Pacific has a new and very Low Rate for Colonists and Homeseekers in effect from September 15 to November 30, 1903.

This gives the Farmers a good chance to go homeseeking after crops are harvested, or any others who wish to move into the growing, teeming, improving Northwest to visit it at a trifling expense.

The finest valleys in the Northwest, good for grain, hay, fruits, root crops, for mixed, stock or dairy farming, for irrigation or not, as one wishes, are found along the Northern Pacific or its branch or connecting lines. The growing, thriving towns are found there, too. It is a great country.
