NEGOTIATIONS ARE STILL PROCEEDING

REPORTS EMANATING FROM CERTAIN SOURCES MAY BE DISMISSED AS ABSURD.

Yokohama, Oct. 14.—All reports emanating from Shanghai of the opening of hostilities between Japan and Russia, etc., may be dismissed as absurd.

The second secretary of the Russian legation left Tokio Oct. 12 with secret dispatches for the Russian viceroy of the Far East, Admiral Alexieff.

An important conference of veteran Japanese statesmen, including the Marquis Ito, was held at the premier's office during the day.

London, Oct. 14.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister here, has received reassuring news from Japan with reference to the situation in the Far East.

Berlin, Oct. 14.—Count Inouye, the Japanese minister, says everything in the dispute between Japan and Russia will be settled amicably.

TOWN NOT OCCUPIED.

Japan Did Not Land Her Troops at Masanpo. London, Oct. 14.—The trend of the day's early information regarding the Far Eastern situation is less alarming.

The Koetinsche Zeitung also prints a reassuring telegram from St. Petersburg, repeating a telegram from Port Arthur, stating that Viceroy Alexieff has issued a contradiction of the reported movements of Japanese troops to Korea.

A special dispatch from Rome says that forty-five Japanese officers who have been studying at the military academies of Modena and Raccogioni have been called to Japan by telegraph and immediately started for Brindisi to embark for Japan.

WILL STAY IN MANCHURIA.

Russia Blames China, Japan and England for Existing Situation. St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.—The foreign office says it has no official confirmation of the reported disembarkation of Japanese troops at Masanpo.

Regarding Manchuria the foreign office states that the question is at present closed. The existing situation is the fault of the Chinese, Japanese and British.

Russia is now transporting 50,000 troops, nurses, physicians and hospital supplies to the Far East. The present strength of the Russian army now there is reliably reported to be 283,000 men.

MAY ARRANGE MODUS VIVENDI.

Both Japan and Russia Willing to Discuss Differences. Berlin, Oct. 14.—The foreign office here now looks upon the situation in the Far East as being less grave.

The foreign office says the London Times statement that a secret agreement exists between Great Britain and Germany relative to East Asia is wholly incorrect.

Russian Military Review.

New York, Oct. 14.—Admiral Alexieff, the Russian viceroy, has held a review of 40,000 men of the Kwangtung army, says a Herald dispatch from Port Arthur.
