AMUSEMENTS

"Old Jed Prouty" is like good wine, it improves with age.
Among those who saw last night's presentation at the city opera house were many who saw it for the second and third time and the universal opinion is expressed that it has never been seen to better advantage. The piece with its quaint character, while not classic is decidedly entertaining and the specialty program in the last act was one of the best things ever seen at the local house.

Broadhurst's funny farce comedy "What Happened to Jones" will be the next attraction. Above is a picture of Millard Reid, the talented comedian, who does the comedy lead of the piece "The Bishop."

held at Minneapolis and the remains will be taken to Michigan for burial.

Ten Laborers Killed by Cavein in New York Subway.

New York, Oct. 27.—Ten lives were walls of the subway tunnel at One Hundred and Ninety-fifth street and four persons were badly injured.

The dead are: Timothy Sullivan, William Schuette, foreman; Guiseppe Barone, Stanzione Brune, Louis Tippo and five unidentified Italians.

The cavein was caused by the falling of a huge boulder that acted as a keystone for thousands of tons of earth and rock and was loosened by a blast.

Rufus C. Hunt, the superintendent, and Richard Beyers, foreman, for J.
B. McDonald, the contractor, were arrested on a charge of criminal negligence pending an investigation by the coroner.
