P. E. DOWLING,

Of Eveleth, is a range candidate for member of the house of representatives from the Forty-ninth district, and invites the suffrage of Republican voters. He believes the ranges are entitled to a more equal share of political honors than has heretofore been accorded the north end of the district, because of the act that our enormous iron and umber interests so demand, and pecause with Hon, E. B. Hawkins in the Senate and P. E. Dowling in the House the iron ranges and their constantly increasing industries will receive justice.
