

ALEXANDER REID & CO.

THINGS THAT ARE NEW

Every Person of average intelligence admires New Things. It is with genuine pleasure that we display for your inspection not only the Largest Stock of Wash Goods, but the Largest and Newest Stock in all lines that has ever been opened in Virginia. Look at our windows, then come and look inside; you cannot fail to be interested in the

New Persian Ribbon
New Val. Laces
New Belts
New Dotted Swiss
New Waist Linens
New Persian Linen
New Organdies
New Batiste
New Gingham
New Percales
New Windsor Ties

New Neckwear
New Mohair
New Sicilians
New Alpaca
New Hosiery
New Gloves
New Belts
New Ruching
New Oalitea Cloth
New Marseilles Spreads
New White Goods

ALEXANDER REID & CO.,
VIRGINIA, - - - MINNESOTA.

Penetrating Oil

IT PENETRATES TO THE BONE

The best known liniment for Rheumatism, Lameness, Sprains, Bruises, Sciatica, Swellings, Burns, Scalds, Stings of insects, Mosquito Bites, Neuralgia or any soreness caused by lifting or straining.

Owing to its penetrating qualities this Oil is far superior to any other in quickly reducing swellings and inflammations. For sale only at

TREDWAY'S
DRUG STORE

TELEPHONE - NO. 130

Local News.

Dr. O. B. Wood, dentist.
Removal Sale at Hall's.
Removal Sale at Hall's.
Don't miss the Removal Sale at Hall's.
H. J. Nathanson was a business visitor to Duluth Friday.
County Commissioner McInnis was in from Eveleth Saturday.
Colored glasses for driving and to keep the glare of the snow from the eyes. Virginia Optical Parlors.
Miss Clara Dahl came over from Hibbing Saturday evening, spending the Sabbath with Virginia relatives and friends.

Removal Sale at Hall's.

Attend the Removal Sale at Hall's.
Don't miss the Removal Sale at Hall's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Belanger were over from Chisholm Friday.

Up-to-Date Dressmaking at 228 Pine street. Miss Hildar Sundrall.

W. T. Bies returned Friday evening from a visit to his former home at Rice Lake, Wis.

FOR SALE.—Boarding house, lot and furniture. Apply at 115 Oak street.

We use the latest instruments in examining the eyes. No guesswork. Virginia Optical Parlors.

W. S. Pollock, of the Virginia Foundry & Machine Co., went to Duluth Saturday for a brief visit at home.

G. A. Davis, the jeweler, wants your repair work—and will do it right at right prices. All work of every description done at home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Coons came over from Hibbing Saturday, Mrs. Coons remaining for the week as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jacob Stein.

W. H. Ward and family moved into their new home, the former Belanger house on Wyoming, the first of the week. Mr. Ward has accepted a position as a mechanic in the shops of the Minnesota Land & Construction Co.

A funeral parlor scene in the display windows of J. Mesberg attracts the attention of all. The idea and arrangement are the work of A. W. Hubbard, licensed embalmer, with undertaking parlors in connection with Mr. Mesberg's furniture establishment.

EYES! Dr. C. J. Larson, the well known eye specialist, will make his next professional visit to Virginia on Monday and Tuesday, February 26 and 27. If you are troubled with defective eyes you should lose no time in consulting Dr. Larson; he can be relied upon to give relief and prescribe perfect fitting glasses. Dr. Larson has been very successful in treating obstinate cases in Virginia and vicinity and if your eyes are ailing in any way you should not miss this opportunity to consult him. Office at the Hotel Fay.

Read the Enterprise.

Removal Sale at Hall's.
Eye-glass chains, pins, opera glasses, compasses, etc.
Virginia Optical Parlors.

W. H. Cook was up from Duluth Saturday looking after matters in connection with his business interests at this point.

Dr. J. H. Girvin, of the Virginia Optical Parlors, welcomed his wife to the city, from Mankato, Friday evening last.

E. J. Sigel returned Tuesday morning from Rochester, where he had been confined in the Mayo Hospital for some time.

Now is the time to have your eyes examined if they bother you in any way. Don't delay. Delays are sometimes dangerous.

Virginia Optical Parlors.

The Mesaba Art Tailors, Tower Hotel Block, invite your inspection of their handsome stock of fall and winter suitings. Satisfactory work guaranteed, and prices always right.

Buy your drafts
Cash your checks
Deposit your funds at the American

Exchange
Bank

VIRGINIA,
MINN.

Fire, Life and Accident Insurance
Written.

W. H. COLE, President
C. T. FAIRBAIN, V. Pres.
D. W. STEBBINS, Cashier.

Removal Sale at Hall's.

Phone 105 for draying or moving.

E. E. Burley and son Roy were Duluth visitors Tuesday.

Rod McDonald left Wednesday for a brief business visit to Bemidji.

Judge J. M. Martin went to Duluth today, on legal business.

Alderman Mesberg attended to business matters at Duluth Saturday.

D. O. Anderson, of the Virginia Lumber Co., was up from Duluth Tuesday evening.

The next meeting of the M. E. Ladies' Aid will be with Mrs. Simcock, at the Lincoln.

Your attention is directed to the new advertisement of the F. B. Rosson Insurance Agency in this issue.

Miss Myrtle M. Barton left Wednesday morning for Seattle, Wash., where she accepts a position in the office of a large manufacturing concern.

A number of the young people of the city were among attendants at a party under the auspices of the Fayal Club, at Fayal Hall Wednesday evening.

J. W. Murphy, of the Virginia Transfer & Dray Line, sports a handsome new dray team, purchased from L. Hammel Co. early in the week.

Mrs. R. E. Bailie pleasantly entertained the young ladies at the fourth of a series of afternoon receptions at her home on Lake Boulevard yesterday afternoon.

Alexander Reid left Monday for a week's visit to the Chicago markets, where he makes additional seasonable selections for the store of Alexander Reid & Co.

Mrs. Mayme West, milliner, is a visitor to the Twin City and Chicago markets where she selects a stock which will be appreciated by the ladies of the city the coming season.

W. W. Woodward, agent of the Duluth, Rainy Lake & Winnipeg, puts in a few days in the north country. L. Peterson assumes the duties of the office during his absence.

The social and card party at Hawkinson Hall Monday evening under the auspices of the young ladies of the Catholic Church was a pronounced success, socially and financially.

Ed Finch returned yesterday from McKinley, Mich., where he was called by the illness of his brother, Frank, whose death at a Detroit hospital was noted in the Enterprise of last issue.

On Saturday Joseph Karl closed a deal for the purchase of the meat market of Joseph Bartol, of Chisholm, taking possession of same on Monday. The business purchased is said to be a paying one, and between his shop here and his new place Mr. Karl will be kept busy.

The new tower and tank of the Virginia L. & W. Co., foundation for which was laid last fall, is expected to arrive here about March 1st. The erection of this tank will void the necessity of the Light & Water Company connecting with the lake in case of fire, and will also give additional natural pressure.

If you contemplate taking out life insurance, don't do yourself the injustice of not looking into the plans of the Surety Fund Life Company. Combining in one policy protection, investment, and permanent disability. The policy is an absolute contract. No by-laws; no forfeiture by change of occupation. Safe as old line—cheaper than many fraternal. MARSHALL RILEY, Agent, Fay Hotel.

The "Clean-to-Handle" Fountain Pen

Moore's Non-Leakable
Fountain Pen
Is guaranteed NOT TO LEAK when carried in any position in the pocket

Warranted to write IMMEDIATELY without drying or flooding whenever applied to paper

Possibly the highest grade Fountain Pen on the market. Unlike all others

CALL AND SEE THESE WONDERFUL PENS

Sodergren's

DRUG STORE Virginia, Minn.

Announcement

The Fairest Spring Styles

Filled with the Spirit of May—
All kinds of wearing apparel for

Ladies, Gents and Children

That has the new life and the fresh and varied coloring of spring time itself. With the freshness of spring that suggests thine fragrance, these are the tempting things that fill our store with the spirit of May and prompts us to invite you all to come and examine our

Handsome New Stock

which is arriving every day and almost every hour, with an alertness which has placed us as the very leaders in

Men's Women's and Children's Furnishing Goods and Ready Made Garments

as also in

Styles and Prices

Our prices on everything we sell being so low that any one of you can deal with us and save money.

We have been unable to arrange for the enlargement of our store, but we are showing the LARGEST and BEST STOCK of IMPORTED GOODS in this part of the country. We import these goods direct from Europe, and it will be worth your while to see our display, especially the new comers to the city, as we have never before shown such a handsome stock or elegant assortment of this class of merchandise. Our line of Ladies', Men's and Children's Shoes is the finest and most complete in the city. We buy all our shoes direct from the manufacturer, and purchase a higher priced grade than do other dealers, as we consider satisfaction to the trade worth a great deal. We handle the famous Utz & Dunn Shoes, the best in the world.

Remember that anything we sell you is absolutely guaranteed, or your money will be cheerfully refunded.

We are the only Exclusive Store in the city, and it will pay you to wait and see our stock when complete—which will not be long—before making your spring and summer purchases.

Jereissati Bros
THE NEW STORE

Virginia,

Minnesota.

Now is the time to have your eyes looked after. Not to-morrow. Virginia Optical Parlors.

Geo. McEwen, a Duluth grocer, visits relatives in the city this week, and looks for a business opening at this point.

C. E. Pigott is busy this week looking after the shipment of his household goods to Duluth, where he will shortly locate and engage in business.

Mrs. C. Gordon Mayo left Wednesday for a visit at her former home at Lakota, S. D., after which she will join Mr. Mayo at Lead, where he is now located.

Mrs. William Bonds and son Frank left yesterday morning for Redondo, California, for a visit at the home of William Bonds, Jr., who is now located at that point. The trip is with the further hope that the climatic change will prove beneficial to Mrs. Bonds' declining health.

Fire Insurance

IS ACTUALLY A NECESSITY.....

and the cost should bar no property owning man from having a policy covering the same for at least 75 per cent.

VIRGINIA PEOPLE should know from experience what a fiend fire is.

BICKFORD

The Insurance Man can give you a policy in one of his 15 Bond Companies.

STEIN & O'ROURKE BLOOM
TELEPHONE No. 155.