Ask any Business Woman who has once used

Moore's Non-Leakable Fountain Pen

Why she prefers it above all others and in all probability she'll give you a dozen reasons — it has so many merits.
"Why," she'll begin, "I can drop it into my pocket."
"Leak?"
"Never; it can't. It's air-tight and ink-tight."
"It's a convenient size—4½ inches long when closed."
"It's clean—to handle—never soils the fingers. But I could not begin to recite all its virtues. There's no pen that can compare with it in any respect." See for yourself We have all the various styles at that point.

The W. T. Bailey Lumber Co., which concern is becoming a greater employer of labor than in former years and under its contract with the Oliver Company is running its Virginia mill double shift throughout the season, erects a commodious boarding house on the former site of the Shields blacksmith shop on Walnut street.

Some renegade with a woeful lack of appreciation of the beautiful in nature, broke down a tree at the corner of the Lenox Hospital on Friday evening last, ripping the half of the top off. A dose of rock salt would scarce have penetrative force enough to properly deal with one who would commit such a deed.

Do you want the finest when buying your winter suit or overcoat?
If so you will not forget N. A. Holmer, the merchant tailor, whose stock of suitings and overcoat patterns is replete with the finest the market affords. His prices are always right, he keeps in touch with the latest styles, and his work always gives satisfaction.

the Winston & Dear Co. in the Chisholm district, was in the city Tuesday, visiting with H. C.
Hansen, who will superintend the new work by that company on section 30, south of the city. Two shovels will be placed on the work at the outset, and the company awaits the arrival of same from Montana, where they have been employed in railroad work in the Missoula district. The initial contract on section 30, which embraces what was formerly known as the Groes homestead, is about 1,500,000 yards, and will mean the employment of a large force during the seasons of 1909-10.

hope that it may be beneficial to the health of Mr. Shanedling, Sr., who suffers from lung trouble.

Hans C. Hanson, superintendent of the Winston & Dear stripping operations on Section 30, south of the city, arrived here the last of the week and attends to the opening work on the new contract. Mr.
Hanson has purchased the Wason home on Central avenue, and will make his home here.

Deputy Sheriff M. Horgan came up from Duluth Sunday with a number of those indicted by the late grand jury, who appeared before the court to enter their plea the following morning. Most of the indictments returned were against "blind piggers" although a number of true bills were found against certain ones accused of graver offenses.

Miss Karen Larson, of Minneapolis, formerly head secretary of the Daughters of Norway, was the guest of honor at a pleasant farewell party given jointly by the Daughters and Sons of Norway in her honor last evening. Miss Larson has spent the past two weeks in the city as the guest of Mrs. D. A.
Martinson and Mrs. Andrew Dahl, and leaves today for her Minneapolis home.
