unloading rails from a flat car his feet was crushed. He was brought to a local hospital. The amputation of several toes will be necessitated.

The Moths of Society.
When one sees some of the things that happen in modern society one is somewhat shocked in the Society, 'now playing at the Lyric one sees the wickedness of a mother, whose social ambitions wreck the life of her daughter. It is a wonderful portrayal of society life. As one sees, one feels, while witnessing the performance of the St. Clair players, so good in the cast. One's interest is held from the rise of the curtain to the final climax. See it and judge for yourself.

James Keeley, who is interested in some land deals with Martin Nelson on the Vermilion range, returned this morning from Embarras, Waukegan and Ely, where he closed deals for the sale of some farm lands in that district.

CITY BRIEFS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Horticulturists Annoyed.
Virginia horticulturists who have crab apple trees in bearing are suffering the usual annoyance from the inevitable small boy. Apple trees are now in bearing and in several sections of the city trees have been ruined by small boys prematurely pilfering the fruit. City Clerk Bickford has an apple tree which promised this season to yield more than a bushel of fruit and which has been ruined by the youngsters. Crab apple growing comparatively speaking a new thing for Virginia, but those who planted trees several seasons ago report that they are doing nicely and would be pleased if the boys would let the trees alone long enough to determine just what the yields will be as well as the quality of the ripe fruit.
