Mr. Herbert Clark of Owatonna, Minn., is in town visiting friends.

Mrs. T. R. Davis has been quite ill and friends were much alarmed at one time, she is much better now.

For to the lack of space, some very interesting matter was crowded out but it will appear next week.

The next church sociable will be held at the Warren House. Take note, plenty of room for lots of fun. Come.

Presiding elder J. B. Starkey, preached in the school house to a large congregation, on Friday evening last.

The boys had a little game of check(ers), George got beat, by a "feller" who hadn't played for twenty years. Next.

The train was six hours late last evening. The train men report no snow on the track to-day, although it is drifting considerably.

The O. B. society will give notice of there next meeting and will extend a cordial invitation to all visiting brethren to join them.

Mr. Ed. F. Whitney, of Tamarac notoriety, is loafing around town enjoying himself. Ed. is a good boy and full of fun and music.

Mark Stephens, the genial manager of the Warren House, has had the well connected with the house, dug about three feet deeper, and now they have plenty of water.

H. C. Mentzer was up the road last week looking after business. He says that Hallock is a flourishing town, with a big hotel, rather toney, No more cigars in his.

Vice-President Angus of the St. P., M. & M. railroad passed through here enroute for Winnipeg to congratulate his friends on the passage of his great Canada Pacific Syndicate bill.

Just notice what Tom Morris, THE Crookston jeweler has to say in to-days SHEAF. Tom understands his business, and anything he does you may depend on it being well done.

Mr. H. C. Mentzer has something to say to-day in an other column of the SHEAF. He represents a fine line of goods: In next week's paper he will come out a little more plainer.

Those wishing to sow flax seed the coming season, will leave their orders with Johnson, Allen & Co., as the orders must go out before March 1st, to enable them to get seed here in time for sowing.

The following telegram has just been received: ST. PAUL, Feb. 2, 1881. J. B. TITUS.

Division bill has passed the House and gone to the Senate. J. P. NELSON.

Rev. A. E. Flint has been for the past week very sick, caused by a bad cold settling upon his lungs, he has been unable to leave his bed, but we are glad to note that he is now steadily improving.

When you visit Grand Forks, put up at the Mansard House, Capt. H. E. Msloney will give you the best front room and set you down to one of the squarest meals, you can get in this north-west.

The ground in this vicinity is frozen to the depth of about six feet, which is a good indication that we will have A No. 1 crops of wheat next season. That is the secret of wheat raising in the Red River Valley.

There was a very pleasant and profitable meeting at the depot, of a large number of our citizens on Monday evening. Business concerning the county at large and also at home were talk over.

A former settler of this place by the name of Geo. L. Holly had the misfortune to badly injure himself while in the logging camp of John Goss & Co., on the 19th inst. We understand he is getting along as well as possible now.

Save ice for summer use. All that is necessary is to afford it good facilities for drainage, protection against rains and sunshine, and exclusion from the air as can be affected by enveloping the sides and top of the ice heap with a covering five feet or more thick of chaff and fine straw. Perfect drainage is however, necessary. [Fisher's Landing Bulletin.]

Mr. S. Jerrett's house took fire, from the pipe where it passes through the roof, but for the prompt action of P. L. Sticking, who was there alone, it would have burned to the ground. He did not have a ladder whereby to gain access to the ridge, but took a bucket of water by the handle in his mouth and succeeded in going up by clinging hold of the cornice with his hands.

The Sunday school was well attended last Sunday. New officers were elected as follows: J. M. Brown, Superintendent. W. H. Gilbert, Asst. Supt. J. S. Briggs, Secretary. Geo. H. McCrea, Treasurer. The time was changed to 12 o'clock, or immediately after morning services. All are invited to come and help instruct the young to walk in the paths of rectitude.

School Exhibition.

Prof. Brown has been for several weeks past, training the pupils under his charge in singing etc., and on Friday evening next, will give a school exhibition, they will produce the following pieces: Scene in a Railroad Station, Happy Family, The Pantaloon Fight.

To conclude with the comical farce, entitled Hans Von Smash.

The performance will be interspersed with selections from various authors, singing and instrumental music. Everybody turn out and fill the school house full, a large audience always encourages those taking part as performers to do their best.
