Local Breivities.

Wheat 80 cents. Friday, Feb. 25th.

Almost every day there passes one or more carloads of horses bound for Winnipeg.

Where will the next sociable be? The last one at the Warren House, money enough was given to pay off the indebtedness on the organ.

We had a pleasant call from Mr. U. L. Craig, of Middle River, last evening. He reports everything doing nicely considering the weather, etc., in his neighborhood.

As we are going to have a drug store, why don't we have a good physician and surgeon also. There is an opening for some enterprising young man in this vicinity.

Entertainment, Friday evening.

The little blow of Monday night, caused a blockade on the railroad, both north and south of us, yesterday, but both trains got through a few hours late.

The Bryton-Carver combination, passed through on last Thursday's train. They report having had a very successful trip. This week they will be in Fargo and vicinity.

We understand that there is to be a dance given in the building, lately bought by Messrs. Titus and Whitney. It will probably take place within the next two weeks, as they expect to have their drug stock here by the fifteenth of next month.

The St. Paul and Minneapolis tourists are passing through town almost every day. Last week H. L. Pitts, the hardware traveler, and McManus' confectionery and cigar man, stayed over one day, and today we noticed the Minneapolis spice and tea man, Mr. Shattuck, interviewing our merchants.

Go early and avoid the rush, on Friday Feb. 25th.

The person who borrowed Johnson, Allen & Co's. ax, last evening between the hours of 9 and 10 p.m. without asking, will please return the same and save trouble, as the party is known, and the habit dispicable.

Dead Letters. Letters remaining uncalled for in the Warren P. O., Feb. 1, 1881. Amott, Andrew Atkinson, Rev. Lewis Dew, Mrs. C. J. In calling for the above letters please say "advertized." ETHAN ALLEN, P. M.

One of the much needed additions to our business community, is a good boot and shoe maker. During the early part of the winter a party was in town looking for a location, but not being able to find a building or even a room to rent, left town again. Let some man put up few small buildings here for rent, they would find no trouble in always having them occupied.

The lumber for the sale-stable of Mr. F. Murry, arrived on Monday, and is being drawn to the building place. J. C. McIntyre has the contract for the carpenter work, and will commence work upon the building immediately. The stable will be located on the lots directly in the rear of M. P. Gilbert & Co's. The building will be 28x40 feet, 14 foot corners.

About April 1st Messrs. Titus & Whitney will open up a stock of Drugs and Notions, in the building between M. P. Gilbert & Co's., general store and the Senate saloon. We are pleased to learn that these enterprising gentlemen are intending open one of the most needed line of goods in this country and we wish them great success in their undertaking.

See elsewhere for the programme of the entertainment on Friday.

The Dance.

It came off, on last Wednesday night. That long looked for social hop, at the Warren House. The musicians arriving rather late the report was circulated that there would not be a dance, and quite a number did not prepare for it, but as it was there were some 15 or 18 couples present, they danced until 12 o'clock, when an elegant repast was set before them, and all fell too and had one of those suppers which Mr. and Mrs. Chanson know so well how to prepare. The room being cleared, dancing was continued until four o'clock, all hoping to be permitted to attend another before long, and anyway to attend a parting ball to Mr. and Mrs. C., on their retiring from the house, about April 1st. Space will not permit us to describe the toilets of those present. Everyone enjoyed themselves immensely. We cannot help but praise the dancing of a young married lady, it was excellent.

The following is the programme of an entertainment which will be given at the Warren House, on Friday evening, Feb. 25th. The proceeds of which are to be donated to the benefit of the church. The entertainment will consist of plays, tableaux, songs, readings and instrumental music. Following is the cast of the first piece, a pantomime, entitled 'ROSETTE OR THE SILKEN PURSE.'

Mother, Rosette, Witch, Village, Sailor, Fob, Servant, Music. Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Chanson, Mrs. Stebbins, Mrs. Stevens, Mr. Ferran, Mr. Whitney, Mr. Stevens, Mr. Ray Palmer and Others. TABLEAU: Little Jack Horner; Sculptor Boy; Matrimony; Faith; Cow Slip. Song, Mr. H. G. Stebbins. Reaper and Flowers; County Courtship; Sunrise, Noon, Sunset and Midnight; Music, Song and Dance. Mr. Ray Palmer. Ceres and the Season; Flower of the Family; Shield of Innocence; Magic Mirror. Reading, Mr. Geo. H. McCrea. Rock of Ages; Brantice, being led to Prison by the Nuns; Irishman's Shanty. Mr. Ray Palmer.

ADMISSION, Adults, 25 cts. Children, 15 cts. Doors open at 7, performance commences promptly at 7.30.
