THE items quoted above will be sold at prices named. There is absolutely no faking in prices. We do not add to our regular price and then cut it in two like some advertisers do. We aim to be strictly honest in our advertising as well as anything else we do. The only terms of this sale are CASH. If we should book the goods at these prices it would be a great deal better to let them lay on our shelves.

We want the money for them, and that is the reason we offer them at such ridiculously low prices.
