to live east of Warren, the best part of the globe, and let your neighbors know the fact and inside of two hours all of your worldly possessions will be on sleighs ready to depart for your future home. Such has been the case with those that moved out this spring in fact there were so many willing workers, some had to go away without a load.

STIENER
Mar. 14—Mr. William Firstman is going to have an auction sale Wednesday, Mar. 20.

Mr. John Whitman was elected town clerk at the town election held in the Steiner school, Mar. 12. The town election was held in the Steiner school. Willis Waring and Nick Baker were elected road bosses. Mr. Meyers was transacting business in Thief River Friday.

Herman Simonson made a trip to Thief River Tuesday with a load of oats. Ed Larson took a load of hay to town Wednesday.

William Firstman has been moving to Thief River the past week. August Koglin went to Thief River Friday. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter.

NORTHWEST OF WARREN
Miss Lina Swanson of Vega, has been visiting with John Olson's near Argyle.

Viard, Sven and Arthur Edeen are visiting with J. P. Joranson's. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Walsten were pleasantly surprised last Saturday evening at their home in Vega. As a memento of the occasion their friends left a clock, a rocker and about $40 in cash. Everybody reports a good time.

John L. Dalquist of Warrenton, accompanied by Aaron Edman visited with Gust Ekman of Big Woods over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank G. Johnson returned from Warren last Monday where she had been visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Abrahamson.

NELSON PARK
A. F. Carlson attended to business at Thief River Falls, Thursday. H. G. Eruflut spent a few days last week in the Blooming Valley county Roseau County.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Sjoind made a brief visit at the Ole Erickson home Monday. Carl Gustafson made a trip to Stephen Wednesday.

Quite a number of our town people attended the Farmers' Institute at Karlstad Wednesday. C. J. and Edward Johnson left for East Park Sunday where they will stay for some time baling hay.

C. T. Kimborough arrived here on Monday from Carthage, Ill., with his household goods and also horses and mules. Mrs. Kimborough came Friday to join her husband and they are now busy establishing themselves at the A. F. Carlson home which they bought a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimborough appear to be nice people and we are glad to see them settle in our neighborhood. We only hope that they will make it their permanent home here.

The debating society met at the Englund school house Friday night. A good program was rendered. The subject to be debated was, Resolved that the cow has done more good for mankind than the horse. The speakers on the affirmative were Annie Johnson and Axel Johnson and on the negative Carrie Peterson and Edward Johnson. It was balloted and the votes stood 21 to 19 in favor of the negative.

Besides the debate the secretary's report and the newspaper were read also a story by Elwyn Johnson. Two songs were given by the choir, one by the school and a solo by Esther Degerman. The next meeting will be held March 29 and the subject to be debated will be, Resolved that wealth is better than education.

C. J. Johnson will be the leader on the affirmative and Victor Sjoblom on the negative.

NORTH VIKING
J. F. Johnson made a flying trip to Warren Thursday. Bernard Johnson was out breaking horses Friday.

John Carlson is busy cutting up wood for the summer. C. J. Johnson left for the village of Middle River a few days ago, on some business matters. C. O. Johnson bought a good horse a few days ago.

C. Sahberg called at J. F. Johnson's Saturday evening. Wm. Wildes was in Radium Saturday. A. Otto drove down to Warren Sat-

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

The wonder of baking powders—Calumet. Wonderful in its raising powers—its uniformity, its never failing results, its purity.

Wonderful in its economy. It costs less than the high-price trust brands, but it is worth as much. It costs a trifle more than the cheap and big can kinds—it is worth more. But proves its real economy in the baking.

Use CALUMET—the Modern Baking Powder.

At all Grocers.

Received Highest Award World's Pure Food Exposition

urday on some important errand. A bunch of young people from our neighborhood drove out to New Folden Saturday evening to take in a dance given there.

C. J. Johnson arrived back from Middle River Saturday with a load of lumber. W. Johnson was in Viking Monday.

What is it March or November? If it is March, then it's certainly a record breaker for even temperature so far. Today the 19th, 35 above zero, and the first of the month it was close to zero. So after taking everything into consideration, I think we are just as well off in the Red River Valley as on the banks of the San Joaquin river with our eyes full of flying sand, and a few half dry grape stumps standing around in the desert.

What is it, "dry" or "wet" at Warren? I think it will be a narrow escape for whoever wins out.

STRANDQUIST
March 19—Hilma Larson has returned from Hazel Run, Minn., where she has been spending the winter. Julia Isaacson left a week ago Sunday for British Columbia.

The Luther League will meet at the Park Hotel Sunday afternoon, March 24th upon invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Janson.

A basket social will be held at the Lundstrom hall Saturday evening of March 23rd under auspices of the Luther League, to raise money towards paying for the new altar which was installed in the church last Tuesday. Everybody is invited and expected. Inasmuch as the church is the only one in town, its improvement ought to interest, not only the church members, but the community as a whole. There is no better advertisement for a neighborhood than well cared for churches.

HOLT ITEMS
Edwin Wahlund from Warren, was a business caller between trains Saturday of last week.

David Johnson, our county superintendent, was in our city Saturday of last week. Phillip Von Wold drove to Thief River Falls, Thursday, to meet two of his sisters, who have claims in the Mud lake district.

W. A. Silbaugh and Martin Mattson shipped a carload of hay to W. A. Silbaugh, brother-in-law in Milwaukee. P. A. Risberg was victorious in his law-suit against the Great Northern R. R. Co., for damages for the keeping a cow.

A few of the young men of this city pumped a handcar to Thief River Falls to attend the Powers and Curtis match.

A large crowd attended the auction sale on the Heiser farm, lately purchased by C. H. Gunheim and J. Lein. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Werner, drove to Thief River Falls Thursday of last week.

In Holt township the following new officers were elected: Louis Wegge, Supervisor; Nels Engebretson, Assessor; F. B. Folden, Clerk and Ed. M. Silbaugh, Constable.

Oinsberg and Silbaugh our local real estate agents report the sale of a fine farm to Phillip A. Von Wold last week. Also the sale of half a section to North Dakota parties.

Holt had the pleasure of seeing a real newspaper editor, in the person of Mr. Copeland from Gettysburg, S. D., who may decide to locate here. Professor Latta made a visit to his claim Sunday.

Services were held in the Excel school house Wednesday of last week. They were conducted by Mr. Tunheim. Mr. and Mrs. Ole Rierson drove to Thief River Falls on a business trip Thursday of last week.
