

Someone Said, "Nobody Loves a Fat Man"

Don't you believe it, for instance: We love them, every one of them, likewise, their extremely Tall and extremely Short Brothers, in fact we love every man who is hard to fit in regular ready to wear Clothing, Because we can fit them perfectly and economically in Clothes which have been created for his special needs by two of the greatest Tailoring concerns in this Country, namely:

The House of Kupenheimer, of Chicago and Mitchails Stern & Company, of Rochester, N. Y.

"Sorry, Sir, But You're Hard to Fit"

Ever been told this by a discouraged clerk who has tried his best to fit you with a Ready-Made-Suit but has had to give it up in despair because he didn't have Clothes made for your Special need?

MR. LONG, MR. SHORT, MR. STOUT

We have thought of you hard, and often, and the result is a special line of Smart Suits and overcoats that will fit you to a "T" and convince you that you're not hard to fit, provided you go to the right place.

HELGELAND

Variety is the spice of life and therefore we owe the weather prophet no grudge for bringing about that sudden change in temperature. A new postal route is being talked of. I hope it may be a success and thus eliminate one of the serious objections to rural life. G. E. Arhaug made a business trip to Warren on Saturday. Elling Olson made a business trip to Angus on Tuesday. Arthur Olson visited school in district 279 enroute to T. Hauglid's on Friday. He hopes he will be able to make the rounds. Rabbit hunting has been a lost art in this community for some time, but the signs show that it is likely to revive by the aid of the moon. Ole Gjerde called on friends in Warren on Saturday. He didn't mind the drive! Lars Engen called on T. Hauglid's on Saturday. Ole Pederson and Lars Engen, with their families, dined with Mr. and Mrs. C. Solvick. Messrs. O. J. Carlson, G. E. Arhaug, B. E. Arhaug and Elling Olson with families dined with Mr. and Mrs. M. Carlson on Sunday. Arne Engen returned from Crookston on Saturday. He has been receiving medical aid. O. J. Carlson called on C. Solvick's on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Carlson entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Olson and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Carlson and family on Tuesday. The League is bargaining for a good assortment of magazines. Come to our reading table as soon as it is arranged. Ole Gjerde, accompanied by Miss Maud Peterson made a pleasant call at J. M.'s on Sunday evening. Nels M. Engen called on Andrew Olson on Saturday. The "Star Club" has not met for some time on account of the weather. Now, however, the nights are clear and beautiful and we could study to a great advantage. The Club has already located Orion the Chair, the large and the small Bear and a few individual stars. Come, let us meet and push the work! The question of good seed is now in the front rank. This is the time to make seed tests. The novelty of it is worth the trouble.

BLOOMER

Mr. and Mrs. P. Oscar Larson, of Bloomer, and Mr. and Mrs. Nils Dahlman, of Vega, came home last Thursday morning from Foldahl, where they had been visiting with relatives and friends. Algot and Axel Larson, of Bloomer, shot a wolf last week, and are now trying to get the other one too; the two wolves have been around here all winter. The Dahlman young people were at Oscar Larson's last Sunday evening and they say they had a good time.

STEINER

Say, have you seen the picture with all the happy faces on, that was taken at the store, by flashlight in the eleventh hour of last year, of the jolly sleighride party that visited Steiner New Year's night? Some one was thinking, will we all be here next year? Sure, they are all here two hours later, 1913, when the same thing was repeated at Mr. Rogers' house when they look as happy as they did last year. P. B. Malberg was here on business Friday. Mr. Kisch and Mr. Reidle arrived on the train Friday; the former had been to St. Paul, the latter to Alexandria on a visit with old friends and relatives. Mr. Anderson the Minneapolis hardware man, was here between trains Saturday, doing business. Mr. M. Horga made a trip to Thief River Falls Saturday. Miss Steen our school teacher, arrived Saturday on the train from T. R. Falls where she had been an overnight visitor at her home. Miss Amy Whitman left on the train for T. R. Falls Saturday to take up her school work which has been delayed on account of her mother's illness. Mr. and Mrs. N. Lee were business callers in town Saturday. Nick Bacher took the train for T. R. Falls Monday. F. W. Lang came in to the store for a supply Monday. Almer Warring was a passenger on the train from T. R. Falls Monday. Something wrong with the line again. Well, well, I can't get him any more. Get who? Malberg, of course. Aug. Koglin made a trip to T. R. Falls Monday. Will Warring left on the train Tuesday for T. R. Falls. Wm. Fourstnan came up Tuesday from T. R. Falls to visit his tenant and farm north of town between trains. Aug. Koglin was a caller in our town Tuesday and of course increased his flour supply.
