the first three weeks—the critical period of their lives, that's half the battle of poultry success. Read this letter.

"August 1912.
I take great pleasure in heartily endorsing Pratts Baby Chick Food and in recommending it to any one that raises poultry. The early part of this hatching season we had tried several other Chick Starters and had had considerable difficulty in raising our chicks past the danger line; in fact, lost quite a few chicks. Pratts Baby Chick Food was recommended to us, and since using it we have had little or no trouble in raising our chicks. We now have our 2000 young stock on hand growing nicely, all of which were started on Pratts.

I consider that there is nothing as good for baby chicks as Pratts Baby Chick Food.

A BUSINESS MAN OF MINNEAPOLIS

Minneapolis is a city where they do things. Stimulated by a vigorous climate, surrounded by a fertile country, peopled by the best blood of the over crowded east, it is a city of hustle, of great achievements conceived and wrought out.

Mr. Taylor, of Minneapolis, Minn., is one of this sort of men. A newspaper man. A political worker. An Englishman by birth. He has been in this country nineteen years. He has resided in the northwest, Winnipeg, Fargo, and for the last ten years in Minneapolis.

Mr. Taylor is a friend of Peruna and does not conceal his friendship. He is thoroughly enthused with the belief that Peruna is a great remedy. He has a right to feel so. For several years he suffered with dyspepsia. This caused him to have very bad health.

Newspaper advertisements would never have influenced him to take Peruna. It was friends that persuaded him to try the remedy. In less than a week he needed no more persuasion. He saw that Peruna was doing him good. He is able to say in a letter to the Peruna Company, Columbus, Ohio:

"To-day I am in excellent health. Never felt better in my life. I am glad of this opportunity to say something to all men or women who suffer from dyspepsia and stomach trouble. I consider Peruna a great remedy. It is a godsend."

A new book of interest to all, sick or well, sent free by the Peruna Company.
