WARREN CHAUTAUQUA BEGINS JUNE 28

THE FIRST DAY IS A BIG DAY

A summer festival where the people congregate for new inspirations and to get a new grip on life, that is

CHAUTAUQUA

Don't fail to hear the Singing Orchestra first day. The big event of the season that is built for the whole population, where fact and fancy, fun and frolic, minister to the higher wants of the folks who deserve the best of everything—that is

CHAUTAUQUA

The people's forum where great minds discuss living themes and where splendid music lifts up the human spirit in joyous surprise, that is

CHAUTAUQUA

The five days hallelujah of the heart where the small price of a season ticket pays dividends in joy for a lifetime and leaves the spender richer for the expense, that is

CHAUTAUQUA

AFTER all, the purpose of a soap is to cleanse. Of two soaps equally agreeable to use the one that does the more delightful cleansing is the better for you.

There is no soap more agreeable than Ivory. Its sweet, natural odor is not surpassed by any perfume.

There is no soap the equal of Ivory in producing that glowing cleanliness which feels as good as it looks. It makes a copious, bubbling, pure white lather that enters every pore. It rinses easily, leaving the skin entirely free from soap and all foreign matter.

The skin dries soft and smooth without a suggestion of the greasy gloss left by poorly made soaps.

Last, but not least, Ivory is so mild and pure that even the children find Ivory Soap bathing a pleasure rather than a task.

Don't Lose Sleep Coughing at Night.

Take Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The very first dose surprises you. It glides down your throat and spreads a healing, soothing coating over the inflamed tickling surface. That's immediate relief. It loosens up the tightness in your chest, stops stuffy wheezy breathing, eases distressing, racking, tearing coughs, soothes the irritated, inflamed bronchial tubes and air passages. Children love it. It is mildly laxative—as a cough medicine should be, and does not upset or distress the most sensitive stomach. Refuse any substitute. Contains no opiates.—Warren Pharmacy, Ed Quistgard, Prop.
