

HELGELAND

If this weather keeps up there certainly will be no need of going to Florida to spend the winter. We'll soon be able to raise oranges right here in Northern Minnesota and then it ought to be warm enough for the most tender of the tender ones.

Miss Lenora Andreason who is attending the Crookston Business College arrived at her home on Saturday morning for an over Sunday visit.

Martin Carlson and Ole J. Pederson transacted business at Warren last Tuesday.

We are all looking for better roads that we may soon be able to catch a glimpse of John Olson's new drivers.

W. G. Hamrick and S. E. Olson were out to the Dan Pederson farm near Viking last Tuesday.

John Engen left for Crookston on the local Saturday evening.

The Rev. Skaare of Crookston conducted services in the Melo church last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. F. L. Lindemood of near Warren arrived at Hamrick's Saturday for an over Sunday visit.

The Angus-Tabor Rural Telephone Co., holds its annual meeting at Angus today. A number of the shareholders from this vicinity are attending.

The J. M. and Elling Olson families were guests at the Hamrick home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Carlson and family and Miss Aggie Engen were guests at M. Carlson's Sunday.

Arthur and Otto Olson called on friends near Angus on Sunday.

BRISTLET

Miss Minnie Clausen from Oslo, and Miss Lena Engelstad from Boxville are visiting at Christ Clausen's.

Harry Henley returned last Friday morning from Chicago, Ill., where he has spent the winter.

Ethel Munger visited with Jane Edgar last week.

Mrs. Canum and sons Thomas and Loyal were Warren callers Wednesday.

Christ Clausen and A. J. Hall took in the sale at Duchack Friday.

L. C. Johnson returned last week from Fertile where he has been visiting friends and relatives.

Christ Clausen, Minnie Clausen and Lena Engelstad took in the McCrea Farmers' Club, Thursday evening.

Miss Minnie Clausen and Mrs. Christ Clausen visited at C. R. Engelstad's Wednesday.

H. K. Brodahl is busy moving these days.

Mrs. Roy James and daughter Dorothy were visitors at the Riverside Farm Tuesday.

Bernhard and Cornelius Engelstad took in the Nelson sale Tuesday.

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Johnson Saturday evening. They all departed for their homes early in the morning and all reported a splendid time.

STRANDQUIST

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dahlin of Alma, has been visiting at J. Bjorkman's during the past week.

Mrs. Victor Lefroth returned home from the sanatorium at Walker, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Mikkelsen and Jonas and Alfred Hagstrom and families and John Mikkelsen came down from Kinistino, Sask., Can., to visit at Victor Lefroth's and other relatives and friends.

Misses Anderson, Olson, Kleppe, and Lindberg attended the teachers' convention last week.

Rev. Carl Olson has been conducting a number of meetings in this neighborhood lately, and the meetings have been well attended.

Ole Koland, A. T. Bernhardson, J. O. Sjoquist, Geo. Rasmussen, C. K. Koland represented their school district at the teachers' convention.

G. P. Johnson moved his family and household goods into his building in town and the building they formerly occupied will hereafter be the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Bengtson.

Miss Hilma Bergstrom has been assisting Mrs. G. P. Johnson during the past week.

Miss Ella Lund made a trip to T. R. Falls last week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Stromberg went to Thief River Falls a week ago, and brought with them home their daughter Annie, who for several months has been confined to her bed, at the Brummund Hotel due to the awful burns she received in the gasoline explosion there last fall.

Mrs. Inger Nelson is reported to be seriously ill, it is to be hoped that she will soon regain her health.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Johnson have just returned from a short visit with relatives in North Dakota and Stephen.

On Friday morning arrived the casket enclosing the remains of Israel Bengtson, an old resident of this township, who passed to his reward a week ago at the Fosston hospital, where he has been receiving treatment for cancer. Mr. Bengtson has been a sufferer of the dreaded disease for several years, and during the past year has suffered immensely. He was 56 years old, and has for many years been a hustling business man, and is well known in this county. He will be laid to rest in the Bethesda cemetery, near town. He is mourned by a brother, Mr. S. Bengtson of this place and other relatives, to whom the community's sympathy is extended.

Anton and Christian Nelson from Drayton, N. D., are here visiting their mother, Mrs. Inger Nelson.

Alfred Danielson is home again from his work in the woods.

Miss Carrie Norgaard and Miss Thorstad, who has for the past week been conducting religious meetings in West Valley, visited Mrs. Victor Lefroth last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Johnson and Miss Edla Bergren called at Aug. Rokke's last Sunday.

Where are you going on Friday evening, Mar. 5th? To the Temperance Hall in West Valley, of course, where there is to be a ribbon party and a program on said evening beginning at 8:00 o'clock P. M.

BOXVILLE AND FARLEY

Anton Anderson of Viking, visited at the home of Martin Anderson over Sunday.

The sale of C. A. Nelson was well attended.

D. O. Cheney visited at the cities and also at the home of Wm. Porters and at Fergus Falls.

The Farmers Shipping association shipped 5 carloads of cattle last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Clausen of Oslo, attended the surprise and also visited at the home of Martin Anderson.

The auction sale at Duesheck Bros. was well attended.

The Boxville school was closed the last few days on account of the teachers' convention which was held in Warren, Thursday and Friday.

Miss O'Donnell was taken sick and Miss Hilda Hilleboe is now teaching in her place.

C. A. Nelson moved to Warren last Saturday.

Miss Lillie Kurz is visiting in Argyle.

J. Kurz and son Freddie were callers in Warren Saturday.

Rip Johnson and family of Farley, were Warren visitors Saturday.

A. C. Knutsen and family visited at Martin Anderson's Sunday.

C. F. White, A. L. Robinson and Copp's were callers at Willey's Monday.

A. B. Airhart was in town Monday.

Mrs. C. B. Dean has been on the sick list last week.

Albie Bren was in Tabor Saturday and purchased a team.

Charlie Tyle, Jonas Peterson and Mr. Malek and Oscar Johnson were Warren visitors Saturday.

William Metzler and Miss Boyd were married last Thursday. Their friends and neighbors extend their best wishes and congratulations to the happy couple.

The Boxville Farmers' Club met at the home of Victor Johnson, Riverside Farm on Tuesday last, Mar. 2). A large crowd was in attendance, among whom were a good number of Warrenites. The program began with a recitation by Miss Kopp. Fred Peterson gave a very interesting talk, speaking of things he saw at the farm crops show at Crookston. Among other things, he encouraged the wives of the farmers' clubs' members and others in the community to attend such farm shows. Arthur Kurz also spoke, the briefly, about the variety of seed corn. The recitations by Martha Probst and little Gladys Johnson were well rendered, and George and Willie Copp favored their audience with selected songs. A song was also given by the girls of the Boxville school. Mrs. Victor Johnson, in her pleasing manner, made a few remarks on the art of breadmaking, tho she did not go into the details of the process. However this, Mrs. Johnson would have done, if the men had decided to serve lunch

D. Farrell, Jeweler
WARREN MINN.

Largest and best selected CLOCKS, WATCHES, JEWELRY SILVERWARE, CUT GLASS AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS...

Edison and Victor Talking Machines and Records.

to be found in Marshall County, at prices that are right. A visit to my store will convince you that above is correct.

Fine watch repairing a specialty. Call and see me.

in the near future. Everyone joined in singing "America" after which refreshments were welcomed. During the meeting there was a general discussion on the coming short course. The next meeting of the club will be held at the George Copp home.

Resolutions of condolence by the Boxville Farmers' Club, adopted unanimously at its regular meeting Feb. 16, 1915:

Whereas Divine Providence in His infinite mercy has seen fit to remove from our midst Chas. E. Willey, and when as we feel in his departure the loss of an esteemed neighbor, a true friend, a good citizen and particularly a zealous and conscientious member of this club;

Be it resolved, that we extend our deep sympathy and condolence to the bereaved family in their irreparable loss.

Be it further resolved, that these resolutions be published in the local newspapers and a copy thereof be placed on record with the secretary of this club.

H. J. Beardmore,
J. I. Skurdahl,
Margaret O'Donnell, Committee.

RADIUM

This is the attendance record for the past five months ending Feb. 26, for school district No. 4:

No. enrolled	Perfect attendance	19 or more days
1st mo. 37	16	5
2d mo. 38	20	6
3d mo. 39	21	6
4th mo. 44	23	5
5th mo. 44	20	10

The following have not missed a day since school commenced: Melinda Leslie, Frank Armstrong, Edith Knoll, Milton Shantzen, Melvin Shantzen, Arthur Monroe, Esther Monroe, Esther Eskildsen, Marie Stroble, Martin Eskildsen.

Miss C. E. Giefer, Teacher.

AN ENJOYABLE PARTY

A party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Canum on Sunday evening. The two fine payers and singers from McCrea were there. They were highly appreciated by all. They sang and played to the wee hours of morning. At twelve o'clock a delicious supper was served consisting of: Sandwiches, cookies, cake, pickles and coffee. Those who were present were, Mr. and Mrs. Charley Olson, John and Frank Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Sigurd Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Christ Clausen, Maggie, and Oliver Olson, Mrs. Jadeke and sons Herman and Emil, Odes Edmunson, Minnie Clausen and Lena Engelstad, Mr. Wright and Mr. Rusby. At the close of the party, Thomas Canum played Home Sweet Home on the violin. —One who was there.

Candy Sale.

The Wahnta Camp Fire Girls will have a candy sale, Saturday afternoon, March 6th at the Peoples' Trading Co., store.

ATTENTION FARMERS!

A great grain show right in your own county, in connection with the short course. Bring in a peck of the best grain you have. Every farmer has some. You do not know how good it is until it has been in a competing contest.

Corn and hogs is your slogan. The hogs will be there and we want you to bring in the corn and prove to the world that this is some country, for hogs and corn go hand in hand.

Those people that put up the prizes have shown great interest by so doing. Let all of the farmers appreciate it by bringing in the corn and grain. Leave it at the city hall, Mar. 4, 5, and 6. For further information call or see

M. L. WARNER,
Sec. Farmers' Short Course.

K. J. Taralseth Co.
THE BIG STORE

The Store That Sells Wooltex
Coats Suits Skirts

Tired of Sombre Winter Clothes

Then see this Week's Advance Display of Wooltex Fashions..

It is your first opportunity to get acquainted with the correct modes for spring style,—authoritative style—as expressed by the leading fashion authorities of the world, is shown in these new Wooltex models.

These genteel, smartly tailored garments, will instantly meet the approval of every woman of refinement who desires to be well dressed and yet not overdressed.

Short-lived fads, extremes and freaks find no place in the Wooltex line, for Wooltex styles are made for service at least through a full season.

You'll pay no more for a Wooltex suit now than six or eight weeks later. You get all the additional pleasure and service without additional cost.

Materials are coverts, poplins, gabardines, serges, mistral cloth and other spring materials in all the popular new shades.

Copyright 1915 The H. Black Co.