

Price of the New Ford Touring Car is $360.00 f. o. b. Detroit

W. F. POWELL & CO.

All the regrets in the world won't bring back your money if you invest it foolishly in some "wild-cat" scheme and LOSE it,—for lose it you surely will,

The one sure way to have your money is to put it in our Bank, where it is SAFE, and let it pile up. Then you and yours, who are entitled to it, will have it.

Put YOUR money in OUR bank.

We pay 5 per cent interest

Swedish-American State Bank

Warren, Minnesota

AUG. A. JOHNSON - Cashier.

Don't fail to see "Green Stockings" We are always ready to take your order for "a Ford."—W. F. Powell & Co.

H. J. Olson left Tuesday evening for Minneapolis, where he will attend to business matters.

Frans Larson spent Monday in the city on his way to the Minnesota University, where he is a student.

Mothers! Why not protect the children by using milk from a tuberculin tested herd? — P. Frost Spaulding Farm Co.

W. H. Dixon cried the auction sale of Roy James at the old Whitney farm last Saturday. He reports a large crowd and a successful sale.

A hot box caused the city electric light plant to shut down for a few minutes last Saturday evening, about 8:30 o'clock, while the necessary adjustments were made.

Read the Hatton Studio display ad for the children.

Coming next week Thursday, "The Cave Man", a picture you will surely see.

The Catholic Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Fred Pech on Oct. 5th. Everybody cordially invited.

Tom Keenan, from Arlington, Ill., left Thursday, for his home, after spending two weeks here looking after his farms.

Thursday Big Four Features present the five act blue ribbon feature "The Cave Man", one of the season's best photo plays. See it at Dreamland.

Mrs. K. J. Taralseth will entertain the Girls' Society of the United Lutheran church on Wednesday evening, Oct. 4th, at 8 o'clock. Friends always welcome.

Gleanings

GATHERED FROM THE HOME FIELD.

Wheat	$1.52
Barley	.73
Oats	.37
Flax	2.02
Rye	1.03
Potatoes	.90
Eggs, per doz.	.28
Butter	.28

Go to Westman's with your butter and eggs.

Good farms and city property, fire and life insurance for sale. L. M. Olson.

Tonight (Thursday) Lillian Walker in "Green Stockings" at Dreamland. Admission 10c and 20c.

When you tire of being sick, consult Dr. Kvitrud, the "progressive" Chiropractic and Naturopathic physician of Crookston.

See them again! The motion pictures of Warren will again be shown Saturday in addition to the regular Saturday in addition to the regular program.

Gullick Jorgenson and Knut Brodahl, two respected pioneer farmers of town of Alma, are at the Warren hospital receiving treatment for bodily infirmities.

"Let's Go!" To the base ball game between Roon School nine and Angus Athletic Club, of Angus public school, at Roon school house Friday, Sept. 29, 1916, commencing at 3:00 p. m. Everybody come and root for the home team.

Go to Westman's for fruits and fancy groceries.

Remember the date, Oct. 6th, and see Helen Holmes in "The Girl and the Game."

Occasional showers are keeping the fields in the right condition for easy plowing. "Speed the plow."

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Mossefin, of Fertile, arrived Saturday for an over Sunday visit at the O. H. and R. B. Taralseth homes.

Hey Boys, Listen! The new Big '17 Harley is now ready for delivery. For further particulars write, call or see J. A. Arness, Fork, Minn.

Edwin Johnson, who graduated from the Warren High School last spring, left Sunday for St. Paul to attend the College of Agriculture at the State University.

The first meeting of the Ladies Reading Circle, this year, will be held at the home of Mrs. W. O. Holcomb Wednesday evening, Oct. 4th. All members art requested to be present.

Rev. and Mrs. L. P. Lundgren and three children, of Hallock, and Rev. P. G. Carlstedt, of Kennedy, motor-ed down yesterday to visit at the homes of Rev. F. N. Anderson and Prof. C. E. Sjostrand.

Byron Lundquist left Thursday evening for Minneapolis, where he will attend the Minnesota University taking the Electrical Engineering course. He will visit with a few friends and relatives on the way down.

Coming next week! Two big specials, Monday "Lying Lips", a splendid De Lux picture, Thursday, "The Cave Man", a five act Big Four feature.

CHILDREN! CHILDREN!! CHILDREN!!!

BEFORE THE COLD WEATHER COMES WE WILL DEVOTE A FEW DAYS TO THE MAKING OF PHOTOGRAPHS AND POST CARDS OF THE LITTLE FOLKS.

Each child under 12 years of age, who will come to us for photos or postals will be entitled to 18 Pictures instead of 12 ALL FOR OUR REGULAR PRICE FOR THE DOZEN.

These pictures we guarantee to be our very best work and that they will be fully satisfactory in every way. With a new photo of the little one you will gladden the hearts of the friends who live too far away to visit you. The change is so marked from month to month with baby and from year to year in the older child that it becomes almost a duty as well as a great pleasure to the parents to have their pictures often. Xmas is coming and grandma will expect a photo of the baby. Don't forget that.

THIS OFFER IS GOOD EVERY DAY UNTIL OCTOBER 11th.

HATTON STUDIO

East Side

Westman sells Warren Fancy Patent and Gold Medal Flour.

Remember that Hatton Studio is giving the children lots of value for small money. Read his display ad.

BIG DANCE Saturday evening, Sept. 30, at Jadeke Bros. Everybody welcome.

Monday De Lux Features present Winnifred Greenwood in "Lying Lips", a splendid five part feature.

Hjalmar Erickson, until recently proprietor of the hotel at Argyle, was a Warren visitor last Friday. He is a brother of Leonard Erickson, mayor of Fergus Falls, a former Warren boy.

Are you aware that Headaches, Nervousness, Irritable tempers and Sore Inflamed eyes are often caused by eyestrain. If you are suffering from any of these see the Eye Specialist. Dr. Louis Staar, at the Lyons Hotel, Thursday, Oct. 5th, 1916.

Dr. Walgren, masseur at the Warren hospital, has gone to Grand Forks to enroll as a student in the medical department of the University of North Dakota, with the intention of becoming a full fledged M. D. Mr. Walgren's many friends in Warren wish him success in his undertaking.

Postmaster Tullar has been advised from Washington that second class post offices have been made recruiting stations for the army. Young men who may wish to enlist as soldiers can learn particulars by applying at the post office.

Adams Presbytery is in session here to-day, a large number of ministers and lay delegates being in attendance. Yesterday a Presbyterian Sunday School Institute was held, when a number of interesting addresses were delivered.

Scratch pads for sale at the Sheaf office.

Coming Monday! "Lying Lips" Five Acts!

Albert Beardmore and Wilbert Olson left Sunday evening for Minneapolis, where they will attend the Minnesota University, taking the course in Electrical Engineering.

MASTER CLEANERS — Elmer Johnson, representing the Crookston Dress Club, French dry cleaners, will be in Warren next week soliciting work for dry cleaning, pressing and repairing.

Judge Grindelund returned this morning from his trip to Decorah, Iowa. While in that vicinity, he visited the old home places of his boyhood days, also the home folks. On his way home he attended a meeting of the Board of Corrections and Charities at Stillwater.

W. E. Stark, of Angus, attended to business matters in the city Tuesday. Mr. Stark is a progressive young farmer who farms near Angus. He is also manager of the Angus Farmers Co-operative Shipping Association which has been recently organized. Their first shipment of live stock was made last Saturday. Mr. Stark reports that their shipment arrived in the South St. Paul stock market last Monday.

Don't envy a person because he has a better position than you have. If you cannot keep up with him, it is perhaps your own fault. You may be lacking in knowledge and special training. If that is the case, all you have to do is to attend Mankato Commercial College. Send for their catalog.

Adding machine paper for sale at the Sheaf office.

O. H. TARALSETH, Pres. C. A. NELSON, Cashier.
H. L. MELGAARD, Vice-Pres. H. C. MATSON, Ass't. Cashier.

State Bank of Warren

Warren - Minn.

Capital and Surplus, $50,000.00

A Financial Balance

A checking account frequently operates as a financial balance.

The check book provides a convenient method for meeting one's obligations, but by accurately and permanently recording expenditures it also serves to discourage careless spending.

Maintain balances in your personal finances, advise with us about opening a personal checking account.

We appreciate your business, large or small.

C. A. NELSON, Cashier.

David Peterson, of Stephen, spent Tuesday evening in the city.

E. P. Johnson, of Rosewood, attended to business matters in the city Saturday.

Halvor Jorgenson, of Alma, was in town Monday night to see his brother Gullick, who is at the hospital.

Glen Blawd, who is employed with the Soo railway, with headquarters at Adams, spent Sunday with home folks in this city.

A. Hellquist, the surveyor, and wife, came up from Shelly, Minn., via the automobile route, last Sunday, returning in the evening.

J. S. Haug, of Foldahl, was here this week to consult the doctor for his health. The old pioneer is not quite as strong and sturdy as when he came to the valley.

City residences for sale at from $1250.00 up to $5000. L. M. Olson.

Mrs. H. A. Barker arrived home Saturday after a three weeks visit with relatives in Canada.

Miss Mabel Prytz, who has been visiting at the R. M. Prytz home for a few weeks, returned to Duluth on Sunday.

Silo fillers to suit everybody. Many Sizes. Can be run with a 3 h. p. engine and up to 15 h. p. at Lundgren, Wittensten & Co.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Evans and Rev. and Mrs. McMartin, of Middle River, were Warren visitors yesterday, coming over by automobile.

A parcel shower was given on Monday evening of last week by the Misses Gravel and Ketter and Nellie Iverson in honor of Miss Esther A. Carlson, bride of the week.

The One Sure Way

To have money is to save it.

The One Sure Way

To save it is by depositing it in a responsible bank.

To those wishing to establish relations with a safe, strong bank, we heartily extend our services.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF WARREN

WARREN, MINN.

H. L. WOOD, Cashier

Bring us your prescriptions because we know how to fill them right—we don't use poor or old drugs.

Our drug store is better than any other drug store, because the drugs we use are the highest quality that can be got, and they are always fresh.

No matter who your doctor is, bring your prescriptions to us and know you will get them filled right.

Come to OUR Drug Store.

We give you what you ASK for.

WARREN PHARMACY

THE OLD RELIABLE REXALL STORE

Ed. Quistgard, Prop.

We Deliver Promptly

Day Phone 94.

Night Phone 196