Peace Notes

President Wilson announced at Paris the treaty of peace would be handed to the German delegates at Versailles Monday. He added that he hoped to return to America about June 1.

Newspaper reports crediting Salva-tore Burzila, a member of the Italian peace delegation who left Paris with Premier Orlando, with saying that he did not intend to return to Paris, are denied in a statement issued from the Italian delegation at Paris.

Washington

President Wilson cabled Tumulty at Washington that in his opinion the labor program adopted as part of the treaty of peace "constitutes one of the most important achievements of the new day in which the interests of labor are to be systematically and intelligently safeguarded and promoted."

American cable lines taken over by the government in November were restored to private ownership and operation at midnight Friday night by direction of President Wilson.

Shortage of men is about to cause the navy department at Washington to place the famous battleship Oregon out of commission.

Rechecking of army records resulted during the past week in addition of 476 names to the list of major casualties, the war department at Washington announces, bringing the total to 75,820 killed in action, died of wounds and disease and died from other causes. The number of prisoners was reduced to 4,786 as a result of corrections, and the missing in action reduced to 4,293.

A Washington dispatch says two officers and fourteen men of the crew of the naval tug Gypsum Queen were drowned when that vessel struck a rock and sank near Armen Light, off the coast of France, on April 28, while returning to Brest after assisting a fleet of mine sweepers in distress.

Official advices reaching Washington through a neutral source said that the bolshevik leaders Lenin and Trotzky were seeking a refuge outside Russia, fearing a possible overthrow of the soviet government.

The breaking up of the great American army passed the halfway mark, the war department at Washington announced on April 24, when the total discharges reached 1,836,883.

Foreign

A report that the bolsheviks had captured Cherkursk and decapitated 60 American prisoners with axes was declared by both the British war office and American headquarters in London to be untrue.

Josephus Daniels, American secretary of the navy, was the guest of Sir Eric Geddes, minister without por-folio and former first lord of the admiralty, at a luncheon at London.

King Ferdinand of Roumania has entered Budapest, Hungary, at the head of his army, it is reported at Basle.

A London dispatch says the Russian soviet government has sent an ultimatum to Roumania demanding the evacuation of Bessarabia. A wireless dispatch from Moscow says that the Roumanians are given 48 hours to reply.

Admiral Kolchak's army, driving the bolsheviks before it southwest of Sterlitamak, has advanced almost ninety miles, according to a dispatch from Omsk dated April 24.

A Paris dispatch says the naval terms to be embodied in the peace treaty with Germany, which finally have been completed, do not provide for the sinking of the larger German warships.

The monetary loss in Monday's great fire at Yokohama is estimated at 15-000,000 yen, or approximately $7,470-000 under the prewar rate of exchange.
Thousands of people are homeless.

A San Juan Del Sur dispatch says revolutionary Costa Rican exiles defeated a force of Costa Rican frontier guards on the Rio Frio, near the southeastern shore of Lake Nicaragua.
The frontier guards fled. It is reported here that other revolutionists have begun an attack along the border between Costa Rica and Panama.

A Helsingfors dispatch says bolsheviks axmen decapitated 60 American soldiers at the capture of Shenkursk in a surprise attack made possible by the work of spies.

Fifty-six Jews have been killed in a program at Pinsk, according to an announcement from the central office of the London Zionist association, which received its information from the organization's Copenhagen bureau.

Twenty-five red flags were torn by the police from the hands of Socialists holding a May day parade at Montreal.
Each of the marchers wore a red bow on his coat, while red armbands were worn by the marshals.

Sylvia Pankhurst was arrested in London for attempting to force entrance into the house of commons and later into the home of Premier Lloyd George, in the course of a "May Day" celebration.

An Athens dispatch says a proclamation has been issued in the Dode-canese by which it is declared that the islands have become united with Greece. Italy has laid claims to these islands.

Personal

James K. Lynch, head of the San Francisco federal reserve bank, died at San Francisco.

Domestic

Moines, the first ship to fire a salute at Plymouth, England, since the beginning of the war, sailed Saturday for Harwich and thence will proceed for Archangel.

In the last 30 years 3,224 persons were put to death by mobs, according to a report made public at New York by the National Association for Advancement of Colored People.

Mrs. Rosga Joseph, wealthy member of a New York firm of linen importers, was robbed at Los Angeles, Cal., of linens valued at $20,000 and an automobile.

An unidentified man was killed by a detective's bullet, 11 policemen were shot or badly beaten and about 100 persons wounded, many seriously, in general rioting which brought a dramatic finale to a Socialist May day demonstration of 20,000 reds at Cleveland, O.

Chicago's "Red May day" celebration closed with rioting in which one policeman was injured and sixteen men and one woman were arrested.

Post office authorities at New York have located 39 bombs sent from New York to prominent men. Three were traced Thursday. Two of them were for United States Senators Overman and Smoot.

passed, 29 to 11, the Anti-Saloon league law enforcement bill, called a search and seizure measure, to enforce anti-saloon laws in dry territory.

An armistice has brought hostilities in the Linton (Ind.) telephone strike to a close. Eight companies of militia that have been on strike duty will be demobilized. Girl operators of the New Home Telephone company, who struck for higher wages, shorter hours and recognition of their union, agreed to return to work for one week, pending arbitration of their demands.

Post office inspectors at New York city reported the discovery there of 17 infernal machines put into the mail, addressed to prominent men, including many public officials.

holding of an advertised meeting of Socialists and I. W. W. Thursday night, at which an "international labor day" program was to be given.

Farmers and grain elevator men are urged by the department of agriculture at Washington to make every possible provision for the safe storage and handling of the prospective huge wheat crop.

Rioting followed the celebration by the New York Call, the Socialist daily newspaper, of its occupation of new offices on Fourth avenue and the display outside of what some soldiers called "bolshevik posters." The rioting was conducted by some 200 soldiers, sailors and marines.

Announcement was made at Kansas City of the organization of the Southwestern Grain Dealers' league, the membership of which is to be drawn from Missouri, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Colorado and Nebraska.
