THE CITY. CITY GLOBULES. The condition of police officer Casey was reported as improved yesterday. Judge Burr returned to the city yesterday and occupied his old place on the bench. An increase pension of from $4 to $8 was received at the adjutant general's office yesterday. The city has advertised for bids for the construction of stone, wood and brick sidewalks for 1884. Ex-Ald. J. C. McCarthy was bitten in the right hand by a pet dog a couple of days ago and he carries the injured member in a sling. The cornice on the building occupied by Whitman, Flye & Co., on lower Third street, is in a dangerous condition, and should be attended to by the building inspector. A small boy named Matt Constans was caught yesterday in the act of "pinching" a pair of slippers from Warner's store. He was put in a dungeon cell for a while and released. Bids will be received at the postoffice up to April for carrying the mail from St. Paul to New Canada, three deliveries to be made per week. The new arrangement will go into effect July 1st. Patrick Clancy, a railway hand, became so drunk and boisterous while spending his month's pay for liquors on Mississippi street last evening that Officer Wright copped him up in the city hall. Building Inspector Johnson granted a permit yesterday for the erection of the $20,000 Forepaugh block on East Seventh street, and for the erection of a two story frame parsonage on James street. A little six-year-old waif whose father is in the workhouse, was found on the street in West St. Paul yesterday, suffering from diphtheria. The child was taken in charge by kindly disposed persons. A descendant of Moses called at the police court yesterday, and said that he had lost his religion. It appeared that he went to sleep in a saloon and some one stole his bible. No warrant was issued. Dan Anderson, a very fat Swede, was found crouched on the sidewalk for the night last evening and run into the bastille for drunkenness, but becoming sobered up afterwards let out on $10 bail. James Hansen has begun a suit against J. C. McCarthy for $443.83, balance due for work done on a sewer contract held by McCarthy. Albert Scheffer and C. H. Linnan as McCarthy's bondsmen, are made parties to the suit. Mr. A. P. Wallich has opened a wholesale fruit and commission store at No. 119 West Third street. Mr. Wallich has arranged to handle the most extensive stock of fruit ever brought to St. Paul and his well known business capacity should insure him a big trade. Wm. Brown, a tramp, was found lying on the sidewalk near the Metropolitan hotel last night with a sprained ankle, and was aided to the city hall by two officers. Fully one-third of the tramp lodgers came into quarters last night filled to the brim with intoxicants. Pieces of cloth thrown into an ash box became ignited, at half past two o'clock yesterday afternoon, and fired a wooden building in the rear of Horan's store, corner of Seventh and Rosal streets. The flames were discovered and extinguished without calling out the department. About twenty men in the employ of Contractor Cody, and who have been at work in excavating a cellar in the Fourth ward, called on Chief Clark last night, and complained that they had been at work over two weeks and that Cody had refused them their pay. They struck and vowed vengeance. The county auditor's office is to remain as it is in the county jail building, but the assessors and county commissioners are to occupy the new room being fitted up just to the east of it on the same floor. The apartments now occupied by the assessors, by the tearing down of a partition, are to be thrown in to charge the register of deeds' office. Mary Morgan, a dapper colored matron, swore out a warrant yesterday for the arrest of a sister named Sis Peoples. It seems that the ladies met by chance and a quarrel arose over a tea set which Mrs. Morgan had drawn at a fair. Sis called her hard names and tried to throw her down a flight of stairs, and in order to protect herself Mary caught her by the hair and held her until she cried enough. A suit for divorce was begun in the district court yesterday by Lena Stone against William R. Stone, the grounds being cruel and inhuman treatment. The parties were married in Sioux City in October, 1874, and shortly after the defendant began drinking to excess, and abuse of his wife naturally followed. Things went from bad to worse, and the complainant alleges that her husband beat her cruelly in bed when she was in an advanced stage of pregnancy. The plaintiff asks a decree of absolute divorce, and the custody of the two children.

for the reception of guests. Waters, of Fergus Falls, passed through the city yesterday on his return from a trip to the state of Maine. Senator Shallen, of Center City, Chicago, passed through the city yesterday on his way home from a month's visit to the Pacific coast. Will A. Nichols, assistant clerk of the supreme court, left the city last evening on a week's business trip to Chicago. He is accompanied by J. K. Wilson. THE LION OF THE TOWN. What Sitting Bull Did on Saturday—What He Will Do to-day and Monday. His royal highness, Mr. Sitting Bull, continued to be the drawing card at the Merchants hotel yesterday, and this popular hostelry was thronged throughout the day by a crowd of eager sight-seers, anxious to catch a glimpse of the bold ex-warrior and hair-lifter. In the afternoon Major McLaughlin, Sitting Bull, One Bull and the rest of the party took a walk in the wholesale district of the city, calling being made at the establishments of P. H. Kelly, Mercantile Co., Axtell, Finch & Van Slyke, Maxfield & Seabury's and other wholesale houses. In doing the rounds Mr. Bull kept his eye to the windward and although he didn't have a great deal to say, he told a GLOBE reporter on the quiet that this was a much heap city, and that if he ever got money enough he would come to St. Paul settle down and run for alderman or health inspector. To-morrow morning the party will visit the public schools, and in the afternoon a visit will be made to Fort Snelling. In the evening the party will take in the entertainment at Armory hall. It is expected that he will visit the Church of the Assumption at 10 o'clock this morning. A BIG THING. And Just What is Wanted—The Two Cities to be Welded For Weal or For Woe by the Iron Bands of An Elevated Railroad. There is a big scheme on the tapis, and although the parties who are paddling the little canoe which promises to emerge a pretty big barge, are doing so with muffled oars, and only the very slightest sound of the ripple floated upon the ambient atmosphere of the world of financial speculation it was readily caught by the keen and sensitive auricular organ of the ubiquitous GLOBE man, and the GLOBE as usual informs the public of what is going on in their midst. While Tom Lowry and the Short line folks are snugly and nipping and complacently dreaming of big dividends. The officiating priests in this big nuptial ceremony and the matchmakers are all from the east—monied lords who have cast their iron bands like a network over the city of New York, and changed its business streets and handsome bazars into gloomy, ragged and noisy railroad thoroughfares. The scheme is to build an elevated railroad, starting in at some point, not yet located, on Dayton's bluff, to cross the city by a central line, probably along Seventh hill the line will descend rather west on terra firma and will be an ordinary motor line till it approaches Minneapolis, when it will again ascend upon its iron pinions and continue its aerial flight out to some of the lakes. It is a big scheme but one that can be easily accomplished with money, and the parties engineering the plan have plenty of the "filthy lucre" and the requisite experience in elevated railroads to carry the scheme to a successful issue. Parties connected with this contemplated undertaking have been for several days looking over the country between the two cities for the purpose of determining the best course of the line to run, and of the GLOBE by keeping the movements in view is able to assert that the course marked out will be the one adopted. As the two cities by their growth approach each other it is contemplated raising the line, as need calls for the change, into the air till it becomes in time wholly an elevated railroad in and connecting the two cities. But when this occurs the town will be one practical but a most desirable one, always of course assuming that the authorities guard against the works marring the appearance of our streets as they do in New York. And it looks very much as if it will be it will conduce more than anything which could be desired to the growing together and amalgamating the two cities. GOV. HOADLY FOR PAYNE, Who, He Thinks Could Carry Ohio for the Democrats Against Any Republican. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, March 15.—Among a number of legal gentlemen who came to Chicago to-day, to argue the motion pending before Judge Drummond to take the Ohio & Mississippi railway out of the hands of the receiver was Gov. Hoadly, of Ohio, to whom a reporter addressed the question: "What do you think of Ohio politically?" "Do you believe it will go Democratic?" "If the right man is nominated I believe it will." "Who do you regard as the right man?" "Everybody knows that I am for Payne for president," said Mr. Hoadly. "At least," he added, "everybody in Ohio does." "Do you regard Payne as the only man who can carry Ohio?" was asked. "I do not say that," Gov. Hoadly rejoined. "There may be any number of Democrats who could carry the state, but the nomination of any one of them might entail some risk; don't you think so?" Well, granting that the risk of failure is entailed, would it not be wise to name some one whom there is no doubt about. If nominated, I believe that Payne could carry Ohio even against an Ohio man nominated by the Republicans. Ohio is an October state and it hence has a greater bearing at the election than any other state. New York and Indiana may yet settle the question. An October election always carries more or less weight and goes a great way toward settling the result." LOCAL MENTION. Anheuser Busch Export Beer, at 105 W. Third street. H. Oriemann, agent. WHEREAS, A petition has been filed in this office as provided by law, by order of the Common Council of the City of St. Paul, asking for the vacation of that part of Sherburne avenue from a point where Ashton street intersects with said avenue to Jackson street, and Warren street from a point one hundred and fifty feet south of said Sherburne avenue on its west line to a point about two hundred feet north of said Sherburne avenue, and WHEREAS, The petitioners state that they own a majority of the frontage on said streets and that the object and reason for such proposed vacation is, that that part of said streets as now laid out are practically impassable and to make them passable would greatly damage the property on the line of said streets, and destroy the line prospect from that part of the city; that if such vacation should be made as asked, the petitioners will deed other property to change the line of said streets and make them passable, etc., free of all expense to the city.
