

THE LUCY INQUEST

A Swarm of Witnesses Examined—A Verdict of Death from Ex-posure.

An inquest was held at O'Halloran's yesterday morning on the remains of Timothy Lucy, the body of whom was found in the slough in the rear of the soap works on Tuesday morning.

The right lung was found congested and two small wounds were found on the head; the brain was healthy, and the wounds had the appearance of being caused by a jam or a blunt instrument.

John E. Best, a watchman on the road, testified to the discovery of the body, which was found as already described at 7:10 o'clock a. m. Tuesday.

Mrs. Oltshim, residing close to where the body was found, testified to the discovery of the body in the water at 7:30 o'clock the same morning.

John E. Best, a watchman on the road, testified to the discovery of the body, which was found as already described at 7:10 o'clock a. m. Tuesday.

Mr. Daniel Lucy, a nephew of the deceased, was sworn. He testified, sometimes by the name of Egan; he had married difficulties; he had not lived with his wife for a year; his mother's maiden name was Egan; he had been farming in Reynolds county; he had no enemies.

THE VERDICT. The jury found that death resulted from a fall and exposure.

AN OLD TIME HAUL.

Made by the Peckers and Sent up by the Judge Yesterday.

"It looks like old times again to see the bull pen filled up," soliloquized the bailiff yesterday morning, "and now to see the gentle spring time has come I expect business will be brisk."

It did look like old times yesterday with a vengeance, and the court room was so crowded that it was hard to tell the sheep from the goats.

The examination into the robbery case of F. M. Burleson, M. McDermott, My Carr and Jennie Aldridge, was resumed yesterday.

John Laford, a street arab, who is fast gaining a record for bad deeds, was up again on the charge of disorderly conduct.

It is a bold, bad boy and he went to the dungeon for ten days. After four paroled he had "seen" come to the extent of $5 or five days each.

no charge for freight is made. This is done on the probability that every family which buys a first reader will sooner or later buy the other books.

The indications now are that when the state shall be settled with the counties and rescind back all it has advanced, it will have but little more than it has paid out.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Both Houses Devote the Day Mainly to Talk.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Senator Maxey introduced a bill to change the Eastern and Northern Judicial Districts of Texas, and a bill to divide the Indian Territory into such districts.

The senate then took the bill reported from the commission on Indian affairs providing for allotment of lands in severalty to Indians on various reservations, and to extend the expiration of the Status and Territory of the Indians.

Senator Dolph moved an amendment to that clause of the bill which provides for sales of surplus lands on the reservation and payments of the proceeds to the tribe or its individual members.

Senator Jones called up the house joint resolution, reappropriating for the aid of the sufferers by the Mississippi river floods, $125,000 not expended.

After an executive session the senate adjourned.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Mr. Ellis, for the committee on pensions, reported a joint resolution providing that the $125,000 unexpended appropriation for the relief of destitution in the district overflooded by the Mississippi river and its tributaries.

Mr. Rice opposed the resolution. Relief should be granted by the localities themselves. It was by self reliance that strength was made, by express authority congress after the expiration of twenty-five years from the purchase of said land.

Mr. Dunn spoke in favor of the proposed amendment, and the appropriation was extended for the purpose of educating and preparing them for self-support. Agreed to.

An amendment offered by Senator Morgan was agreed to, to the effect that nothing should be done to affect the right of the United States to grant the right of way for railroads or other highways or telegraphs through the land in question.

Senator Daves offered an amendment, which was modified by Senator Conger, and agreed to, to the effect that nothing should be done to affect the right of the United States to grant the right of way for railroads or other highways or telegraphs through the land in question.

THE RAILROADS.

The Chicago, Wisconsin & Northern.

From a gentleman in the city yesterday it was learned that a new railroad, that is to be known as the Chicago, Wisconsin & Northern, is to be constructed.

The articles of incorporation were expected to have been filed in Wisconsin yesterday. The work of organizing and arranging the interests of the company has been managed very secretly.

It is to a certain extent the reorganization of the Waukesha, Mukwonago & Geneva Lake roads, and will receive all the privileges received by that corporation.

According to the articles of organization the Chicago, Wisconsin & Northern will start at or between the counties of Kenosha and Walworth, and extend northerly to some point on the northern division of the St. Paul road in Washington county, probably either Schellingsville or Hartford, to be settled by the board of directors.

The capital stock is $1,500,000 of common and preferred stock, with shares at $100. The road will touch either Waukesha or Oconomowoc, according to their relative inducements.

It is thought by some that the development of this new enterprise is a corroboration of the report circulated some time ago that one of Vanderbilt's trunk lines was soon to locate a direct line from Chicago to St. Paul. The road, which it is understood will connect one of the grandest chain of summer resorts in the country. By what road the new enterprise will enter Chicago was not divulged.

Commissioner Ristine on the War Path. Mr. George W. Ristine, commissioner of the Transcontinental association, has just issued the following circular to the Pacific coast representatives of the eastern roads:

"Having repeatedly called the attention of representatives to irregularities, and after submitting by request an agreement for local organization without result, and as the proposed plan provided for some of the roads discriminates against passengers and does not accord them equal accommodations and privileges to which their tickets entitle them, this is to advise you that hereafter any violation or evasion of any kind in the street commission, raising grade of tickets, stop-over privileges, side rides, or privileges of any description promised or granted other than the contracts such tickets provide for will be considered as sufficient to suspend the sale of tickets over any roads so defined in circular No. 6. The rules of the Transcontinental association will be rigidly enforced and will apply to all Pacific coast terminals, or coupon stations."

Railroad Notes. A. S. Bates, agent of the St. Paul & Manitoba road at Fargo, is in town.

J. C. Robertson, Northern Pacific agent at Fargo, has resigned, and will go into the banking business at Lisbon, D. T.

It has been positively decided to discontinue the Niagara Falls Short Line both for freight and passenger service April 1.

The Rock Island gives notice that the minimum freight for eggs, in car loads, from Iowa stations on this road will be 18,000 pounds.

T. K. Stetler, agent of the Northern Pacific road, brought up seventy-five emigrants from Iowa yesterday, who left for Washington territory last night.

From March 15 to March 24 the Chicago & Grand Trunk brought here twenty-four cars loads of European emigrants bound for points in the west and northwest.

The Northern Pacific road yesterday issued a circular giving notice that the Jamestown & Northern road is now open for business, and shipments can be billed through to all points on the line.

Mr. J. F. Barnard, general manager of the Kansas City, St. Joe & Council Bluffs railroad, has been appointed general manager of the Hannibal & St. Joe. The roads are controlled by the Burlington. Mr. Barnard's headquarters will be at St. Joseph, Mo.

The St. Paul & Manitoba road last evening received a dispatch from Detroit, Mich., saying that the Michigan Central had just brought in eighty Canadian emigrants for Manitoba. They will come through St. Paul in a few days on their way over the St. Paul & Manitoba road.

The Hoyt Will Case. NEW YORK, March 26.—In the contest over the will of the late Jesse Hoyt, Cornelius Vansant Voord was cross-examined by Conkling. The witness was never approached on the subject of the certificate of the death of Mr. Hoyt or about what his malady was. He knew about his malady in a general way, that he died of pneumonia. On the day of the funeral, he went to the residence of Mrs. Hoyt with Samuel V. Hoyt and read to her the provisions of the will, giving her $1,250,000. When the witness told Mrs. Hoyt that was provided for she said that was a much larger amount than she expected and she did not want so much. Witness then went to the Windsor hotel, where Miss Hoyt was stopping. He did not take Miss Hoyt near the window and look scrutinizingly in her face and say in that connection, "You are no more crazy than any other member of the family." She said the world was a better place and would go back with Dr. Hall and his wife to the asylum, as she had promised to do.

PATENTEES.

Their National Meeting to Protest Against Barb Wire and Drive Well Antagonism in Their Claims.

CINCINNATI, March 26.—At the inventors' convention to-day a committee was appointed on permanent national organization, and the report of the committee on resolutions was adopted declaring that as much of the progress of the country is due to inventive genius as material change in the patent laws would be inadvisable, therefore they ask congress to oppose the passage of any bill which would have the effect of discouraging inventors by impairing the value of patented property or which would impose unequal burdens on owners of such property in maintaining their rights.

They also declare the duty of congress to provide a sufficient clerical force to do the work of the patent office well and keep it up to date, also, to provide a suitable library of scientific works for use of the patent office and inventors, and that the patent office should be made a department of the interior, free of charge. Also that there should be a legal bureau or division of the patent office. That though there has been nearly 300,000 patents granted, there have been scarce a score, which he public has objected to and no patent based on wrong which the courts have not finally held invalid. Recess till evening.

Crouch Murder Case. JACKSON, Mich., March 26.—At the Crouch murder examination this morning several witnesses testified to the good character of the girl Ella Shannon who testified that she had been in the room at the time of the murder and whose father had been implicated. Two witnesses, a man and wife, testified that Nettie Snyder told them she found Judy's shirt front spotted with blood the morning after the murder but said it came from nose-bleed. This witness was asked to describe the spot and she found a bloody clothes in Judy's room and being now recalled flatly denied the statement of the two previous witnesses as to her conversation with them. Records of the telegraph office were produced and the manager testified that a dispatch was sent to Captain Byron Crouch the morning after the murder. A dispatch was sent November 23d, two days after, and the original was produced bearing date of Nov. 23d.

Cattle Commission Appointed. TOPKA, Kas., March 26.—Gov. Glyck has made the following appointments under the recent act of the legislature: State veterinarian, Dr. A. A. Holcomb, U. S. A. Fort Leavenworth; state sanitary live stock commissioner, Jas. W. Hamilton, Col. A. W. Harrison, John T. White, all well known and eminently fitted for the position. Hamilton is at present mayor of Wellington, one of the most extensive cattle dealers and breeders in southern Kansas, a Republican in politics. Harrison is also a large stock man, vice president of the Kansas Short Horn breeders' association, and a member of the Wisconsin Cattle breeder of Ottawa county, and a Greubacker in politics.

Cleryman Accused of Immorality. NEWYARK, N.J., March 26.—The Methodist conference to-day took up the case of Rev. Geo. R. Brewster, accused of immorality. Brewster personally appeared, stated that he had surrendered his charge to save scandal, but expecting to bring the case before the conference. He asserted his innocence with excited vehemence, appealed to the Almighty to vindicate him, demanded a trial, but the conference decided to try the case and select committee, according to the discipline.

Woman Suffrage Defeated. HARTFORD, March 26.—In the house the bill giving women the right to vote on the "House" question was overwhelmingly defeated without discussion. One of the speakers in the light of a recent meeting there was a 100 discussion, and the bill was rejected 65 to 33.
