

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

The public schools closed yesterday for a week.

It is time for Ald. Van Slyke to begin to put his parks in order.

A Wabash street building establishment has added a donkey cart to its former attractions.

The county assessors commenced moving their desks, etc., into their new room in the county jail building yesterday.

Sylvester Montour was run in last night crazy drunk. When locked up he made Rome howl with his outcries. He also fought the officer when arrested.

Fred Burnhof, a respectable appearing young man, was arrested at Bridge square about 7 o'clock last night because he persisted in blocking up the approach to the bridge.

Mrs. A. E. Devitt & Co., the popular milliners and ladies furnishers, corner Broadway and Seventh street, placed two elegant signs on their business block yesterday. They are artistic gems in their line.

Regina Roderick, a friendless old lady aged seventy-three years, was found to be insane at an examination in the Probate court yesterday, and was ordered committed to the asylum at St. Peter.

The upper end of Wabash street was thoroughly tackled by the street cleaners yesterday, as well as the upper portion of Seventh street, and they seemed to be doing the job without any "plans and specifications."

The patrol wagon was called to the corner of Sixth and Sibley streets at 8:30 o'clock last evening, to take in charge a paralyzed drunk. He was carried in on a stretcher and his name is supposed to be Chas. Chaney.

The only excitement at the state capitol yesterday was a peddler of a patent attachment to a knife for peeling apples and potatoes with economicality, and slice them up for pies, soups, etc., without a chance to cut one's fingers.

Horace Slaby, of Seneca Falls, N. Y., manufacturer of rotary fire engines, meets with the fire commissioners at central fire hall at 3 o'clock this afternoon to consult with them in reference to repairing the old Minnehaha steamer, which is in bad trim.

A new athletic game among the hook and ladder boys at Central fire hall is called the "hook and ladder." Two leather collars are attached to a rope, when the contestants get down on all fours and pull each other by the necks for dear life. There is, of course, a champion down there in this eccentric sport whose neck resembles in size the leg of Barnum's Jumbo.

An alarm of fire was sent in from box 31 at 3:27 yesterday afternoon, caused by a defective chimney setting fire to a small store and a half house of Julia Murphy, 626 Western avenue, and occupied by the owner, which was burned to the ground even before chemical No. 1 could reach the spot. The loss on the building was $200, and on the contents $30; both being uninsured.

The committee on streets, of the council, held a meeting last night and acted on several petitions. The petition of Chas. A. Martin, for $161 damages alleged to have been caused by the overflow of a sewer, was reported adversely upon. City Engineer Somers submitted plans for the reconstruction of spans of the Wabash street bridge, which will be reported favorably upon.

A report reached this office that a small child of some poor parents, living on Robert street, was run over yesterday on the corner of Robert and Twelfth streets, by a passing wagon, and killed. Upon investigation it was found that the vehicle passed over both legs of the child, but that no permanent injury resulted, it having escaped with nothing beyond two pretty badly skinned shins.

The lemon which yields the finest flavor is grown in Messina, and it is from the flavoring principle abstracted from the rind of this fruit that Dr. Price prepares his Special Flavoring extract of Lemons. While other Lemon Extracts in the market have the taste and odor of turpentine, Dr. Price's Extract has its intense lemony taste and smell.

For twenty years I was a sufferer from catarrh of the head and throat, a very aggravated form, and during the summer with hay fever. I procured a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, and after a few applications received decided benefit—was cured by one bottle. Have had no return of the complaint. CHARLES PARKER, Waverly, N. Y. Price fifty cents per bottle.

New Disease in Sheep.

NEW COMERTOWN, O., March 28.—A peculiar malady termed grub is just now carrying off many of the sheep of this section, and sad havoc is being made among some of our best growers. The disease is caused by a worm called "Grub," and is a very distressing one. The egg of the worm is deposited in the nostril of a sheep in July or August by a peculiar kind of a fly and grub, hatches out in March and begins burrowing toward the brain, which when it penetrates kills the animals at once. There is no known remedy.
