

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

OFFICE—No. 6 Washington Avenue, opposite Nicollet house. Office hours from 6 a. m. to 10 o'clock, p. m.

DEMOCRATIC CITY TICKET. For Mayor—GEO. A. PILLSBURY, A. A. AMES. For Comptroller—SOLON ARMSTRONG.

FOR ALDERMEN. First Ward—John T. Lee. Second Ward—C. M. Tate. Third Ward—Wm. M. Breda. Fourth Ward—E. B. Clement. Fifth Ward—R. L. Kelly. Sixth Ward—L. Fredrickson.

PAIK COMMISSIONERS. One Year—C. A. Nimocks, N. H. Roberts, R. P. Russell, Daniel Bassett. Two Years—E. M. Wilson, J. S. Pillsbury, A. C. Austin, S. H. Chute. Three Years—D. Morrison, J. C. Oswald, C. M. Loring, Geo. A. Brackett.

THE "GLOBE" IN MINNEAPOLIS. The GLOBE is delivered by carrier in Minneapolis every day in the year, Sundays and holidays included, at the low price of seventy-five cents per month.

The Democrats of the Third ward owe Daniel Waitt a deep debt of gratitude for withdrawing as a candidate for re-election, in favor of William McArthur, the Democratic nominee, who was fairly and squarely nominated at the caucus, despite the unjust allegations of the P. P. in reference to the nomination of Mr. McArthur, and the lying and contemptible rumors set afloat by the Democrats to injure him.

The Journal reproduces Mayor Ames' letter, side by side with that of G. A. Pillsbury, both written in answer to Mayor O'Brien's request that both cities—Minneapolis and St. Paul—act in conjunction in receiving Henry Villard and his distinguished guests, on the occasion of the opening of the Northern Pacific railroad last September.

The GLOBE is authentically informed that a citizen of the Second ward was refused registration by the judges of election on the ground that he had separated from his wife and that she resides in another ward.

The attention of the Democratic voters of the Sixth ward is directed to the fact that the ninety-two students attending Augsburg seminary, the majority of whom hail from Dakota, Wisconsin, Iowa and Michigan, are sure to cast fraudulent votes next Tuesday at the behest of Republican rickshaws.

The city comptroller has a salary of $2,600 per annum. He has employed clerical assistance and has repeatedly sent his bill into the city council, which body has indicated the bill as illegal.

By the gracious act of Mr. Michael Lyons in withdrawing his candidacy for alderman of the First ward upon the Democratic ticket in favor of the present incumbent, John T. Lee, who is a candidate for re-election, there is no question but Mr. Lee will retain his seat in the council where he has been a faithful and efficient representative and always on the right side with his vote upon every measure under consideration.

The GLOBE has watched his career in the city council and is happy to say that he has always acted faithfully and conscientiously to the best interests of the city and has been always true to the trust reposed in him by his constituents.

Mr. George A. Pillsbury pledges himself to "enforce every law on the statute books" if he will, what will he do on the promises here, and while here he has kept so thoroughly acquainted with public affairs that he is competent to act intelligently upon all matters conducive to the public welfare and act fearlessly and independently in opposing any measure detrimental to the interests of his constituents or the city in general.

Mr. Lee has endeavored himself to all with whom he has had social or business relations. He has always been foremost in advancing the interests of south Minneapolis, and by his industrious habits an strict attention to his calling as contractor and builder, he has accumulated much property and a snug competency.

Mr. Lee is a man of excellent understanding, is intelligent and well educated and is eminently fitted in every respect to represent his ward in the city council. No one man has labored more unceasingly to advance the interests of the ward than Mr. Lee, and it is safe to assert that no man has ever received a larger vote for alderman than he will poll on Tuesday next.

Mr. Lee is broad and liberal minded and is the favorite candidate with voters of every nationality as well as his own.

While Mr. E. B. Clement, the Democratic candidate for alderman in the Fourth ward, really requires no elaborate eulogy, for he is widely known, the GLOBE cannot refrain from indulging in a few words. One year ago he was the candidate of the party for the same position against F. L. Greenleaf, and although the ward is, in an ordinary campaign, overwhelmingly Republican, Mr. Greenleaf was elected by 90 votes, and the latter party considered him the strongest available man in the ward.

Mr. Lee is a man of excellent understanding, is intelligent and well educated and is eminently fitted in every respect to represent his ward in the city council. No one man has labored more unceasingly to advance the interests of the ward than Mr. Lee, and it is safe to assert that no man has ever received a larger vote for alderman than he will poll on Tuesday next.

Mr. Lee is broad and liberal minded and is the favorite candidate with voters of every nationality as well as his own.

MINNEAPOLIS GLOBELETTERS.

The real estate transfers filed yesterday aggregated $118,504. The prohibitionists will meet at Market hall this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Clerk Davenport and his deputies issued orders of five hundred naturalization papers yesterday. Robert Harvey, the man shot on Thursday night by Detective Hankinson, is still lying in a critical condition.

Marriage licenses were given yesterday by Deibel and Annie M. Lee, Lewis K. Yerber and Mary Hulm. A mass meeting of the French Canadian Naturalization club will be held on Monday evening at Harrison hall.

The Father Mathew Total Abstinence society will meet in weekly session this evening at Catholic Association hall. The Irish National league will hold a regular meeting this evening. Besides the usual exercises there will be a debate with three on a side.

Charles Walker split open his left foot with an adze while working in an East side carpenter shop and accidentally maimed himself for life. The Minneapolis society of stationary engineers have removed to Robert Emmett hall on Thursday.

In the case of the Calver Commission company against Wm. A. Barber and others, the court has rendered a verdict in the sum of $1,337.99. Owing to the exigencies of the campaign, which require space to expose Republican frauds, the Minneapolis advertising in this morning's GLOBE has been crowded over to the seventh page.

The different committees engaged in the interest of the Dominican fair, which opens at Market hall on April 15, are working energetically and meeting with success beyond their most sanguine expectations. At the meeting of the city teachers yesterday Prof. Richardson made extended remarks on drawing in the public schools.

Last night several men were arrested by Sheriff Stoddard, upon the charge of fraudulent registration. They are supposed to have hailed from Anoka, a town that can be always depended on to send voters to elect the candidate of the "grand old party" that never fail to resort to that disreputable work. They will be punished to the full extent of the law.

A meeting of black Republicans and discontented Democrats was held last evening at Harrison hall, to abuse Mayor Ames. The usual stereotyped harangues were uttered and left quite flat to the audience, which was chiefly composed of staunch Democrats attracted to hear the recent "converts" talk on the merits of the Democratic party.

The "converts" are now orthodox Republicans and abuse the Democratic party with more violence than the Republicans themselves. Tom Shaw, who is of the "colored persuasion," is an enthusiastic Ames advocate. He met a fellow colored citizen—a Pillsburyite—and a red hot political discussion led to vigorous words.

A GLOBE representative called at the Scandia hall yesterday, and was inclined to ask the popular cashier, A. O. Haugan, what his prospects were for re-election as alderman for the Sixth ward, next Tuesday, but seeing him busily occupied in selling steamship tickets, the scribe politely refrained from talking politics while the candidate and more profitable business.

Mr. Haugan transacts business for all the leading steamboat lines from European ports and his patronage is so rapidly increasing that in this special branch his expectations have been more than realized. The Scandia bank of deposits and savings is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business.

Mr. Haugan transacts business for all the leading steamboat lines from European ports and his patronage is so rapidly increasing that in this special branch his expectations have been more than realized. The Scandia bank of deposits and savings is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business.

Mr. Haugan transacts business for all the leading steamboat lines from European ports and his patronage is so rapidly increasing that in this special branch his expectations have been more than realized. The Scandia bank of deposits and savings is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business.

Mr. Haugan transacts business for all the leading steamboat lines from European ports and his patronage is so rapidly increasing that in this special branch his expectations have been more than realized. The Scandia bank of deposits and savings is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business.

Mr. Haugan transacts business for all the leading steamboat lines from European ports and his patronage is so rapidly increasing that in this special branch his expectations have been more than realized. The Scandia bank of deposits and savings is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business.

Mr. Haugan transacts business for all the leading steamboat lines from European ports and his patronage is so rapidly increasing that in this special branch his expectations have been more than realized. The Scandia bank of deposits and savings is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business.

Mr. Haugan transacts business for all the leading steamboat lines from European ports and his patronage is so rapidly increasing that in this special branch his expectations have been more than realized. The Scandia bank of deposits and savings is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business.

Mr. Haugan transacts business for all the leading steamboat lines from European ports and his patronage is so rapidly increasing that in this special branch his expectations have been more than realized. The Scandia bank of deposits and savings is doing a splendid business, and the cashier, Mr. Haugan, is doing a splendid business.

MINISTER'S CONUNDRUM.

A Text For Discussing Minneapolis Politics. The Scalpel Applied With the Skill of an Expert. To the Editor of the Globe: MINNEAPOLIS, March 25.—How is it that the ministers of the gospel in the pulpit after they have repeated the words of prayer "They will be done on earth as it is in heaven" they will then piously proceed to advise their hearers to vote for a candidate for mayor who has not said that he is a temperance man, and dare not say that he is, but which candidate, on the contrary, has been held up as a liberal government, and also that he is hand and glove with Jake Barge, and that said candidate is catering as well as he can to get the saloon vote.

The Republican party in this city is an institution of organized hypocrisy. As a sample I know one of them and if you scrape him you will find a fellow called William King. At one time we see him down at the fair and hear him calling out in stentorian tones, "How much for this candy?" the fair man can make the election a mere matter of buying "whisky and beer." Again, and a few evenings previous to the election of 1882 we hear him delivering a very able speech in Market hall, talking about the noble red-shirted working man, and describing in ecstatic tones the virtues of the "grand old party" which had made with the unholo saloon keepers.

Sad to relate he backslides and we find him joining hands with the wicked party that took a $12,000 job of stone cutting away from the noble red-shirted workingman and gave it to some conceited politician. A little further on and we find him talking about honest saloon keepers. The honest fact is that the Republican and Democrats here are just the same. It is six of the one and half a dozen of the other.

Both are sagged, and for they, that title, or any vote to elect, as evidenced by their talk about respectable saloon keepers, etc., and the declaration that the administration of Mr. Pillsbury will be a liberal one. Of course it will be just the same as the administration of the Democrat. You could tell the difference between the rule of Rand and Ames, only that we have a bigger city now than then, with one exception, that the Ames rule is devoid of hypocrisy. Ames is one of those plain fellows that would rather be the head of the community than that of the tail.

About two months ago these Republicans began to sing a moral song and laid a trap for the innocent prohibitionists and baited it with the respectable James T. Wyman, a man of whom any people might be proud. The prohibitionists of the Democrat party, Wyman and found there was not a stain upon his character, that he was very embodiment of respectability, ability, honor and decency. The prohibitionists accepted him upon a platform that called for nothing but a strict adherence to the law.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

THE COURTS.

Circuit Court. Before Lochner, Young, and Koon. In the matter of the assessment roll Central park, remonstrance of Susan M. Powers et al. vs. Thos. H. Powers; continued two weeks. Dorsey W. Thomas vs. Ida Thomas; continued.

Leopold Bishop vs. St. Paul & Northern Pacific Railway company; same. John F. Pickett vs. same. Mathias Oster vs. same; same. Joseph L. Gaslin vs. John C. Gaslin; judgment ordered for plaintiff.

C. M. Osborne & Co. vs. Elliott & Feehan; motion for judgment denied and appeal allowed. Mortimer B. Rollins et al. vs. Lambert & Kelly et al.; judgment ordered for plaintiff. Chas. C. Bennett as assignee vs. H. R. Denney; continued one week.

Theodore Johnson vs. F. D. Norenburg; motion for new trial argued and denied. Salisbury, Ralph and Co. vs. Lambert and Mathews; motion denied without prejudice. Same vs. same; same. Same vs. L. M. Lambert; same. Same vs. same; same.

In the matter of the assignment of Knowlton, Walker to E. G. O'Donnell; assignee discharged and assignors discharged for debts. R. W. Jordan vs. R. L. Berglund; motion to make reply more definite and certain granted. Same vs. same; same. Eliza A. Case vs. Douglas E. Case et al.; judgment for plaintiff.

R. B. Langdon and J. K. Sidle vs. The State National bank of Minneapolis and Thos. A. Harrison; continued. Geo. E. Macomber, J. A. Mahoney & Co., defendants, and Felix Trainor, garnishee; disclosure made and paid. NEW CASES AND PAPERS FILED.

Bradley Phillips vs. Stephen O'Hagan, et al.; complaint and summons filed. North Star Boot & Shoe company vs. Henry Blaise, defendant, and Babcock & Baldwin, garnishees; affidavit for garnishment filed. Same vs. Henry Blaise; judgment roll filed. N. G. Peterson vs. C. H. Martin, et al.; judgment roll filed and satisfied.

Motion for judgment, administrator vs. Louis P. Sayer; transcript of judgment filed. Henry Bryson & Co. vs. M. B. Austin, defendant, and Langdon & Co., garnishees; affidavit for garnishment filed. FRANK A. HASTY VS. JAMES STODDARD, SHERIFF. Griek, G. Neuman vs. Arthur B. Chase, et al.

ANSIEL F. JESSIE VS. JANE S. CROWE. Eliza Murphy vs. The Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway company. Nels E. Colstrum vs. same. PROBATE COURT. [Before Judge Udell.] Estate of Patrick Kane, deceased; inventory filed and allowed. Estate of Thomas Kane, deceased; same. Estate of Ella Kane, deceased; same.

MUNICIPAL COURT. [Before Judge Bailey.] John McKenny, drunkennes; committed five days. Matthew Wilson, drunkennes; paid $5. John Olson, selling liquor to minors; continued to 11 April, 9 a. m. Clara Dow, keeper, and Jet Foster, Willie Gibson, Ella Palmer, Nellie Howard, Mattie Howard, Jessie White, Ella Conlay and Blanche McLean, inmates of a house of ill fame, were brought up and fined, the keeper $50 and inmates $10 each. Tom Shaw, disorderly conduct; continued until April 8, 9 o'clock a. m.

WALL PAPER AT WALES & CO. A POLITICAL DODGE. Republicans Arresting Republicans for Fraudulent Registration—What Mayor Ames Has to Say Thereon. One or more arrests have been made this evening for alleged fraudulent registration. It is said a man named French, from Anoka, is one of the parties arrested, but the sheriff refuses to tell how many are arrested, who they are, or to let anybody see them. There is a great howl over it by Republicans who are sent through the city crying "It is all done to create a public opinion." Mayor Ames says, "It is an electing agent in job in order to create a sentiment against me. I think the man or men alleged to be arrested are Republicans who are simply playing their part in this desperate game of the Republicans to regain possession of the city for plundering purposes. You will find they are dummies who are well paid for the part they are acting."

SPECIAL SALE OF PICTURES AT WALES & CO. Pillsbury and High License. News Letter: Strikers from the Pillsbury refinery have been visiting the "respectable-alien element" and promising that in case George A. Pillsbury is elected mayor that "every ticket in the possession of the city under the present administration." To inform those who have been approached and "fed taffy on a stick," as it were, by the representatives of the Republican candidate, the following from the back reports of the city council meeting are published: At the city council meeting, April 23, 1883: On the adoption of the ordinance making the liquor license $1,500 George A. Pillsbury voted Aye. Council meeting, April 24, 1883: The ordinance being on its second reading for amendment, Ald. Lawrence moved that "every ticket in the possession of the city for plundering purposes. You will find they are dummies who are well paid for the part they are acting."

WALL PAPER AT WALES & CO. $300 Reward Offered. WHEREAS, the Republican papers, the Republican city committee, and the Republican candidates for election on Tuesday have charged the Democratic committee with colonizing voters and making illegal registrations; and WHEREAS, it is the opinion of the Democrats that the charge is made with the express purpose of hiding frauds contemplated by the Republicans, it was at the last meeting of the Democratic city committee, Resolved, That a reward in $300 be given for proof which will lead to the conviction of any illegal voters engaged or encouraged by the Democratic city committee, any Democratic candidate or ward committee in our party and working with our city committee. CHAS. M. FOGGIE, Chairman. A. R. BROWN, Secretary. DEMOCRATIC CITY COMMITTEE.

FARIBAUT. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] FARIBAUT, March 29.—The following are the nominations made for the city election which occurs April 1: DEMOCRATIC TICKET. Mayor—L. L. Lowell. Assessor—C. C. Carrel. Treasurer—C. H. Foltz. First Ward—M. J. Sheeren. Second Ward—L. D. Newcomb. Third Ward—E. J. Moran. Fourth Ward—P. Devrey. REPUBLICAN TICKET. Mayor—H. E. Barron. Assessor—M. Hollister. Treasurer—S. T. Pettit. First Ward—L. Hawley. Second Ward—C. A. Miller. Third Ward—John Hutchinson. Fourth Ward—George A. Weston.

Fatally Burned. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] DULUTH, Minn., March 29.—Early Friday morning, Frank Deidrich, a pre-emptor, twenty-two miles from Agate Bay, woke up and found his shanty in flames, and his clothes on fire. The shanty was consumed, but he got out and walked nine miles to a supply station on the Duluth and Iron Range railroad, where he died from the effects of burns. Word reached the city this evening.

THE MEN AND WOMEN VOTERS OF MINNEAPOLIS. We the nominating committee, appointed by the Woman's mass meeting held at Market hall, to confer with committees from the Republican, Democratic and prohibition parties in joint convention, deplore the gross misrepresentations that have appeared daily in the press of this city, and wish to make a statement of facts. Dr. Martha G. Ripley, instead of "thrusting herself forward by the advice of a few injudicious friends" as has been stated, was the unanimous choice of the entire convention. She did not seek the nomination nor desire it, and accepted it only at the last moment with great reluctance. As to her qualifications on personal acquaintance we have found that she is a woman of good judgment and executive ability. She is eminently fitted for a position on the school board, having been a teacher for years in the public schools. She is a graduate of Boston University Medical school, and has made a special study of medicine. Upon every school board there should be at least one physician, and we desire that Dr. Ripley take the place of Dr. Evans, who retires. We did not "demand" that two ladies be nominated, but requested, and think it not unreasonable, that two of the seven members of the school board be women.

Neither Mrs. Williams nor Dr. Ripley has withdrawn from the field, nor will they. The regular nominees of the joint convention are Martha G. Ripley, Lydia P. Williams. All parties are represented, as one of the candidates is a Republican, and we ask you to vote this ticket: Mrs. T. B. McClary, Mrs. Lydia P. Williams, Mrs. H. E. Gallinger, Mrs. M. C. Anderson, Mrs. M. H. Henderson, Mrs. E. S. Winchell, Mrs. E. L. Miller, Emma Haziman.

Women are interested in all matters pertaining to educational interests of the young and as mothers they feel the necessity of the political co-operation of the fathers and the mothers of Minneapolis in the election of such persons to fill the vacancies which occur on the school board this spring, as will represent their opinions pertaining to the moral and physical welfare of their children. It would not imply that gentlemen do not have this interest, but, in view of the fact that the young are dependent upon the mother's influence more than any other elements, therefore, the co-operative influence of women is needed upon our boards of education. The women of Minneapolis were granted the right to vote at the Republican, Democratic, Prohibition and Woman's joint nominating convention held in Harrison hall, March 22, B. F. Nelson, Martha G. Ripley and Lydia P. Williams were the unanimous choice of the joint convention to stand as candidates for the spring vacancies on the school board. Mrs. L. P. Williams is well-known in the city. Dr. N. G. Ripley is a woman of executive ability, a graduate of the Boston medical university and has made sanitary measures

THE SCALPEL APPLIED WITH THE SKILL OF AN EXPERT.

To the Editor of the Globe: MINNEAPOLIS, March 25.—How is it that the ministers of the gospel in the pulpit after they have repeated the words of prayer "They will be done on earth as it is in heaven" they will then piously proceed to advise their hearers to vote for a candidate for mayor who has not said that he is a temperance man, and dare not say that he is, but which candidate, on the contrary, has been held up as a liberal government, and also that he is hand and glove with Jake Barge, and that said candidate is catering as well as he can to get the saloon vote.

The Republican party in this city is an institution of organized hypocrisy. As a sample I know one of them and if you scrape him you will find a fellow called William King. At one time we see him down at the fair and hear him calling out in stentorian tones, "How much for this candy?" the fair man can make the election a mere matter of buying "whisky and beer." Again, and a few evenings previous to the election of 1882 we hear him delivering a very able speech in Market hall, talking about the noble red-shirted working man, and describing in ecstatic tones the virtues of the "grand old party" which had made with the unholo saloon keepers.

Sad to relate he backslides and we find him joining hands with the wicked party that took a $12,000 job of stone cutting away from the noble red-shirted workingman and gave it to some conceited politician. A little further on and we find him talking about honest saloon keepers. The honest fact is that the Republican and Democrats here are just the same. It is six of the one and half a dozen of the other.

Both are sagged, and for they, that title, or any vote to elect, as evidenced by their talk about respectable saloon keepers, etc., and the declaration that the administration of Mr. Pillsbury will be a liberal one. Of course it will be just the same as the administration of the Democrat. You could tell the difference between the rule of Rand and Ames, only that we have a bigger city now than then, with one exception, that the Ames rule is devoid of hypocrisy. Ames is one of those plain fellows that would rather be the head of the community than that of the tail.

About two months ago these Republicans began to sing a moral song and laid a trap for the innocent prohibitionists and baited it with the respectable James T. Wyman, a man of whom any people might be proud. The prohibitionists of the Democrat party, Wyman and found there was not a stain upon his character, that he was very embodiment of respectability, ability, honor and decency. The prohibitionists accepted him upon a platform that called for nothing but a strict adherence to the law.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council, and he was not a member of the city council.

THE SCALPEL APPLIED WITH THE SKILL OF AN EXPERT.

To the Editor of the Globe: MINNEAPOLIS, March 25.—How is it that the ministers of the gospel in the pulpit after they have repeated the words of prayer "They will be done on earth as it is in heaven" they will then piously proceed to advise their hearers to vote for a candidate for mayor who has not said that he is a temperance man, and dare not say that he is, but which candidate, on the contrary, has been held up as a liberal government, and also that he is hand and glove with Jake Barge, and that said candidate is catering as well as he can to get the saloon vote.

The Republican party in this city is an institution of organized hypocrisy. As a sample I know one of them and if you scrape him you will find a fellow called William King. At one time we see him down at the fair and hear him calling out in stentorian tones, "How much for this candy?" the fair man can make the election a mere matter of buying "whisky and beer." Again, and a few evenings previous to the election of 1882 we hear him delivering a very able speech in Market hall, talking about the noble red-shirted working man, and describing in ecstatic tones the virtues of the "grand old party" which had made with the unholo saloon keepers.

Sad to relate he backslides and we find him joining hands with the wicked party that took a $12,000 job of stone cutting away from the noble red-shirted workingman and gave it to some conceited politician. A little further on and we find him talking about honest saloon keepers. The honest fact is that the Republican and Democrats here are just the same. It is six of the one and half a dozen of the other.

Both are sagged, and for they, that title, or any vote to elect, as evidenced by their talk about respectable saloon keepers, etc., and the declaration that the administration of Mr. Pillsbury will be a liberal one. Of course it will be just the same as the administration of the Democrat. You could tell the difference between the rule of Rand and Ames, only that we have a bigger city now than then, with one exception, that the Ames rule is devoid of hypocrisy. Ames is one of those plain fellows that would rather be the head of the community than that of the tail.

About two months ago these Republicans began to sing a moral song and laid a trap for the innocent prohibitionists and baited it with the respectable James T. Wyman, a man of whom any people might be proud. The prohibitionists of the Democrat party, Wyman and found there was not a stain upon his character, that he was very embodiment of respectability, ability, honor and decency. The prohibitionists accepted him upon a platform that called for nothing but a strict adherence to the law.

Consequently a call was circulated for Wyman and signed by 1,850 names, many of them the most influential men in the city, but did not belong to the Republican machine. The whole number of votes cast by all parties in the fall election of 1883 was 4,055 votes. The prohibitionists stayed at home and cast a little more than one-fifth of the entire vote cast in 1883.

But it soon appeared the whole thing was only a Republican trick to catch the prohibitionists. Wyman did not belong to the Republican machine, and he was not a member of the city council,