A Large Real Estate Sale.

Mankato Review: Messrs. B. F. & H. Shaubert have in negotiation and will probably consummate in a few days the sale of their farm, stock and machinery in Lime township to Messrs. Chas. & Haywood, of Minneapolis, taking in exchange valuable property in that city. The terms of sale have been agreed upon and papers drawn, awaiting the consummation of some minor details. The farm will probably be sold in a few days. The farm is about 500 acres, nearly all under cultivation, the dwellings and buildings, horses, cattle, machinery, farm implements, household goods, the Messrs. Shaubert reserving simply their personal effects. The consideration is $50,000. The new proprietors will take possession of the farm and stock, and are employing hands to operate it. Messrs. Shaubert made the owners of a six-story business block in Minneapolis.

interested herself in the trial of Howard and attempted to prove an alibi on her testimony. The detectives suspected Barbo as Howard's accomplice.

Barbo was arrested for breaking into the Plymouth clothing store and stealing a large amount of furs and then secreting them in a warehouse. Through some technicality Barbo escaped from the hands of the police. The municipal court. The detectives now find that Howard was implicated in the Plymouth clothing store burglary, and so the chain is connected. Murray's wife became enamored of Barbo, and Murray charges them with living a life of shame, or in other words, says Mrs. Murray is Barbo's mistress.

Yesterday Barbo and Murray met in front of the notorious Dick's place, at the corner of Second street and First avenue south, and words were exchanged. Barbo pulled his revolver and pointed it at the other. The crowd gathered. Murray's left shoulder about midway between the arm and neck, and passed on toward the spinal column. He fell prostrate on the sidewalk, and Barbo ran up the street. Detective Glasgow and Officer Coswell were quickly upon the scene, and soon ran the would-be murderer down. Barbo was taken to the hospital, and after some resistance and was arrested. He says Murray had taken him for some time and he had concluded to shoot him. The wounded man was taken to the College hospital and Dr. Ames was summoned. The wound is dangerous and may prove fatal, but not necessarily.

A brutal saloon keeper on Riverside avenue, with the assistance of a rough, pounded an East sider without mercy last night and were arrested. Two men were also corralled from the East side for fighting. All in all, yesterday was a bad day.

HIGH LICENSE MEETING.

Stirling Address by John W. Willis, Esq., and Bishop Ireland.

Enjoyable Music—Additions to St. Michael's League of the Cross.

Notwithstanding the wetness and frequency of April showers last evening, the Church of St. Michael in West St. Paul, was thoroughly filled with a large audience. The meeting was presided over by an able addresser by John W. Willis, Esq., which he prefaced with a thorough explanation of the government of the United States, of states, cities, towns and villages, showing that all their machinery were within the governing power of the people who had exhibited to the world their capability of being their own masters by building up a great and grand republic. It was a highly interesting and valuable address. Willis is a man of high standing in the community, and his address was well received. Bishop Ireland opened with a happy talk, in which he expressed his surprise at the size of the audience, and stated that, although he had always and a high reputation of the high license temperance party, but this nation had not taken any steps to suppress it. He then gave a short history of St. Michael's church, commencing with its foundation, and the block was bought on which the fine church and parsonage now stands for so little money that he sighed in the great advance of value of property in the city, and that the church was built on the site he had not purchased a half dozen more blocks. The first church built had four pews, which it was afterwards increased to six, eight and twelve when Father Gallagher took the parish. But in this fifteen years ago, with the progress the church had made, and the block he had purchased, and he always wanted St. Michael's parish to take the lead in West St. Paul in every good and moral work.

Concluding his address with a fervent appeal to the power of the woman in the heretofore task of curbing and reforming even the appetites and habits of men, fathers, brothers, husbands and sons.

In the strongest terms he advocated the high license proposition, now before the people of St. Paul, and urged support of the high license ticket which resulted from the Market hall meeting.

He cited the numerical march of the dram shop under low license, as in Minneapolis, where the increase in two years had been from 250 to 567, and St. Paul was making similar progress. In the city of St. Paul, there are 1,100 saloons, where, under a $1,000 license, from 150 saloons the number had run down to 34.

This white about impoverishing the poor man by the progress the church had made, and the block he had purchased, and he always wanted St. Michael's parish to take the lead in West St. Paul in every good and moral work.

Concluding his address with a fervent appeal to the power of the woman in the heretofore task of curbing and reforming even the appetites and habits of men, fathers, brothers, husbands and sons.

RED WING, April 14.—George Motz, who in coming to shoot H. Hickman, shot Frank Young in a saloon last Monday evening, and after hearing to do as Graham, J. P., and held in $1,000 bonds to appear at the next term of district court. Young Hickman was fined $5 for abusive language to a juror.

Assessor Beumont Resigns.

J. L. Beumont, assessor of the city of St. Paul since 1877, or for seven years, has resigned. May next, astonished his friends and fellow citizens yesterday by resigning that position. To a GLOBE reporter Mr. Beumont explained that he commenced to think seriously of taking this step a few weeks ago, when the 1884 assessment roll of the real estate of this city was made up showing a great increase in territory, and he compared the labor incumbent upon the holding of the office with its salary of $4,000, of which it had cost him every year fully $3,500 to get through. He proceeded to show the reporter the real estate assessment roll for 1883, which filled 360 pages, and then turning to the roll of 1884 showed him 504 pages in one book and 124 in a smaller one, in all 628 pages. He made no complaint about anything but the inadequate compensation for the expected double amount of work. He had been sufficiently "dunned" in the office and "knew when he had had enough."

The Legislature Adjourns.

COLUMBUS, April 14.—The legislature adjourned this morning 10th inst. January. A resolution was adopted appointing a committee to investigate election frauds at Cincinnati.

LATE MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

Perhaps a Murder. The thugs, thieves, etc. it seems have not yet been driven out of the city, as promised by the Republican organs during the recent campaign. Street was a scene of a tragedy, a man was shot by a man who may be a murderer, in the shooting of John Murray by Henry Barbo. There is quite a history connected with the affair. Both parties were generally believed to have been under the eye of the detectives for some time.

MR. CABLE'S VISIT.

The Rock Island President Says His Presence Has No Significance.

By Putting This and That Together It May Be Inferred a Deal With Vanderbilt Is Not Unlikely.

President E. R. Cable, of the Rock Island railroad, arrived in St. Paul yesterday afternoon by a special train from Chicago, and he occupies apartments at the Metropolitan.

Mr. Cable was seen by a GLOBE reporter last night, and the interview on his part was conducted with the modesty and reserve characteristic of railroad presidents.

"My trip here," said Mr. Cable, in reply to a query, "has no official significance whatever, but it is, in fact, a matter of public interest, and I expect to return to-morrow."

Reporter—"Any developments in regard to Vanderbilt's attitude toward the Rock Island?"

Mr. Cable—"Oh, that is merely a personal fight against Porter."

Reporter—"Do you think Vanderbilt will knock him out?"

Mr. Cable—"No, sorry, go slow; we are awaiting developments."

At this point the r. m. made an original remark about the weather, and became as reserved as a Coney Island clam. Last night Mr. Cable called at the residence of Manager Marvel, of the Manitoba railroad, and had a long conference with him.

It is stated on reliable authority that Marvin Hewitt, president of the Northwestern R. R. will arrive in the city to-day, and this in connection with other "pointers" leads to the belief that things are shaping for a conference with Mr. Cable.

House of Good Shepherd Concert.

One of the attractions of the grand concert for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd, which takes place at Sherman hall on next Thursday evening, is the vocal duet by Prof. W. H. Leeb and Mr. Germaine Williams. Mr. Williams possesses a powerful, rich and thoroughly cultivated voice, and his phrasing of the most difficult passages of vocal music has earned for him the commendation of our most pronounced critics. She and Prof. Leeb have never been heard in public singing together, although each has secured a prominent place in the front rank of our local musical artists. The duet performance of the professor and Miss Williams, especially in operatic selections, are said to be of the highest order of artistic merit.

Must Pay a License.

Yesterday Mayor O'Brien had notice served on the owners of Pfeiffer's hall and Turner's hall, the Athenaeum and all other halls, where beer and other intoxicating liquors are sold, requiring a license to be taken out for each hall, at the rate of $100. There was a good deal of feeling in regard to the matter, and some of the parties endeavored to see the mayor, but he could say nothing more than to state that the notification was given by order of the mayor of the city, and there the matter rests for the present.
