In the South Carolina Republican convention yesterday, President Arthur was endorsed in the usual style, but the delegates chosen were uncommitted, which means they will support anybody but Arthur.

The call and address of the Other Tail county Republicans for a mass convention at Pertham to choose delegates to the Moorhead convention is given in another column.

The cable tells us that Emperor William's health has been fully restored. The report of his illness bore traces of being highly sensational, and the alleged cable bulletins were doubtless chiefly of domestic manufacture.

EX-SENATOR THURMAN is being booked for President in the Pacific States. Out of 1,500 answers to editorial inquiries from Sacramento city, 750 favored Tilden and 543 declared for Thurman.

vote for its passage he will go with them. He will say to his constituents, I wanted a reduction of the tariff, but only four other Representatives voted with me, and consequently I was obliged to stick by the party.

THE DIPLOMATIC SERVICE. The department of state has introduced a bill in congress which has for its object an improvement in the consular service.

As a matter of fact our diplomatic department might be reduced to one-third its present dimensions, and providing bills were exercised in appointments, it would be vastly more respectable and useful than it is at the present time.

There is strange "wonder working" going on among the Republican leaders in regard to a Presidential nomination.

It is possible that Conkling, though he may not be Blaine's less, now hates Arthur more!

There is a point in that direction is the significant fact that unpugged, or anti-Arthur delegates to the Chicago convention are being elected in hitherto considered stalwart strongholds.

Should they now rise superior to the impulses of human passion, and strike hard over the grave of a martyred President, it would be an act of personal manliness, high above mere political considerations.

The reform of administration is possible so long as the government is directed by a party which is under the dominion of false doctrines and unscrupulous means.

These are words of wisdom which should challenge the thoughtful consideration of every patriotic citizen.

The reform of a party, as the party in power cannot be hoped for from within. It must be accomplished from without, and by displacing and hurrying it from official position.

THE SENATE MONDAY, during the session of the naval appropriation bill, an amendment was offered to the effect that some action should be taken with reference to the establishment of a pension fund for the government for the manufacture of cannon.
