

NEW TERMS OF THE GLOBE.

SEVEN ISSUES PER WEEK—BY CARRIER. One Year, payable in advance, $8 00. Six Months, $5 00. Three Months, $2 50. Per Month, 75 cents. All mail subscriptions payable in advance.

SUNDAY GLOBE.

By Carrier—per year, $2 00. By Mail—per year, postage paid, $1 50.

WEEKLY GLOBE.

By Mail—postage paid, per year, $1 15.

WASHINGTON BUREAU.

The Washington Bureau of the St. Paul Globe is located at 1424 New York avenue. Residents of the northwest visiting Washington and having matters of local interest to give the public will receive prompt and courteous attention by calling at or addressing the above number.

DAILY WEATHER BULLETIN.

Table with columns for location (Washington, Upper Mississippi Valley, St. Paul, Duluth, etc.), weather conditions, and temperature readings.

COMING CONVENTIONS.

The following list of national, state and district conventions will be found of interest: National, Republican convention, Chicago, June 8.

SENATOR BEN. HARRISON IS REGARDED ENOUGH OF A CANDIDATE FOR PRESIDENT TO BE UNABLE TO ATTEND THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.

SENATOR BEN. HARRISON is regarded enough of a candidate for president to be unable to attend the Republican National convention in his capacity as a delegate-at-large, and his seat in the convention will be taken by Mr. Horn, the colored editor of the Indianapolis Standard.

NEW JERSEY JEFFERSONIANS.

On the 15th inst. the New Jersey Jeffersonians held a largely attended and enthusiastic meeting in the Academy of Music at Newark.

PRESIDENTIAL SPECULATIONS.

Senator Plumb of Kansas thinks Blaine's nomination on the first ballot grows more probable every day, but it might be found if Plumb were himself the manager of the Republican convention it would get a great upset.

GRANT BOOM TO BE STILLED.

It is no longer a matter of doubt that Grant is the candidate of the Republicans, with Lincoln for the second place.

of the Cape of Good Hope, not to mention the possibilities growing from the attitude of the United States toward the Irish dynamiters. Some of these complications, and many others, were mentioned by the speakers, as reasons why the country should at once proceed to strengthen itself by the erection of defenses along the sea coast, and on the approaches of the more important inland towns.

WEST VIRGINIA FOR TILDEN. The Democratic state convention of West Virginia was held at Charleston, April 16, and appointed delegates to the National Democratic convention.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

of the Cape of Good Hope, not to mention the possibilities growing from the attitude of the United States toward the Irish dynamiters. Some of these complications, and many others, were mentioned by the speakers, as reasons why the country should at once proceed to strengthen itself by the erection of defenses along the sea coast, and on the approaches of the more important inland towns.

WEST VIRGINIA FOR TILDEN. The Democratic state convention of West Virginia was held at Charleston, April 16, and appointed delegates to the National Democratic convention.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

of the Cape of Good Hope, not to mention the possibilities growing from the attitude of the United States toward the Irish dynamiters. Some of these complications, and many others, were mentioned by the speakers, as reasons why the country should at once proceed to strengthen itself by the erection of defenses along the sea coast, and on the approaches of the more important inland towns.

WEST VIRGINIA FOR TILDEN. The Democratic state convention of West Virginia was held at Charleston, April 16, and appointed delegates to the National Democratic convention.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

of the Cape of Good Hope, not to mention the possibilities growing from the attitude of the United States toward the Irish dynamiters. Some of these complications, and many others, were mentioned by the speakers, as reasons why the country should at once proceed to strengthen itself by the erection of defenses along the sea coast, and on the approaches of the more important inland towns.

WEST VIRGINIA FOR TILDEN. The Democratic state convention of West Virginia was held at Charleston, April 16, and appointed delegates to the National Democratic convention.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

of the Cape of Good Hope, not to mention the possibilities growing from the attitude of the United States toward the Irish dynamiters. Some of these complications, and many others, were mentioned by the speakers, as reasons why the country should at once proceed to strengthen itself by the erection of defenses along the sea coast, and on the approaches of the more important inland towns.

WEST VIRGINIA FOR TILDEN. The Democratic state convention of West Virginia was held at Charleston, April 16, and appointed delegates to the National Democratic convention.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

THE REVENUE. The revenue tariff, limited to the necessities of the government economically administered and so adjusted in its application as to prevent the exportation of any of our products to the foreign market, and afford just compensation to labor, but not to create or foster monopolies.

MILWAUKEE LETTER.

Inauguration of the New Administration.

The Mayor's Appointments—Gossip About the Chief of Police.

Funeral of Hubbard C. Atkins—Interesting General Notes.

[Special Correspondence of the Globe.]

MILWAUKEE, April 19.—The wheels of municipal government are moving under direction of a new engineer. On Tuesday last John M. Stowell gracefully walked took his office of mayor, and Emil Walther took his place as prepared for the day of two years.

GRADED LICENSES.

The mayor advised that the sentiment of the voters as expressed in the election, was in favor of higher license, but expressed the opinion that a system of graded license would better meet the exigency of the occasion than a sweeping high license.

THE APPOINTMENTS.

After the delivery of the inaugural message, the appointments of the new mayor were read in their order, as follows: Chief of Police, Lem Ellsworth; Chief of Fire Department, James Foley; City Engineer, George H. Benzenberg; Commissioner of Public Works, C. P. Foot; Collector of Water Rates, Ferdinand Elsworth; Commissioner of Public Debt, E. H. Brodhead; Sealer of Weights and Measures, Erich Westergaard; Trustee of Public Library, Alderman C. W. Milburn; Trustee of Public Museum, Alderman T. H. Malone.

A Defaulter Caught.

CLEVELAND, O., April 20.—Frank Dewalt, the alleged defaulter president of the First National bank, Leadville, Col., was arrested early this morning at his mother's residence in Canton, and will be taken back to Leadville, where a reward of $1,000 is offered for his arrest.

Heavy Weather.

CHICAGO, April 20.—A heavy gale from the northeast accompanied by snow, which melted as it fell, prevailed all day. The lake is exceedingly rough, and fears are entertained for the safety of vessels along the coast.

Out in Thirty Seconds.

NEW YORK, April 18.—A glove fight took place to-night between Mike Cleary and Wm. Sheriff, "the Prussian," at the Germania assembly rooms. The conditions were that Sheriff was to receive the receipts of the house if he knocked his opponent out in four rounds. Cleary, however, knocked "the Prussian" out in the first round, which lasted thirty seconds.

A Fatal Smashup.

ST. LOUIS, April 20.—A freight train on the Kansas City, Ft. Scott & Gulf railway ran into a washout forty miles west of Spring field, Missouri, on Friday night, almost demolishing the locomotive and nine cars, killing one and mortally wounding another tramp, stealing a ride in a box car, and entailing a loss to the company of $15,000.

A Norther in Texas.

GALVESTON, April 20.—Specials from all points of the state report heavy rains and a norther, and possibly great damage to crops. Hall and snow are reported from several points. A severe norther and rain set in here this morning before daylight, unprecedented for this season of the year.

Horse vs. Bicycle.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 20.—The six day horse versus bicycle tournament, riding twelve hours a day, terminated at 1 o'clock this morning. Anderson had charge of fifteen horses. John S. Prince and Miss Armando alternated on bicycles. The latter made 1,075 miles, the former 2,000, beating the horses by a mile and a quarter.

A Snuff-Box.

CINCINNATI, April 20.—A neatly dressed man, apparently a workman, leaped from the suspension bridge into the Ohio river at 5:15 a.m. on Friday. To midnight his body was not recovered. It is not known who the snuff-box was.

Two Girls Drowned.

CAIRO, April 20.—Three colored girls were in a dugout on Lake Edwards this morning. The boat capsized and Angie Smith, aged fifteen, and Carrie Jones, aged eighteen, were drowned.

Flooded Again.

ARKANSAS CITY, April 20.—The river has been rising steadily for the past two weeks. Many houses are again submerged and an appeal for aid has been sent the congressman.

A Church Burned.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., April 20.—The Methodist church building at Saginaw City was burned this morning. Loss nearly $10,000, insurance $6,000.

THE EGYPTIAN PROBLEM.

Conflicting Telegrams Make the Situation a Puzzling One.

The Tories Seeking to Make Capital Out of Gladstone's Policy.

General Gordon's Appeal to the People of Britain and the United States.

[Special Cablegram to the Globe.]

LONDON, April 20.—The Egyptian media is more divided than ever. It is now absolutely impossible to know Gordon's position on the real points at issue. One day Mr. Power, the correspondent of the Times, who is supposed to write under Gordon's dictation, telegraphs that Khartoum is in hourly danger; that Gordon is in the center of a rebel camp; that Gordon is hourly expecting an English relief force. On the next day comes a chery telegram rejoicing in disensions in El Mahdi's camp. Then arrives a dispatch that Zehor has been besought by Gordon to come to Khartoum as the last chance of saving the place. A few hours afterward Gordon announces with a yell of exultation that El Mahdi has been twice defeated. The real truth seems to be that Gordon is not the man painted by the puffing press of sensational journalists, but a hot-headed, middle-brained fanatic, who, on a real emergency, is now practically mad. The Tories, of course, still hold him, knowing that he is defeated or assassinated there will be a splendid cry against Gladstone for having first accepted Gordon's aid and self sacrifice, and then betrayed and abandoned him. The ministers are cursing the day when they allowed so incalculable a force as the crack-brained Parian to become a pivotal point in the complicated problem of their policy.

The authorities in Swanesa are attempting to induce the government to send the American mails by way of Swanesa instead of through Liverpool and Queenstown, as at present, Swanesa being twelve hours nearer the United States than Liverpool.

Queen Victoria will remain at Darmstadt until after she has had a conference with Emperor William regarding the settlement for Princess Alice's funeral.

Lawrence Barrett, the American actor, is receiving full but not crowded houses. The tone of the press is altogether favorable.

PARIS, April 20.—Minister Ferry has replied almost with insolence to the remonstrance of the English ambassador, and the authorities through the English press talk with open menace of measures for the protection of French convicts, which would practically create a state of war between them and France, if not between England and France. Meanwhile France is likely to grow less conciliatory in temper through her unchecked success in China. Everybody now confesses that Ferry was right in treating the solemn threat of Tseng as a bluff. The present intention of the French premier would drive China to war if she had any pluck, but everything points to her patiently accepting the luck.

[Western Associated Press.]

BRITISH AFFAIRS.