FIFTH DISTRICT.

Interviews Showing the Blunder of the Opposition Factionists.

The Nelson Managers Jeopardize Their Favorite Son, Destroying all Prospect of Harmony.

Regular Republican Convention. [Special Telegram to The Globe.]

MOORHEAD, April 26.—Owing to the crowded condition of the telegraph wires Thursday night only a portion of my dispatches descriptive of the work of the regular Republican convention, under the call of Chairman E. G. Holmes, were transmitted.

This convention met in rooms assigned for the purpose at the Grand Pacific hotel, at 11 a. m., and organized by the appointment of E. G. Holmes, of Becker county, chairman, and W. H. Hartley, of Crow Wing, secretary.

The convention at once proceeded to the consideration of devising an honorable method of adjusting the matters of difference existing in the party in the Fifth district, and with a view to secure harmonious action in the future a committee of seven was appointed to act as a conference committee, and to prepare an address to be submitted to the opposition convention which had assembled under a call issued by Hon. C. A. Gilman, then in session at Brun's Opera House.

The committee appointed consisted of Messrs. Holmes, Canfield, Johnson, Hartley, Buckman, Liston, and Sharpshin. After preparing an address to the opposition factionists, submitting a plan whereby enduring harmony was not only possible, but entirely practicable, the convention took a recess until 3 p. m.

[The address submitted by the regular Republican convention was published by the GLOBE in its issue of the 25th, together with the action of the opposition factionists, who rejected the proposition which proposed the way for party harmony in the district.]

After the submission of the address and its rejection by the opposition faction acting under the Gilman call, the regular Republican convention reassembled. The following committees were appointed:

Credentials—Messrs. Douglass, of Crow Wing, Rumery, of Becker, Wellman, of Otter Tail, Webster, of Clay, Sharpshin, of Polk.

Permanent organization—G. G. Hartley, E. B. Chapin, E. H. Law.

The committee on credentials reported no contesting delegations from any counties of the district, and on permanent organization the continuance of the temporary organization. Both reports were unanimously adopted.

The convention then proceeded to the choice of two delegates and two alternates to the Chicago convention, resulting as follows: Hon. J. V. Brower, of Todd county; Col. Geo. H. Johnson, of Becker county; Geo. S. Canfield and J. C. Flynn, alternates.

The committee appointed earlier in the day to prepare the address for harmony, acting as a committee on resolutions submitted a report, which was unanimously adopted. [The resolutions were published in the GLOBE of the 25th.]

The concluding action of the convention was the adoption of a resolution advising the regular Republican district committee to call a convention at a future date to nominate a candidate for congress.

Fifth District Interviews. The failure of the regular Republicans of the Fifth district to arrive at a harmonious agreement with the opposition Nelson faction at Moorhead, has stirred up the old feeling of bitterness, and the course pursued by the convention acting under the call of Hon. C. A. Gilman is broadly condemned in the Republican ranks.

While in Moorhead and returning home the delegates in their remarks and discussions manifested clearly that the breach between the divisions of the Republican party in the Fifth district will grow apace. The partisans of the opposition Nelson wing are arrogant and uncompromising, while the kindred leaders think their overtures for peace were not met in a proper spirit or decently treated.

The cooler heads of the Nelsons deplore the events of Thursday, while of course they claim that they could not have acted otherwise. They do not treat the matter lightly, and it is plain to see they think a grave mistake has been made in refusing to accept the proposition of the regular Republican (Kindred) committee at conference, looking toward an amicable adjustment of the difficulty.

C. A. Gilman did all in his power to harmonize, and if the action of the rump convention defeats Knute Nelson it cannot be laid at his door.

EX-LIQUET, GOV. BARTO was interviewed yesterday at St. Cloud. He said he was very sorry a compromise could not have been brought about and felt that the action of the Nelsonites was a "leech" hasty.

He did all in his power for reconciliation, and would gladly have sacrificed any personal aims or interests if by so doing peace could be obtained. He seemed to think the fight against Nelson this fall can amount to but little. "What I regret most," said he, "is that a contesting delegation will be sent to the Chicago convention. This will look bad for our district and for Minnesota and will, I fear, lessen its influence and strength."

Gov. HUBBARD, who was also at St. Cloud said "I think it would have been better if a stronger effort had been made to harmonize the factions. I don't think much of a fight will be made against Nelson. Don't think Mr. Comstock can be induced to run against him." I think it will depend altogether upon the manner of presentation before the committee on credentials as to which delegation will be admitted to the national convention at Chicago.

H. G. STROBCK of Rothsay, a prominent Fifth district Republican on the train from Moorhead said: "I tell you it was a mistake. I think we could have much better afforded to concede more than we perhaps thought reasonable than to have let this fight go on."

It is altogether wrong to say as Corlies of Otter Tail at the convention said, "Let 'em go, we don't want 'em." It is this very eagerness of certain men to read men out of the party which is liable to break up the Republican party in county, state and nation. I don't think it is down in the books to defeat Nelson this fall, but if Comstock comes out as a people's candidate, and the Democrats make no nomination a very decidedly interesting fight will ensue. I don't know whether Comstock will run or not, but I would not blame him if he did. Comstock worked hard for Nelson two years ago, used his money, and in my opinion, helped him quite as much as Charles Gilman did. In return for all this, what did Nelson do? Why, in the last state convention he let Comstock come up for lieutenant governor Nelson worked against him. Used his personal influence against him, took off his coat and went around the hall peddling tickets like a pot house politician. No, it would not surprise me to see Comstock win, and if he does, he'll do well. Mark my word."

J. V. BROWER, one of the regular Republican (Kindred) delegates to the Chicago convention, said: "I have every confidence that Col. Johnson and myself will be admitted to the national convention. We intend to present our case just as strongly as possible, and I think candid consideration of our claims will result in admission."

W. W. HARTLEY. Mr. Hartley was seen Friday at his residence in Moorhead. He expressed himself as well pleased with the action of the regular Republican convention at Moorhead, and said he had a share in the business.
