

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

The school teachers will be paid to-morrow. County Treasurer Burton received $5,500 for real estate taxes yesterday.

Clark Bell, of the district court, issued sixty-nine marriage licenses in April.

The high license committee have rented Market hall for their mass meeting to-morrow night.

A deserter from the United States army, caught at Miles City, was taken to Fort Snelling yesterday for safe keeping.

A span of horses and a saddle horse were found loose on the streets last evening and cared for by the police until their careless owners came after them.

The Republican State convention will convene in Sherman hall on Wabashaw and Sixth streets at 12 o'clock, noon, to-day.

Charles P. Hill was admitted in the supreme court yesterday to practice in the courts of Minnesota on certificate from the supreme court of Michigan, and will open an office in St. Paul.

The Bankers and Merchants Telegraph company are building a telegraph line from Minneapolis to Chicago, and instead of running along the railroad are going by the highways, at the rate of two miles per day.

James W. Finn was on yesterday appointed to the police force, taking the place made vacant by the dismissal of Officer Twohey.

Mr. Finn has resided in St. Paul for thirty years, since infancy, he is an American, and well qualified for the position.

In speaking of the business boom at the market house, Marketmaster O'Regan said yesterday that there was still a chance for dealers to obtain a few good stalls.

There is urgent necessity for an extra team for the police patrol wagon. During Tuesday night the patrol wagon had thirteen runs, and yesterday the team was almost unfit for service, being nearly used up.

A permit was granted yesterday to the St. Paul Syndicate to build a four-story block of stores and dwellings on Seventh between Minnesota and Cedar streets at a cost of $70,000.

A. M. Radcliff is the architect. A building permit was also granted James H. Reed to build a four-story block of stores and dwellings on Seventh street between Wacouta and Sibley, at a cost of $12,300.

The light Pomper life saving ladders with bells, life lines, and canvas shutters ordered by the fire commissioners will be shipped Monday.

By these ladders which will be manned thoroughly a fireman can ascend from the ground to any window in a block or dwelling in no time at all for the rescue of occupants and can plant himself on the top of the highest block in town in the space it is said of one minute.

Mr. John Elbert, one of the most popular meat caterers in our city, will open this morning at new meat market at stall No. 14 in the public market.

Mr. Elbert's reputation as a man of square business dealings is so popularly known that it is useless for us to speak of it.

In his new place we venture to say he will not only be wonderfully successful, but serve the best class of meats to many customers whom he has never known before.

It will be to the advantage of our citizens to remember his opening, not only for to-day, but for the future, as his experience and reputation are both the finest exponents of a man of business in his line.

Mr. D. M. Lane, Jr., 3432-38 Market street, Philadelphia, says he served St. Jacobs Oil, the pain-reliever, for a severe sprain of his right arm and also for toothache, with immediate cure of the pain in both cases.

Local Mention. Besley's Waukegan ale and porter, at 106 West Third street, H. Orlmann, agent.

You can save money by buying wall paper, carpets and furniture at No. 221 East Seventh. A. H. LOHLER.
