Twenty-five per cent. discount is still allowed on any and all purchases of Dry Goods and Notions, large or small, Wholesale or Retail, and we will say,

NO BETTER INVESTMENT

Can be made now, than supplying yourself with your wants in that line for the next six months. We do not make any discrimination. We do not select a few goods only, whereon we allow a discount, but beg to repeat that any and all goods—new or old—are included in our offer. We allow you to deduct 1/4 from the bill, whether you buy a Silk Dress for $1.50 per yard or whether you purchase a yard of Muslin at 5 cents.

Never mind what competitors may tell you, our discount is given from lowest market prices. We do not make calculations for big profits, but working on the smallest possible margin, we are making strenuous efforts to do a large business.

You will find of good substantial goods a complete assortment in all departments and in addition thereto many attractive novelties.

Gustave Heinemann

N. W. Cor. Seventh and Jackson Sts.
We have every reason, and take much pleasure in thanking our friends for their liberal patronage, and in return we promise to supply the public with

DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS!

At much lower figures than has ever been attempted to sell goods at in this city. We base our calculations on the amount of goods that can be sold—

Providing the public can be convinced that all goods will be as represented, or money refunded;

Providing the public will find that goods can be purchased in St. Paul at figures as low as in any establishment in the United States, which can only be done where large quantities are handled.

Give us a trial. We will treat you fair.

RESPECTFULLY,

GUSTAVE HEINEMANN,

127 and 129 East Seventh St.,

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

The city treasurer disbursed $90,000 yesterday in payment of water bills.

The last batch of water bonds amounting to $100,000 were transferred to the purchaser yesterday.

Poor old David Hoar was on a periodical foot yesterday, and he was laid away in the cooler to sober up.

Mr. J. Wilder stumbled on a block of stone at Seventh and Cedar streets yesterday and cut his face quite seriously.

John J. McHatten, special municipal court judge at Stillwater, tendered his resignation to Gov. Hubbard yesterday.

The St. Paul Turnverein held a very interesting gymnastic exhibition which was followed by a dance at Turner hall last evening.

An influenza sore throat, in many cases accompanied by a temporary loss of voice, above a whisper, is quite prevalent in the city.

Prof. J. Gates, of Anoka, has paid a visit of inspection to the high schools of Rushford, Chatfield, Lanesboro and St. Charles the past week.

Col. A. R. Kiefer returned to the city yesterday, from Colorado, bringing with him the body of his eldest son Otto, who expired there the first of the week.

Yesterday afternoon Officer McFetridge arrested five hackmen named J. Murphy, J. Lynch, Wm. Mackin, W. Howard and Chas. Greening, on the charge of blockading the streets.

The collections of the office of the internal revenue for the first nine days of May were $71,462. Collector Bickel says this has been the busiest month in the history of the office.

The Minnesota state board of corrections and charities will send a delegation to the annual national conference of boards of corrections and charities, to be held at St. Louis Oct. 13, 1884.

Sixteen patrolmen under command of Sergeant Walsh will attend the funeral exercises of George Wells this afternoon. They meet at the City hall at 1:30 and at Central fire hall join the firemen at 2 p. m.

James Perhune, a Chestnut street stone mason, in a fit of drunkenness, drove his wife out of doors last evening and the brute would have been arrested if the poor woman could have been induced to enter a complaint against him.

State Auditor Braden is attending to the sale of state school lands in southern Minnesota, having thus disposed of 2,300 acres of Blue Earth, Faribault county on Tuesday last, and 13,000 acres at Fairmount, Morton county, on the Wednesday following.

The alarm of fire from box No. 134, at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning, was caused by the burning of a small barn belonging to Mr. Moran and located at Como and Western avenues. A buggy and harness were destroyed, and the total loss was $350.

W. W. Wendergast left the city for Hutchinson yesterday. He was acting somewhat nervous before his departure from the state house, and it is thought he had an attack of spring fishing fever, though he impressively announced he should return on Monday.

The oarsmen Conley and Turner will row at Pullman on the first of June, and the understanding is that Gaudauer will challenge the winner. The latter match is being arranged to take place at White Bear lake, the most desirable place for the contest in the country.

H. B. Snow, watchman at the Wann block, corner of Fourth and Sibley streets, caught John Bangalapa, a Seventh street Italian fruit vendor, helping himself to empty barrels on these premises at midnight and lodged him at the City hall on charge of larceny.

W. H. Prescott, the pawnbroker, is in hard luck again. He reported at city hall yesterday that while at dinner his place was entered by thieves, who secured one gold and a couple of silver watches, two revolvers, a few watch chains and bracelets. It is thought he left his door unlocked.

A blind beggar succeeded in the departments of the state capitol by a deaf beggar inside of ten minutes yesterday afternoon, causing fears on the part of the occupants that if there were any more appearances of the same sort that they would have to borrow car money to get home for over Sunday with.

An alarm was sent in on box 34 at 8:15 yesterday caused by the partial burning of the barn of Lewis Neuro, 768 Como avenue, originating from cause unknown. The loss on the barn was $125 and it was insured for that amount, while the contents were destroyed to the amount of $30, there being an insurance policy to the amount of $200 thereon.

The register of deeds office in the court house is thoroughly in the hands of the carpenters who have torn down the partition between it and the room formerly occupied by the assessors and thrown both rooms into a large and commodious apartment which will have two entrances from Fifth street and fully meet the demands made by the growth of business in the city.

The following plans were approved by the plat commission yesterday: Bryant park addition No. 2; Rogers & Coleman's subdivision of block 22, Stinson, Brown & Ramsey's addition; Hornsby's rearrangement of block 5, Brown & Jackson's addition to West St. Paul; Daily & Berrisford's subdivision of block 95, Lyman Davison's addition to St. Paul; Belvidere park, Sixth ward.

Among the arrivals at the Merchants hotel last night was Mr. W. Milton Farrow, the champion crack shot and a man who has won more medals than almost any living marksman. Mr. Farrow will visit the St. Paul rifle club this afternoon and a friendly contest is expected. On Friday next he will give an exhibition of his skill, at a meet of the Creedmore club, Minneapolis.

When you begin to talk of large families that one having residence in a Fifth street front chimney of the Custom house takes the cake. Just at sundown every pleasant evening, fathers, mothers, sons, daughters, etc., all come out for a grand aerial circus performance over that structure, wing it in giddy circles with full a thousand performers in the ring at the same time, and at the conclusion fall as gently as snow flakes into their brick mansion.

For the week ending last evening County Treasurer Burton had received $48,000 in real estate taxes. This leaves a balance of $500,000 in real estate taxes to be paid during the next three weeks, and such has been the increase in number of the Ramsey taxpayers that unless they step in very lively and do not depart from the old-time system of piling in to pay their tax dues during the few last days of the month, they will fail to get their receipts and lose their percentage off.

Opening of Trials of May Term.
Judge Brill opens the trial of civil cases by jury at the opening of the general term of the district court at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and Judge Simons trial of court cases at the same hour. The grand jury will again meet at 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon to conclude their business, but will hardly report their doings to Judge Brill's court before Wednesday morning. The entire calendar of civil cases for trial by jury will be heard before trials on grand jury criminal indictments will be taken up.

M. Capel for America.
ROME, May 10.—The vatican is sounding American dioceses to learn whether the appointment of M. Capel as bishop or coadjutor would be acceptable. It is considered doubtful whether Capel would accept an American bishopric if offered him.

For the week ending last evening County Treasurer Burton had received $48,000 in real estate taxes. This leaves a balance of $500,000 in real estate taxes to be paid during the next three weeks, and such has been the increase in number of the Ramsey taxpayers that unless they step in very lively and do not depart from the old-time system of piling in to pay their tax dues during the few last days of the month, they will fail to get their receipts and lose their percentage off.
