

SOUTHERN MINNESOTA.

Gleanings of News and Items of Material Interest.

A Daily Globe Department at Mankato Devoted to Developing and Advancing the Southern Portion of the State.

The office of the Southern Minnesota department of the Globe is located at Mr. E. F. Barrett, with headquarters at Mankato, the business and editorial rooms being on the second floor of the First national bank building formerly occupied as the telephone exchange.

Special Reports from the GLOBE Mankato office May 28:

MANKATO.

Gen. James H. Baker, state railroad commissioner, was in the city on yesterday.

Col. R. P. McMillen, of Elgin, Ill., secretary of the famous Elgin board of trade, and also of the Northwestern Dairyman's association, was in Mankato assisting at the meeting of the board of directors and producing exchange with his counsel and advisers.

Fisher, one of the chaps who caused the riot on Saturday night at Mihoff's saloon, came into court yesterday morning before Judge Porter and stood a trial. It seems that he lives in a house adjoining the saloon, and hearing the row, went inside to see what it was, and took a hand in himself. He first essayed the role of peacemaker and endeavored to separate the two combatants who had the floor when he came in. Bienneffe resisted his pacific interference and intimated that he could clean out Fisher on short notice and there being a difference of opinion upon that subject battle No. two was the result, during which Bienneffe bit the dust and the combined efforts of the crowd were necessary to subdue Fisher who it seems had no friends in the crowd. He was convicted of assault and battery to the value of five dollars and costs and advised to refrain from mingling in some one's else row and as it appeared that his intentions at the onset were good he was let down on payment of costs.

The Glorious Fourth.

The directors of the Mankato Live Stock and Fair association at their meeting on Tuesday night, decided to hang up $500 in purses for the fourth of July races, following: Best three in '76, milo heats, following race, for all, purse $135 to first, $75 to second, $40 to third, $10 to fourth. Gentlemen's roasters, owners as drivers, best three in five, milo heats, purse $100, free for all, running race, half mile dash, best two in three, purse $150.

These liberal offers will no doubt cause an influx of horses from abroad, as there is no limit and but few very fast horses are owned at Mankato. The purses are hung up to insure the advent of good horses, and from assurances already given there will be some exciting sport on our great holiday at Mankato.

The committee are busy at work upon the programme which will be given to the public in a few days. There will be at least three bands of music on hand, Company F, Second Regiment, M. N., and perhaps some other companies, trotting and running races as advertised and a host of other attractions. The grounds will be fenced and judges and grand stands completed and every arrangement made for a glorious good time.

District Court.

The end of the criminal calendar was reached on yesterday forenoon when the rest of the gang of would-be-high-women pleaded guilty. Martin and Joseph Roywa as charged in the indictment and John Karney to simple assault.

At two p. m. the prisoners convicted during the term of court just closed were brought in to receive their sentences.

First upon the list came Patrick Gelfand, who recently went through a house at Lake Crystal while the occupants were at the skating rink; was convicted of burglary, as charged in the indictment, and was sentenced to state prison for four years.

Next upon the list came Joseph Roywa, who was indicted and convicted of an assault with a deadly weapon with intent to do great bodily harm. He was sentenced to Stillwater for four years. John Martin, who was indicted for the same offense, but was upon the conviction of Roywa pleaded guilty, received three years.

George Roywa, younger brother of Joseph, and who was alike indicted, but, like Martin, pleaded guilty, received a sentence of eighteen months at state prison.

John Larney, who pleaded guilty to a simple assault, was sentenced to four months in jail.

Wm. Haggerty, indicted for obtaining goods under false pretense, got two years at Stillwater.

The remarks of Judge Severance to the prisoners as he pronounced sentence upon them were impressive and well calculated to furnish them food for reflection during their term of incarceration. The conviction of the gang of hoodlums who have infested Mankato for so long a time will at last rid the people of their presence, and honest men will breathe easier when it has been behind the Stillwater bars. Every live thriving city has more or less of this same lawless class, and when, as in the present case, they are easily housed and fed, and are ready to join, there are still a few characters at Mankato who would do well to heed the warning conveyed in the conviction of the Roywa gang.

Opera House.

Work upon the interior of the new Opera house is rapidly approaching completion, and as the time draws near when it is to be ready for occupancy, the workmen are redoubling their energies. The fresco work upon the ceiling is nearly done, and a few days more will remove the stagings. Very little carpenter work remains to be done and it is certain that the opening will transpire June 9 as promised.

The following report of the citizens Opera house committee will be read with interest and shows what may be expected:

This is to certify that we have examined the Mankato Opera house, and the progress of the work thereon, and so far we are well satisfied, and find that the owners have done all they promised and are proceeding.

The frescoing is proceeding rapidly and promises to be superb. The whole building will be completed before the 9th of June next, and ready for occupancy.

The owners of the building have contracted with Leonard & Co. for the curtains, drapery and brass ornaments needed to furnish and adorn the building in first-class style, and to be finished by the 20th day of May current.

The owners of the building have contracted in writing with Kane & Co. for 1,000 folding chairs, at a cost of $1,700, to be delivered by the first day of June.

The contracts are all binding upon the parties and are fully executed.

The work done and the work to be done on the building will cost about $10,000.

We hope that the people of Mankato, as far as they feel able, will aid this enterprise, that cannot fail to be of vast benefit to our city.

Dated May 21, 1884.

M. J. SEVERANCE,
H. E. CHRISTENSEN,
GEO. E. BRETT.

Memorial Day.

The preparations for the proper observance of Memorial day have been concluded and its observance will no doubt be more elaborate than any which has ever been seen in southern Minnesota. The exercises will be under the auspices and control of Alexander Welkin Post, G. A. R. and the following officers:

The procession will form at two o'clock Friday afternoon, in two divisions, with head of column of first division resting on Walnut street, corner of Second, forming into procession as follows:

- FIRST DIVISION.
Band.
Floral Wagon.
Grand Army of the Republic.
Company F, Second Regiment, M. N. G.
Hook and Ladder Company.
Excelsior Hose Company.
Superior Hose Company.
Other organizations on foot.

SECOND DIVISION.
Orator.
Choir.
Mayor and Common Council.
Board of Trade.
Public School.
State Normal School.
Citizens in Carriages.
Wm. Frisbie and J. R. Beatty, marshals.

The line of March will be down Walnut to Front, up Front to Cherry, up Cherry to Warren and to Minnesota cemetery where the exercises will be similar to those of last year. During the exercises a detail from the G. A. R. will decorate the graves of all soldiers buried in the cemetery.

The procession will move promptly at 2 p. m., and all organizations must be ready to move at that hour.

A couple of Russians, with a native Russian bear well trained, exhibited upon the streets yesterday and drew quite a crowd.

E. C. Huntington, of the Window Reporter, put in the major part of the day at Mankato and went down to St. Paul in the evening with the rest of the Democrats.

Commencement Exercises at the Normal.

Long before two o'clock yesterday afternoon the Normal hall was filled to its utmost seating capacity by persons anxious to witness the commencement exercises of the Normal school. The hall was most fully decorated with flowers and drawings and presented a gorgeous appearance.

On the wall over the rostrum was the class motto at the left in Latin, "Patriam Qui Meruit Ferat," and at the right in English "To be rather than to seem."

The graduating class is one of the best drilled and best educated class ever sent forth from the school with diplomas. The following are the members of the graduating class:

ADVANCED COURSE.
Inez M. Chase, Etta M. H. McBride,
Elizabeth Clark, Martha J. McBroome,
Ada L. Johnson, Abbie F. Webster,
Chloira E. Cooper, Minnie L. Smith.

ELEMENTARY COURSE.
Mary E. Candee, Thomas J. Jones,
S. Emma Hill, Anna L. Parry.

The exercises opened at 2:25 p. m. On the platform were present, President Scamling, President Bascom of the University of Wisconsin, Rev. Mr. Edwards, ex-president of Gage, Hon. Sanford Niles of Rochester, a member of the state board of regents, Director Barr of this city, Senator Fletcher, Prof. Gomie Govill of the Mankato schools, and other public men, the faculty, graduating class and the choir.

The opening was the prayer by Rev. Mr. Edwards of the M. E. church of this city. Following the prayer was the salutatory delivered by Miss Minnie L. Smith. The salutatory was well prepared, well committed, and the audience conceded it excellent. She greeted all and ended by saying that it was earnestly hoped that the interest the audience had in the class of '84 would not cease when the exercises on the program were completed.

An essay entitled "The Student of To-day," was read by Miss Cooper and was well applauded. Miss Cooper pointed out the relative advantages the student of the present time had as compared with those at the command of the scholar some years back. The student a century ago had necessarily much work to perform in order to make headway, while the one of to-day had comparatively little.

An anthem was then rendered by the choir. Miss Webster's essay entitled "Little Beginnings," was full of good common sense. The teacher could, if she would, do great good in stopping little beginnings.

Mr. Thomas Jones delivered a well-prepared oration entitled "The Indian in the United States." Mr. Jones stated that in the United States the Indian had not been treated as he should. He showed the difference between the mode of dealing with the Indian in United States and Canada. In this country he was considered as a person, and if he committed any crime the tribe he held accountable for it. In the latter country if a crime has been committed the individual is the one held accountable. The mode of dealing with the Indians must be changed, the Indian civilized and put on an equality with the white man if he deserves.

Miss Nellie Lewis rendered an instrumental solo which was well received. Miss McBroom followed in a well-prepared essay on the subject "Why?" The reading of the different spirits in which this interrogation is asked.

Philosophers gained their reputation, not by finding the real fact, but by their finding the "why" for the different phenomena. Miss Minnie Smith's entitled "Drawing in Public Schools," was illustrated by drawings made by herself. The essay was interesting and the relative value of drawing and other studies in the school was well pointed out.

A drawing of the most important of all studies. It is needed by everyone and is much more desirable in practical life than many of the studies on the calendar of colleges and schools. The illustrations used by Miss Smith were made by herself, and the original designs were beautiful and had been taken for oil paintings instead of crayon paintings. Miss Lizzie Clark most admirably recited a selection and won the undivided attention of the audience.

A drawing by Snow and Gleason followed, which was most wondrously rendered and was well applauded. One of the most interesting of the essays was that of Miss Meg Chase, entitled "St. Branden's Isle."

Miss Chase delivered it in a clear voice and was heard in every part of the hall. The oration by Miss McBride on "The Value of X," was excellent, and elicited hearty applause. Life's significance was represented as "X," and a person had it in his power to make the value equal to infinity or equal to zero.

Miss Hutchison rendered a solo at the request of the graduating class, and was greeted with the usual applause that meets her singing.

The essay by Miss Johnson, "Eye's Daughters" was good, and took the stars that woman is of some account in this world. The work of noble women was recalled. With the essay was the valedictory address, and that was one of, if not the first, address of that kind ever delivered in Mankato.

The diplomas were then conferred by Prof. Scamling, and a few remarks were made to the graduating class by Dr. Bascom, of Madison, Wis.

CLASS SONG.
The time draws near, my classmates,
When loving friends must part;
Sorrow and hope commingled
Fill every earnest heart.
Bright dreams have been before us,
Which we have had to part with;
Kind teachers helped us upward,
Till now the goal seems won.

Is the goal won, my classmates,
Are all our labors done,
Ah, no, toils are not over,
Our life-work's just begun.
Some fate for each is waiting,
Some joy—perhaps, some woe;
The paths of life are hidden,
Our way we little know.

The time draws near, classmates,
Alas, why is it so?
And why do I see thee dearer,
When it is time to go?
"Farewell" must now be spoken;
But we shall meet more,
Where time may not be reckoned,
On that Eternal Shore!

The above class song, a production of the pen of Miss Minnie Smith, was then sung by the graduating class, and President Scamling told of the marvelous growth of the school in the last four years. In 1880 there was an attendance of about 170, now of over 500, but the growth of the school must stop unless we have advantages to accommodate more students. The school is now taxed to its utmost capacity and the building is insufficient to accommodate more. Every room is full, and the hall and more room must be had if the growth is to continue. Then followed the benediction. All join in saying that the exercises were the most interesting ever held in the hall.

Dairy Exchange.

The regular weekly meeting of the Mankato dairy and produce exchange took place yesterday at the cold storage warehouse of W. B. Strickland, Co., and was well attended by sellers but there was a dearth of buyers. Some 12,000 lbs. of butter was offered but only about 800 pounds were sold and at prices ranging from eighteen to twenty cents. The quality of that which was offered was much superior to former sale days, and speaks well for the operations of the exchange. Wednesday, June 4, will be the next sale day, and hopes are entertained that a much larger force of buyers will be present.

Alumni Reunion.

The sixteenth annual reunion meeting of the Alumni association of the Second state Normal school was held at the Normal hall last evening. A large number of ex-graduates and former students were present and an enjoyable time was had. The lecture by Prof. Gage, first president of the Normal school, was the principal feature of the evening. Prof. Gage spoke of the organization of the school here and the many difficulties it had to contend with. He spoke of the advancement made since the organization of the school here and the general feeling in favor of the Normal schools. Hon. Sanford Niles, Rochester, was introduced and spoke eloquently and well of the Normal schools. They were noble work in the interest of teachers for the schools of the state. A vocal solo was rendered by Miss Sparrow and an instrumental duet by Miss Adele and Dell Lewis.

The election of officers of the alumni re-union was as follows: President, Mrs. J. T. Barry; vice president, Mrs. J. B. Bachler; secretary, Mrs. Bierwiler; treasurer, Mrs. G. M. Palmer.

Mother Hubbard Skating.

An enjoyable time was held at the roller rink last night, the occasion being a Mother Hubbard calico masquerade given under the auspices of a committee of young gentlemen of this city. Everybody wore Mother Hubbards, the boys and all, and a pleasant time was had. The affair was laughable and everybody was pleased.

STILLWATER.

The steamer David Bronson arrived at 1 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Matt Clark went yesterday afternoon to St. Paul on business and returned by the evening train.

The Cover-Grindstone drive arrived in the boom last night. It is said to have been the first clear drive that has come in this season.

Mr. Isaac Staples has sold to Mr. W. G. Bronson his stock in the Elevator company. Mr. Bronson was elected a director in Mr. Staples' place.

The Marsh-O'Brien embroglio was pretty well ventilated in last evening's Sun. The whole affair is now over, and it is best to let the old proverb, "Let sleeping dogs lie."

To-morrow being Decoration Day there will be no school in any of the departments, it being a public holiday. The beautiful new flag belonging to the south public school will be unfurled from the flagstaff surmounting the cupola.

One of our estimable but rather bold citizens was very much excited yesterday afternoon about having a prominent St. Paul real estate man brought before the grand jury, who are now in session, upon a charge of forgery. There seems to have been more wind than anything else.

Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock the funeral of Mrs. Samuel Chapman, sister of City Clerk Hawkins, took place, and was very largely attended. The services were conducted at her late residence by the Rev. Mr. Spafford. Mrs. Chapman was a most estimable lady, and will be much missed in the city.

The following delegates to the Democratic convention go to St. Paul to-day: Matt Clark, chairman; Geo. M. Brush, J. C. O'Gorman, Matt Shortall, Martin Mower, Wm. Starck. They were instructed to use their influence to secure for Hon. E. W. Durant the position as one of the delegates from the state to the national convention at Chicago.

Thomas W. Keene, the celebrated tragedian will appear at the Grand Opera house on o-morrow night, taking the part of "Shylock," in Shakespeare's masterpiece, "The Merchant of Venice." Keene has a world wide reputation, as being one of the best in tragedy on this or any other stage. He delights audiences wherever he goes, and the notice he has received is generally posted in the cities he visits. There is no doubt the citizens of Stillwater will give Mr. Keene and his excellent support a bumper house.

The streets of the city looked kind of quiet yesterday, and there was somehow a flurry of expectancy all day. This was, no doubt, caused by so many of our prominent citizens being in Minneapolis attending the Republican convention. There were many enquiries in the city as to how matters were going, and when the word came at last that State Senator J. B. Gillilan was the nominee it appeared as if bedlam was let loose. But it is better to draw a veil over the occurrences of the evening. The Fletcher men cannot get reconciled to the inevitable, while the Scheffer men take it good humoredly.

About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon a wandering minstrel with hurdyurdy and jacketed monkey was grinding out music to the delight of a number of children opposite the court house, when Surveyor General Proctor came along, gave him a handsome remuneration, and asked him to go down to the school yard and delight the pupils of the school who were out during recess. This was a means of affording pleasure to the children not often practiced, and such acts, far too seldom, are indulged in. He took the wheels of society. Mr. Proctor may be assured that his little friends will never forget the treat given them, and they will greet with acclamation his re-election as school commissioner.

District Court—General Term.

The court opened to-day at 10 o'clock, Judge McCluer presiding. The following cases were brought before him and disposed of as noted:

John Morrison vs. Peter Jordan and Samuel Matthews, co-partners as Jordan & Matthews, partners of Joseph Olson & Co. Thos. Licky appeared for the plaintiff and Fayette Lacey for the defendant. Case dismissed by consent without costs.

Ingrat Stina Hagman, administrator, etc., vs. N. John Nilson. Ordered placed on the calendar and dismissed by consent.

Sarah Biley, plaintiff, vs. M. A. Sargent, defendant. Union and St. Paul, railroad way and transfer company. Ordered placed on the calendar. Garnishee.

Norton Page, plaintiff, vs. same defendant as above. Ordered placed on the calendar. Garnishee.

The grand jury presented the following true bills: August Stamborg, larceny from a dwelling house; August Johnson, larceny from a dwelling house; N. John Nilson, for being armed with a dangerous weapon and assisting another.

Very little business was done, as many of the attorneys were at Minneapolis attending the state Republican convention. To-day, also, there will be several cases put off on account of politics intertainingly.

Thanks to Arthur.

TRENTON, N. J., May 28.—The Catholic Abstinence union, of New Jersey, Bishop Wigger presiding, adopted resolutions, thanking President Arthur and Secretary of State Frelinghuysen for aiding in preventing the sale of the American college at Rome.

Maine for Blaine.

PORTLAND, Me., May 28.—Thos. B. Reed was renominated for congress by the Republicans of the First district. A resolution was adopted endorsing the platform of the state March for Blaine, and Reed pronouncing in favor of Blaine for the presidency.

THE FRAUD FAILURES.

The Pennsylvania Bank's Missing Funds Charged to Fictitious Persons.

Brown, of the Hot Springs Bank, Arrested With the Partner of His Flight.

Another of Grant & Ward's Crooked Transactions Brought into Court.

THE PENNSYLVANIA BANK.

PITTSBURGH, May 28.—In the extremely muddled condition that the Pennsylvania bank affairs in the absence of President Riddle, the only person who holds the key to the secrets of the bank, and the reticence of the directors and others concerned, no definite conclusion can be reached, but it is now taken for granted, that the depositors are fortunate if they get 5 percent of the amounts entrusted. This much is definitely known, the concern is completely gutted, and the assets are diminishing rapidly and liabilities swelling even more rapidly. Those who had a call on the resources drew with unsparing hand, and little is left to tell the tale. The books shed very little light on the identity of those who despoiled the institution, as the accounts are in fictitious names. Capitalists, like Wm. Vanderbilt make a masquerade on the ledgers, for those getting aid in some unknown way of the depositor's money. The shortage grows hourly as the intricacies of the book accounts are unraveled, and from $350,000 overdrawn it has grown to to $1,000,000 to-day, and the end is not yet. So clean a sweep has rarely been made in Pittsburgh. The liabilities are believed to reach over $2,000,000. It is said the bank methods date back ten years to the time of the Cherry Grove oil excitement, since then the bank has been losing steadily. Prominent business men who are acquainted with the affairs of the bank say, if it had closed its doors on March 1st, there is a doubt if the depositors would have realized 10 percent.

Last night after business hours W. N. Riddle, by his attorney, filed a confession of judgment in favor of the directors of the bank for $90,750. Judgment was entered and the execution of attachment was put in the hands of sheriff with instructions to levy upon a long list of persons, corporations and institutions as garnishees. The Pennsylvania bank charter was purchased from a defunct institution and was very liberal. It provided that the stockholder or officer shall be assessed or liable for the purpose whatever for any greater sum than the face of the stock held by such stockholder or officer.

The deficiency still grows, and this evening it reached $1,300,000. Heavy defaulters are now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much better to-night, and he probably is strong enough to come to the city to-morrow. The Pennsylvania mutual protective association was organized a few years ago, with Hon. Jas. H. Hopkins, president, W. N. Riddle, treasurer, and H. D. Sellers, secretary. The object was the insurance of the lives of its members, and is now believed to have been primarily designed to bring grip to the Pennsylvania bank mill, in the shape of the collection of assessments from its members. The securities were all claimed, will reach nearly a million. The directors have been in session all day, and have decided to have a thorough investigation and a full statement furnished the public. If a wrong has been done by anyone, they are ready to pay the penalty. Many of those who made deposits on Friday threaten the bank officials with criminal proceedings for false pretenses in obtaining money. Cashier Brown is now under surveillance. President Riddle is much