

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

The internal revenue receipts yesterday were $793. The Knights of St. Paul will drill in the cathedral yard this evening. Wm. Burelligh and Geo. B. Sutton, a couple of alleged billiard sharps, arrived in St. Paul yesterday. Frank Hillman was arrested by officer Cooke yesterday afternoon for raising a row at the union depot. A lad named A. Blandry was arrested by Officer Bosner yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing a ring from one of the domestics at the European hotel. A transcript of a municipal court judgment in the sum of $138.60 was filed in the district court yesterday by Alleberg & Conant against Elizabeth Neary. Remember that the subscribers' sale of season seats to the state musical festival begins at Dyer & Howard's to-morrow morning. The best part of the coliseum is set apart for St. Paul subscribers to the musical festival, and season seats can be reserved to-morrow morning at Dyer & Howard's. If you wish to make sure of getting good seats to the state musical festival you must subscribe for them at Dyer & Howard's to-day and reserve them to-morrow morning. Elmira Cressy, a frequenter of the city hall for drunkenness for the past twenty years, again put in her appearance at that institution last evening thoroughly pickled. The Germania National bank are having their new quarters fitted up in Old Fellows' block, corner of Fifth and Wabash streets and will open business therein Monday June 2. Odilon Beaudy, whose surname is romantic enough for a Beaudie time novel, was placed in the cooler last night for a charge of larceny, having stolen several rings from the girls at the European hotel. There were only six arrests for jumping on and off the cars at the Third street crossing yesterday, John Kolander and P. K. Fuller, one fetching up the rear after the falling of the mantle of the night. The old settlers of Minnesota hold their annual meeting at the State Historical society's rooms next Monday at noon, and banquet at the Merchants at 3 o'clock on the afternoon of the same day. We understand that the subscribers' sale of seats to the great musical festival amounts to nearly $10,000. The sale to subscribers begins at Dyer & Howard's in St. Paul and unaccepts to-morrow morning. There will be a meeting of the W. C. T. U. this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Y. M. C. A. parlors on Wabash street. There have been a number of new members added recently, and an interesting meeting is expected. Pound Driver Cuniff made a rich haul from twenty to forty head of young stock last evening, who were complained of as having taken quarters for the night in front of the premises of Dr. Geo. O. Larson, on the corner of Grand avenue and Lawton street. Ald. John Dowlan was yesterday the recipient of a handsome statuette of the famous orator Daniel O'Connell, the gift of Mr. P. McDonald of this city. An extra charm attaches to the present from the fact that it is from the chisel of Mr. McDonald himself. The beautiful breathing spot, Rice park, presented a gala appearance last evening, it being the first of the series of open air concerts by the First Regiment band. The attendance was quite large in spite of the chilly weather and the fine numbers on the programme were richly enjoyed. Some one started an idle rumor on the street early last evening that a West St. Paul saloon keeper had cut his throat. The police on learning of the report immediately telephoned over the water for participants and received the reply "that no saloon keeper had attempted suicide there," which the informant "was very sorry to say." While at work on the Drake building yesterday morning, Frank Jany, a laborer, was severely injured by the falling of a derrick. He was engaged in hoisting material when the beam gave way and fell on him crushing his ribs and injuring his spinal column. He was attended by Dr. Murphy and Quinn, and taken to St. Joseph's hospital in the patrol wagon. The case is a most unfortunate one as Jany lost his wife only a few weeks ago and he has six small children depending on him for support. Dr. William A. Soula, D. V. S., the distinguished Veterinary Surgeon, New York, certified to the curative qualities of St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-cure for sprains, galls, rheumatism, and all other affections to which horses are subject. PERSONALS. Bishop Ireland is visiting in the northern part of the state. Mr. M. Mallon, president of the Citizens' bank of New Ulm, is a delegate to the convention, and an out-and-out advocate for "the old ticket." He is at the Merchants. James Starkey, of St. Paul, was chosen one of the delegates at-large to the Greenback national convention, at Indianapolis, which convenes there, but could not attend on account of pressing business engagements. Mr. James S. Field, for some years the proprietor of the Metropolitan hotel news stand, and now connected with the post trader ship store at Fort Totten, arrived in the city yesterday. He will take in the Chicago convention. Mr. Frank L. Randall, attorney-at-law, New Ulm, is a delegate to the Democratic convention, and is booked at the Clarendon. Mr. Randall is of the younger class of professional men, but he is rated very high by his older brethren of the bar. Mrs. H. J. Bein, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, has been engaged as housekeeper of the Lake Park hotel, Lake Minnetonka. Mrs. Bein possesses a splendid record as a successful hotel keeper, and she is regarded as a valuable acquisition to the force of the Lake Park hotel. Mr. John R. Hagne, who has resided for eight years in Dakota, and who has a post-office named for him in the center of the grain wheat farm of the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, and of the young men who have occasion to use the rooms for recreation of one kind or another to procure situations. The merchants of St. Paul are determined to place the association on the best possible footing for usefulness, and the gentlemen of the association have an admirable administrator and the young men a most valuable friend in Mr. Hagne. AT CHICAGO YESTERDAY. [Special Telegrams to the Globe.] Fred S. Swisher, northwestern agent of the River line, with headquarters at St. Paul, is at the Tremont. A. W. Bell, train master of the Northern Pacific, accompanied by his wife, is at the Tremont. C. Pettibone, of the Minnesota Lumber company, and C. S. Randall, of Winona, are registered at the Tremont. At the Sherman: A. L. Leopold, St. Paul; A. Gooding, Rochester, and W. M. Fatten, Fargo. At the Palmer: John McDonald, St. Paul; P. E. Lockwood, E. R. Barber and C. B. Stone, Minneapolis; W. L. Breckenridge, Rochester. G. O. Borup, the St. Paul fast freight agent, and C. D. Parker, northwestern agent of the Traders' Dispatch Fast Freight line, are at the Grand Pacific, attending the freight meetings. Northwesterners at the Grand Pacific: W. F. Wilson, Thos G. Mathews, and Miss Cory, all of St. Paul; L. G. Johnson, Ordway, and W. E. Bliss, Butte City. The Malpractice Trial. The hearing of the Dorman vs. Routh suit for $25,000 damages for malpractice finished its second day yesterday, and will probably consume the balance of the week, as it is being very ably and thoroughly prosecuted as well as defended. Both the Drs. Routh were on the witness stand yesterday and were followed by the expert surgical testimony of Drs. Stone, Briggs, Burnam and Horst, of St. Paul, and a physician from Minneapolis. Bremer's Sample Room. The many friends of Mr. Wm. F. Bremer, for many years an honored and efficient member of the police force, will be pleased to learn that he has become established in business for himself, having opened a neat sample room in the new brick building, corner of Rice and Iglehart streets. Ex-Officer Bremer for some months past has been in the wholesale liquor house conducted by ex-Sheriff Richter, and he has therefore acquired a good understanding of the business. His intentions to conduct his resort in a first class manner, and his friends and the public may rest assured that he will dispense nothing but the purest wines and liquors, while he will keep on hand a full stock of choice cigars. He will give a grand opening next Monday night, to which all of his friends are extended a cordial invitation. Decoration Day Gleanings. The veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic posts will assemble on Court House square to-morrow morning at 6 o'clock sharp, and from thence proceed to the several cemeteries to decorate the soldiers' graves, which will be preceded by the beating of the morning reveille. The decoration day procession will form on Court square at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The following detachment of the city police, under command of Sergeants Morgan and Walsh, will appear in the procession: Officers Bonner, Vagette, McMahon, Gebhardt, Zimm, Pendey, Werick, McBride, Fitzgerald, O'Brien, Galvin, Schorn, Carey, Ashe, Switzer, Cummings, Ives, Getchell, McGee, Sexton, Shetty, Call, Hart, Gibbons, Kupfer, Ruziska, Daley, Babe, Zirkelbach, Sullivan, Brosseau, Merriam, Larson, Potgeiser, Rose, Budey, Duford, McPetridge, Matak, Sloatz, Wright, Cook, Murphy, Baer, Hanit, Gibbons, Drainan and Palmer. Great Reduction in the Price of Fuel. The Northwestern Fuel company have reduced the price of coal, and are now offering best quality of Scranton coal for present delivery and cash as follows: "Great" at $8.50, delivered. Store and Nut at $8.75, delivered. And all grades of Bituminous Coal at proportionally low prices. Gribble Victorious in the Higher Court. The case of Edwin Gribble, respondent, vs. The Pioneer Press company, appellant, was argued and submitted in the supreme court yesterday, after which the court took the appeal and arguments into consideration and an order was entered sustaining the decision of the jury in the lower court giving Gribble a verdict of $1,000 for libelous articles published in the Pioneer Press. Everybody Knows It. When you have Rch, Sst Rheum, Galls, or Skin eruptions of any kind, and the Piles, the you know without being told of it, A. P. Wilkes & E. Zimmerman and E. Stierle, the druggists will sell you Dr. Bosanko's Pile remedy for fifty cents, which affords immediate relief. A sure cure. LOCAL MENTION. Besley's Waukegan ale and porter, at 106 West Third street, H. Orleansman, agent. St. Paul Choral Society. There will be a mass rehearsal of "The Messiah" at Market hall, with full orchestra accompaniment, on Wednesday evening, the 28th inst., commencing promptly at 8 o'clock. Every member who intends to participate in its public performance is expected to be present. E. F. BRIGHAM, Sec'y. Anheuser Busch Export beer, at 106 West Third street, H. Orleansman, agent. WANT OF FAITH. If A. P. Wilkes, B. & E. Zimmerman, and E. Stierle, the druggists, do not succeed it is not for the want of faith. They have such faith in Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup as a remedy for coughs, colds, consumption, and lung affections, that they will give a bottle free to each and every one who is in need of a medicine of this kind. DIED. HORNELL—At his residence in the Sixth ward, at 615 p. m., May 27th, of pneumonia, George Hornell, aged 69 years.
