

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBES.

A lost boy, eighteen months of age, is wanted at No. 77 Isabel street, West St. Paul.

The state library was in receipt yesterday of Vol. 14 of English and American Railway Cases.

A Minneapolis citizen became thoroughly lost in St. Paul last evening, and inquired at the police station which way to go to get a train home to that village.

John H. Steele, on certificates from the supreme court of Illinois, and on motion of O. M. McCall, Esq., was admitted to practice in the courts of Minnesota in Judge Simon's session of the district court.

John Farrell, Geo. Ada, Wm. P. Worthington and John Casey were a set of suspicious characters locked up at the city hall yesterday afternoon on suspicion of larceny, and John Schrom for fighting on the public streets.

It is hinted that in the matter of paving, owing to improvements contemplated in its material by city authorities, that this year is about as economical one that property owners on unpaved main thoroughfares will have for getting down this improvement.

Livingston Bros., the late proprietors of the Livingston Hotel, are New Yorkers.

Ole Olson, while driving on Cortland avenue, near Summit, with his wife and child, on Monday, was assaulted by a mob of hoodlums, who tried to pull them from the vehicle, and falling to do so, pelted them with hats and sticks.

Benny A. Mander, tried before United States Commissioner W. K. Gould for unlawfully cutting 445 Norway pine trees of the value of seventy-five cents each in township 139, range 24, and disposing of the same.

The Minnesota Boat Club have decided to postpone the coming fall which they proposed giving on the evening of July 10 to Thursday evening, July 21st, owing to the difficulty they have encountered in perfecting arrangements.

A leading paper says: St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-destroyer, is highly recommended for frost bite.

W. B. Moon, of Florida, is in St. Paul. F. Seibach, of Red Wing, is in St. Paul. C. E. Smith, of Brainerd, is in St. Paul.

George Whitney, of Hastings, is at the Metropolitan. D. P. Scoble, of St. Cloud, placed his name on the Merchants register yesterday.

Miss Martha Cline, of Farmington, is visiting Mrs. C. H. Slocum, of this city.

W. P. Sargent, of Albert Lea, is in St. Paul with headquarters at the Merchants.

Charles H. Decker, of Austin, placed his autograph on the Merchants register yesterday.

Mrs. T. I. Lloyd and daughter and Mrs. Kline, of Fort Assiniboine, Mont., are at the Merchants.

Arthur Mason and family, of Iron Mountain, Wis., have been visiting relatives in St. Paul for several weeks.

Mr. August Oppenheimer, the gentleman who is to be the successor to the business of Joseph Oppenheimer, has arrived in St. Paul.

J. M. Thomas, of Columbus, Ohio; J. W. Herrman and William A. Brayton, of Chicago; Thomas A. Baseton, of Omaha, and Geo. T. Walker, of Nebraska, are at the Windsor.

H. A. Scherer, of Milwaukee; N. C. Knight and E. C. Knight, of St. Louis; E. S. Albro and wife and M. E. Sanford, of Chicago; J. A. Bowman, of New York; W. W. Linn, of Decatur, Ill., are at the Metropolitan.

Mr. W. L. Gorsuch, the representative of the Chicago Horseman, is in St. Paul on business connected with that paper.

The party of distinguished legal gentlemen will leave St. Paul for a trip to the Yellowstone Park and the Pacific coast.

It will consist of Judge Mitchell, of Winona; Judge Greenleaf Clark, of St. Paul; Hon. Gordon E. Cole and daughter, of Fairbault; Judge Wilson, of Winona; Judge Miller, of the U. S. circuit court, with his family; the party will be gone not less than one month, and probably longer.

The party are not decided as to whether they will return by the Northern Pacific or by some other route.

Acker Post. Acker Post meets this evening to make arrangements for its encampment at the Grand Army annual national gathering at Minneapolis on Monday.

A Hard Case. About ten o'clock last evening a gentleman named McKeehan, while walking along a busy corner, was approached by an impudent little fellow, who at the city hall afterwards gave his name as Charles Chester which, of course, was fictitious, and was asked by him for money.

From the Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph. "Abella, you do not doubt my love?" "No, Alphonso, why should I?" "Listen, then; I have taken a solemn vow and you must aid me in its fulfillment."

"I have solemnly sworn to eat no ice cream this season, Abella."

"Ah, Alphonso, you shall not find me lacking courage. I will aid you to keep your vow. I will eat it for both of us."

AN IMPECCABLE TOUT.

The City's Workhouse at Como Filled to Overflowing.

Bad Air and Strange Insects—A Medley of Accusations.

Tramptown and Vagrantville—A Dairy Product Trouble.

The fun of cutting up a prank in the streets of St. Paul after the poultry has gone to roost and the suburban dogs have commenced their nocturnal serenades is thoroughly being brought out as far as the romance of being brought up in the morning to answer for such peccadilloes to his honor before crackers and coffee.

Yesterday morning as the Globe representative was passing Taylor & Craig's saloon, the court clerk Fairchild brought his first down upon the California mahogany of his desk and made the echoes ring with the stentorian exclamation: "In all my experience in this court this month caps all periods for the ragged, shiftless, squalid, moneyless, ill-visaged, ill-begotten crowd that has poured in these doors for a hearing."

The month has seen many cases for only sixty sinners, and during the past two weeks up to Tuesday we have swollen its registry to eighty-four, and to-day send them a cargo of ten more.

When and where this state of things is going to head up the devil only knows.

All this while officer Cloose, armed with a starch box full of bug powder, was running the tube over the slayer over the lamp matting to the city manager's office.

Forgetting the manager of creeping things which had fallen from the garments of the tramps, and sprinkling camphor gum in spots to sweeten the atmosphere soured by the fetid breaths of the day's squad of impetuous visitants.

Ed Powers, the juvenile trunk viewer, was let off from a term at the reform school on a guarantee that he would go out of the business.

Taylor & Craig paid $2500 for obstructing the king's highway, (these monarchs being the highway), having cleaned up their litter; N. Blair paid a ten spot for his Sunday dash on the turpikes with his best girl and a much abused span of livery horses who couldn't strike back; R. Provier was returned to his solitary cell in jail to see if any of his larceny would tumble up against him by Saturday, while the case of J. Redding for larceny was dismissed because the weary cop on the night beat who arrested him failed to leave his couch to appear with his charges.

F. Johnson, accused in on the telling count of being a drunken vagabond, was hoisted into workhouse bondage for thirty days; John Doherty, a seedy drunk with frozled hair, caught on to five days in the same institution, while C. Fromm, from nobody knows where, a dead broke tramp armed with a second-hand revolver, was given a similar ticket.

A complete satisfaction stole over the face of the court when J. Jubel, a Fort Snelling colored veteran, pointed up a $5 bill for having gone to intimate with old Bourbon, but it floated away like an exposed photograph when M. Arson, for the same offense, couldn't find a nickel in his old vest, and was ordered to spend a week at the county work house.

The delegation from Tramptown and Vagrantville were ordered to stand up in a row, and would have scared a hedgehog into an apopleptic fit had they met him a road away from his hole. S. B. Sherborn, detected in trying to unlock a dwelling house without a night key, was sent up for thirty days.

J. Thompson, A. Scherwin and F. Miller took a similar trip for ten days each.

C. Walton, a wild Sioux from Dakota avenue, was given a job for twenty days at the workhouse for disorderly conduct, he having become a chronic fighter and growler and being as touchy on apartment rights as a Mauch Chunk coal miner.

The case of F. Scherwin, who, after letting B. Baker see the amount of lard and lard, sweet, sour or butter-mixed he was handling, and how the hens of Ramsey county also matched up to the cows to make a night key, was sent up for thirty days.

The Bay City and St. Paul clubs play this at tenon at 4, at Seventh Street Park.

Notice. Prices on all grades of Anthracite Coal reduced 50c per ton. We are now selling egg and grate at $8, and stove and nut at $8.25, for cash and July delivery.

Notice. Exactly how this money out of politics is a puzzle. Blaine made his money out of politics is a puzzle.

Tainted.

Chemists of the nation charge the Royal Baking Powder Company with the use of the powerful drug AMMONIA in their Powder; that no article of food should be tainted by this unsafe drug; that it is unfit for appearance in any human diet; that its long continued use in any form will derange the blood; that it is only found in the natural food and drink of man as an accidental impurity.

That NATURE ABHORS and expels it as an excrement. That in a Baking Powder it has not even the virtue of necessity.

If the charge is unjust, would it not be an act of justice to themselves, as well as a polite concession to a deeply interested public sentiment, to answer the charge? To answer immediately? To answer honestly? Oily evasion won't do. Oily dignity, oily plausibility, oily non-committal won't do. Ridicule won't do. Come forward in a manly way and give the public evidence that justifies its use.

5 per cent. of Ammonia.

"I find PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER A WHOLESOME AND STRONG combination of PURE MATERIALS, entirely free from AMMONIA, which is contained in almost all other Baking Powders, including the 'Royal' in which I HAVE FOUND AS HIGH AS FIVE PER CENT. of this unnecessary substance."

Prof. CHARLES E. DWIGHT, Chemist, Laboratory Wheeling, W. Va. June 14th, 1884.

PROTECTION.

Every housewife can try the "Royal," or any brand of Baking Powder, by placing the can, top down, on a hot stove till heated. Remove the cover, and if there, she will smell AMMONIA. After which she can change it for Price's Cream that has nothing base in it.

Excursion.

A rich lady applied to a lawyer to enter suit for divorce; and after hearing her story he said: "My dear madam, I'm sorry to say it, but I don't think you can get a divorce on your plea."

"Why not?" gasped the woman. "Because you haven't grounds enough to support the case."

"Of course I haven't," she smiled; "I haven't any grounds at all; my husband owns all of it, and that's the very reason I want a divorce—to get a big share of it."

Pere Bernard, who has been chosen Superior General of the Capuchins, is sixty years old, and was the favorite candidate of foreigners, especially Frenchmen. One hundred and forty representatives of the Order came from all parts of the world, to vote at the first election of a chief in thirty-two years.

A well-known caterer emphasizes this fact: that good salad cannot be made with cold-boiled potatoes. He says that they must be cut up while the potatoes are hot, and that the parsley and onion, pepper and salt should be put in with them at that time.
