

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

The city treasurer disbursed $45,000 yesterday in payment of street contractors. A little girl and one-half year old was lost from 806 Charles street last evening. The Rice park concert by Selbert's band last night was well attended, the programme being very fine. The Hennepin county treasurer made the June settlement of that county by paying Treasurer Kittleson the sum of $73,938.13, yesterday. Adjutant General MacCarthy opened a registry book at his rooms at the State Capitol yesterday, to register all the names of Minnesota soldiers with their postoffice addresses.

Guglielmo Petrelli, an Italian, employed at the ice cream factory of Ramicicco on Wabasha street, had his right hand caught in a freezer yesterday and a couple of his fingers were amputated. The plot commission met yesterday and approved the plans of Richard McCormick's subdivision, block 88, L. Dayton's addition to St. Paul. Also the plot of Lake View and Joy's addition in the south line of the city Sixth ward.

In the Prescott trespass case against the city, the plaintiff's rested his case on Friday afternoon, and the defense, after the testimony of Gates A. Johnson and Wm. P. Murray was heard, had the trial adjourned over until Monday.

In the special term of the district court yesterday, in response to a petition for a receiver for the wholesale fruit firm of James W. Smith & Co., Judge Brill appointed D. H. Moon, of the firm of Allen, Moon & Co., as such, he giving $50,000 bonds.

At a late hour Friday night, John Ellis, residing on Exchange street, while proceeding some was approached by two men who asked him the hour of the night. He produced his watch when the rascals grabbed it and ran away. Up to last night they had not been apprehended.

Rev. Father Genis, for some time pastor at Graceville, Minn., has been transferred to the charge of the French church, St. Louis' in this city. Before he left Graceville, where he was greatly admired and beloved, his congregation presented him with a purse of $112.

Charles Deforest, a young one-armed man, became boisterous while trying to get free lodging at the Windsor hotel late last evening and was arrested by Chief Clark. The chap is suspected of being a hotel and boarding house pilferer, and made considerable resistance to arrest.

Postoffice Inspector H. W. Hall arrived in St. Paul yesterday from Washington, his visit to this city being for the purpose investigating the free delivery branch of the postal service. The question of adding more carriers to the service in St. Paul is being canvassed, and it is confidently hoped that the increase will be made at once.

Minnie Peterson, a young girl sixteen years of age, was examined for insanity before the probate court yesterday, and discharged. She is a granddaughter of the late Mrs. E. C. P. Holmes, and one of her heirs, and is living with her father, on Monday next, to take place on the ground, at 2 o'clock p. m., on the ground, by P. T. Kavanagh, auctioneer.

The Mayo and Clark Estate. In the matter of the receivership of Charles E. Mayo and Charles H. Clark, as Mayo & Clark, Judge Simons ordered yesterday that the firm transfer all its real and personal property to Channing Seabury, the receiver, in order to facilitate settlement with the creditors.

Among the arrivals at the Tremont from the northwest are E. B. Patten, Minneapolis; A. H. Davis, La Crosse; W. D. Eaton, Dunstable; D. T. Mesdames E. J. Nason, C. Daniels and C. Jameson and Miss E. Jameson, St. Paul.

tion on Thursday evening, July 17. This rapid transit telegraphic dispatch was left by messenger at the Merchants' hotel, where Gov. Hubbard goes when business requires him to remain longer than half a day in the city, his family being at Red Wing, and it was not until Prof. Kiehl's return on Friday that he knew of this invitation, the dispatch being found at the hotel above named. Of course there are quite a number of persons who are somewhat out of patience with this carelessness of telegraph delivery, the recovery of this message being much contingent upon the government business being long to stop over night in the city, which did not happen last week.

Don't You Do It. Don't suffer any longer with the pains and aches of Rheumatism, which makes life a burden to you. Relief, speedy and permanent can be procured at the nearest drug store, in the form of Kidney-Wort. Elibridge Malcom of West Bath, Maine, says: "I was completely prostrated with Rheumatism and Kidney troubles and was not expected to recover. The first dose of Kidney-Wort helped me. Six doses put me on my feet. It has now entirely cured me and I have had no trouble since."

Pronounced an Able Document. New York, July 19.—At the headquarters of the Republican national committee to-day Ely's letter of acceptance was regarded as a very able document, secretary Teller, senator B. Dick, of Medville, Pa., Gen. James K. Wilson, W. E. Sims, of Virginia, and W. D. Heim, of Washington, were among his callers.

Block 22. Stinson, Brown & Ramsey's addition, situated in the western part of the city, within six blocks of the Omaha shops, three blocks north of Seventh street, or the present terminus of the Street railroad, within one block of Pleasant avenue, now being graded; one block from Jefferson avenue, now covered and will soon be graded, which opens up a new settlement as it were in the very high center of one of our most progressive districts. The block in question stands very high compared with the general level of land in that neighborhood, is covered with a heavy growth of oak and beneath the surface lies a valuable ledge of blue limestone. The above block offers unusual advantages to the investor or to man who may need a home on easy terms, and will be sold at auction next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock by P. T. KAVANAGH, Auctioneer.
