

FROM SUNDAY'S EDITION.

The following matter on this page appeared in Sunday's edition of this publication...

SATURDAY SILENCE.

Cereal Speculation as Quiet as a Frog Pond in Mid-Summer.

Everybody Has Wheat and Corn to Sell, but Buyers are Scarce.

The Visible Supply of Wheat Increases at a Rate that Alarms the Bull Clique.

The Little Boats on the Short Rib Sea Swamped by the Swell of the Great Ships.

Wall Street Bovines Weeping Over the Might Have Been in Share Trading.

CHICAGO.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—It was a doleful day for the bulls on 'change, the market being relentlessly hammered by the bears and prices pounded down on everything except ribs and pork.

What was the answer made only this morning by an ordinarily busy broker to a query as to the opening of 'change. The broker sat in his office with his heels on top of his closed desk. He puffed leisurely at a good cigar and mechanically flipped kernels of corn into the spittoon.

CHICAGO FINANCIAL.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—During the week regular customers and others in good standing have found the banks ready takers of "A 1" paper at from 66 1/2 per cent. The supply of loanable funds has been ample to the extent of all transactions of a strictly legitimate business.

MILWAUKEE.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] MILWAUKEE, August 9.—On 'change wheat opened weak on the morning board and prices declined 1/2c under the influence of the fine weather and the fact that the market is generally expected to be a fair one.

NEW YORK.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The fluctuations in shares during most of the day were sufficient to satisfy only those who made quick turns and accepted small profits.

What the bear operators have been doing is being said by Frank Kennett, "and I advise buying wheat and averaging it down if it declines a few cents. The long side, at present prices, is sure to pay the bill."

WHAT NOISE IS THIS?

An Ugly Spot in Blaine's Character Under Investigation by the Chicago "Times."

AN UGLY SPOT IN BLAINE'S CHARACTER UNDER INVESTIGATION BY THE CHICAGO "TIMES."

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—The newspapers supporting Blaine, which have been dragging personalities into the campaign and vilifying Cleveland because of a slip made in his youth and stoned for as great an extent as possible, will probably be compelled after to-morrow to abandon the offensive and adopt the defensive.

TEXAS FEVER IN PENNSYLVANIA.

LANCASTER, Pa., Aug. 9.—A peculiar disease has been discovered among a drove of cattle in Lancaster county, Pa., about ten miles from the city.

THE LYDIAN MONARCH.

St. Johns, N. Y., Aug. 9.—The steamship Lydian monarch, from London for New York, Monday-one day out with 162 passengers, put into this port at noon to-day.

ANOTHER RAID ON HORSE THIEVES.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 9.—Meagre particulars are received of another slaughter of horse thieves in the Mussel Shell region, 350 miles northeast of Helena.

POVERTY AND SUFFERING.

"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, until I was completely discouraged, until one day, by the advice of my pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I want to say to all poor men, you can keep your families from starving, and your health from less than one doctor's visit will cost. I KNOW IT.—A WORKINGMAN."

EX-GOV. WALLER'S VIEWS.

Speech of the Famous Connecticut Reformer at Albany.

Mr. Chairman and Fellow Citizens.—I was one of the committee appointed at Chicago to notify the candidates of their nomination. That duty has been in part discharged. The committee notified Gov. Cleveland that, in all human probability, he would have to move in the spring.

THE LABOR VOTE.

A Prominent Leader of Workingmen Says It is Not for Butler.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.] CHICAGO, Aug. 9.—One of the most prominent leaders of the labor organization in this city, pressed indignation to-day at the continual publication in some papers of the statement that Butler has the labor organizations at his back and "for a month or so past this has been said again and again in one of the morning papers, and in fact, in the great majority of papers in this country, that Ben. Butler has the labor organizations, the Socialists and the Greenbackers at his back and call, well, sir, it is not true—emphatically not."

"Why, was not Butler nominated for president by the organizations?" asked the reporter in astonishment.

"No, sir, he was not."

"This was said with a perceptible tinge of asperity."

"You seem to have fallen into the same error as the papers I spoke of. The facts are these: Ben. Butler received the nomination at the national convention of some of the labor organizations, Greenbackers, and other laborers. But these are not the same as the labor organizations. There are at least 500,000 members of such organizations in the country. There are 20,000 of them here in Chicago, trades assemblies, Knights of labor, socialists and Greenback laborers. None of these organizations want Butler, nor have they nominated him. The truth is that all such labor associations exist only for the purpose of raising the standard of wages, of regulating strikes and apprenticeships, and for all other measures tending to the advancement of the labor interests. Their aims are not political, but social ones. The members belong to either of the two great parties, either Democrats or Republicans. These organizations are debating societies as well, in which the merits of the various candidates of their parties and platforms are discussed in a simple, but these are merely debating societies. No one of them has ever taken any part in politics, and no one of them has ever taken any part in politics, and no one of them has ever taken any part in politics."

"How is it one hears so much of the Greenback laborers?"

"Oh, that is due to the fact that this party used to play a big game once—in 1876 and in 1880. But they have no party organization now, except in a few states, like Michigan and Iowa, and even this holds true only as to the Greenbackers, but not the labor organizations. Papers like the Milwaukee Free Press, and the Chicago Tribune, have reported that the labor organizations have declared in favor of Butler and are doing their best to break up the Democratic party—such papers simply misstate the facts in a palpable manner. There is no Butler movement at work among the laboring men that I know of."

TRANSPORTATION NOTES.

The Wisconsin Central.

It is well known that this road is making its way into the West, and in which it is to go into, over the St. Paul & Duluth road has heretofore been fully explained in the GLOBE. For several months the terms upon which the new-comer was to have the use of the St. Paul & Duluth road, have been before the executive board of the Wisconsin Central, and it is hardly to be supposed that they were well enough defined and understood so that the contract could be executed, and a meeting was held at the headquarters of the Wisconsin Central, at Milwaukee, on the 27th inst., for the purpose of finally considering the terms and settling the matter. The meeting commenced at 10 a. m. and continued till 3 p. m. The following gentlemen were present: J. W. Miller, general manager of the same; J. F. Hill, president of the St. Paul & Duluth; P. M. Myers, secretary of the Wisconsin Central; C. W. Winter, assistant president of the Chicago, St. Paul & Omaha; H. P. Upham, and James Smith, Jr., president of the St. Paul & Duluth road. The meeting was strictly private, and no one but those named was present. The result of the conference was the signing of a contract, the terms of which were not made public. They are not serious, however, but another meeting will have to be held to finally settle the terms.

ALL AROUND THE GLOBE.

In the Seventh Missouri district Democrats, after fasting 579 ballots, adjourned without making a nomination.

The Omaha lead refinery, James E. Boyd, president, was burned yesterday morning. The works, valued at $1,000,000, were destroyed.
