

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

Prof. Seibert's full orchestra has been engaged to perform at the Odd Fellows' banquet to be given at the Merchants hotel Tuesday evening.

A little fellow named Jack Burgh was arrested yesterday for playing ball on Washington street. He is only seven years of age, and he was released on bail of ten dollars.

Thomas Oberland loaded to the guards on tanglefoot yesterday, and becoming weary he wrapped the drapery of a sidewalk around him and fell asleep.

A special meeting of the Acme S. and D. club is called to be held on the evening of September 16, at Seven Corners Building Association hall, over Taylor's shop, Seven Corners.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Crosby, of Reserve, gave a most superb supper to some of their friends Friday evening. About forty assembled in their handsome residence, and after spending a few hours most delightfully left for their homes expressing high praises for the manner in which they were treated by their genial host and fair hostess.

The funeral of the late Michael Reddington, whose death resulted from the kick of a horse inflicted while at work on Fifth street, last Thursday, took place from the family residence, No. 328 Yankee street, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The numerous buyers and jobbers of the north will find it greatly to their advantage to call on them before going east to purchase.

Mr. J. B. Kaufman, Bourk St. Melbourne, Australia, writes that he suffered continuously for seven years with a sprained ankle, but, by a few applications of St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-reliever, he was completely cured.

B. W. Boyd, Montreal, is at the Merchants. H. B. Robeson, St. James, is at the Merchants.

D. J. Sinclair, Duluth, was in the city yesterday. J. F. Bars, Duluth, was in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. P. Gray, Deer Park, is at the Metropolitan. E. M. Lyons, of Indianapolis, is at the Clarendon.

L. B. Sibley, of Boston, was at the Windsor yesterday. H. N. Winship, of Tracy, Minn., is at the Windsor hotel.

T. B. Allen, Bismarck, was at the Metropolitan yesterday. E. S. Norton, of Idaho, was at the Metropolitan yesterday.

Chas. P. Reeves, of Glenwood, is stopping at the Clarendon. Oliver P. Conger, of Steele, Dakota, was in the city yesterday.

S. T. Hamilton, U. S. Army, was at the Merchants yesterday. Edmund Rose, of Manchester, England, is at the Metropolitan.

Charles Ottomann, of New York, is registered at the Clarendon. C. C. Brown, of Mayville, D. T., was at the Windsor yesterday.

shouted to Louis Primeau, the interpreter: "Tell the gentlemen to wait a moment; the ladies are having a bath."

Sitting Bull told the reporter that he did not like the railways, but he would like to have a hotel on his reservation. He declined to discuss the merits of Blaine or Butler, on the ground that he could not talk intelligently till he had had several beefsteaks.

Some Mrs. McLaughlin, Mrs. Bull and the others appeared, and the company adjourned to a private dining room. Long Dog spread his napkin on his chair and sat on it. After eating a plate of ice cream, Sitting Bull said:

"Bouka boofa tookash lata noo-nee Joorobolala."

Which means: "That is a dish of a dish; game another place. Allow the Irishman to serve me."

The Star throws its rays upon the "combination" as follows: "When a number of Indians, dressed in native costume, headed by a broad shouldered, thick necked and big headed chief, followed by a party of dusty whites, crowded their way to the forward end of a Desbrosses street ferry-boat yesterday morning, people were not specially interested, because they did not know who were in the party.

The Grand Central hotel blotter contained the following names: Sitting Bull, Spotted Horn Bull, Gray Buffalo Woman, Eagle, Long Dog, Gray Eagle, Crow Eagle, Flying By, Good Sounding Iron, and Princess Red Spear.

The interpreter was Louis Primeau. The delegation is known as the Sitting Bull combination. Seen by the Nation is Sitting Bull's wife, Gray Buffalo Woman is his sister. The party left Standing Rock agency ten days ago. They were in St. Paul for a week, making arrangements for the trip.

At 2 o'clock yesterday the party dined on seventeen bowls of soup, fifteen plates of fish, twenty-one large sirloin steaks, a half peck of Irish potatoes, a half peck of sweet potatoes, three gallons of tomatoes, twenty-six cars of sweet corn, a quantity of fresh beans, nine dishes of tapioca pudding, fifteen plates of ice cream, eleven pieces of cake and twenty-two cups of coffee.

In their private sitting room after dinner Sitting Bull filled an eight-ounce pipe. The pipe was familiar by Indian picture books, and, having smoked a few whiffs, passed it around. The pipe was very short. The hall boy requested that the transom and door be kept closed. Flying By and Gray Eagle, both goodly young men, with variegated kilts tails along the seams of their trousers and vermilion streaks on their foreheads, smoked cigarettes. The men parted their hair in the middle. The women worked and chatted over a bead-embroidered blanket. The men said nothing. A little deaf and dumb white boy who called on them watched them very earnestly for a long time, and then bowed politely to Sitting Bull and indicated with his hands that he was glad to see them.

The old chief was delighted with the boy, and went through the boy's motions repeatedly. A catman jumping jack astounded Gray Buffalo Woman so that she retired to the bedroom, while Gray Eagle laughed aloud. Seen by the Nation handled it very gently, and then continued her work.

When Sitting Bull was asked what had most impressed him since reaching the white man's country, he replied that the whites went on to the streets and made money when they were little children and ought to be at play.

A SUNDAY RUCTION. A Free Fight which Results in Spoiling the Beauty of Several Noses.

The saloon kept by Joseph Weemer, on Courtland avenue, back of Oakland cemetery, was the scene of a terrific fandango last night, the result being a couple of cracked heads and a fruitful harvest of black eyes and bloody bugles.

The row started shortly after midnight when a half dozen men named Wm. Fitzgerald, Charles Tierney, Mike O'Brien, Vincent and Alexander Klein entered the saloon with the evident intention of having a row and cleaning it out.

Upon entering the place Fitzgerald swung up to the bar and called for the drinks and cigars for the crowd. The request was refused by Weemer on the grounds that they had drank enough already. Thereupon Fitzgerald picked up a bottle and let it fly at Weemer's head. This raised the dander of the latter, and while he was only slightly injured it started the music in good shape.

The bottle had not sooner rested from its mad career than Weemer picked up a beer mallet and brought it down with gushing force on Fitzgerald's head, and there was music by the fall hand. The gang men pitched into Weemer, when the latter reached for his revolver and fired a couple of shots. This attracted Officer Scheffer to the place, and he stopped the row and put them all under arrest.

The patrol wagon was called and they were all taken to the city lock-up, where Fitzgerald's head was dressed by Dr. Aucker. He sustained a rather severe scalp wound. They were all locked up.

LIVINGSTON, MONTANA.

We have just platted and now offer for sale lots in Minnesota. This addition is adjoining the great machine shops of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, which are the largest and most extensive on the line of the road, those at Brainard alone excepted. The lots are started at very low prices $25 to $75 a piece and will show a very handsome advance by fall. Livingston is less than two years old, with a population of over 8,000 people, is the brightest town on the Northern Pacific Railroad, has many brick and stone buildings, is growing very rapidly and bases her claims for making a large city on the following grounds:

It is the gateway to the National Park. It is the headquarters of three divisions of the R. R. It has an immense machine shops, with capacity over several hundred. It is in the center of a very rich agricultural country. It is the headquarters for an immense grazing interest. It is surrounded by coal, iron, copper, silver and gold mines. It has a splendid water power. It has plenty of pine and fir timber. It has an abundance of pure water and a mild climate. It is the youngest town in America with a National Bank and a daily newspaper; it also has two weekly newspapers and the best hotel in Montana. It has the only deposit of limestone on the line of road from Duluth west. Some six or seven fine kilns are now in operation, also plenty of brick and tile brick clay. Hot springs exist (70° temperature) within twenty miles of town, which exceed those of Arkansas. The Union Pacific R. R. will soon be built to the town. This company, Union Pacific R. R., have purchased a large amount of coal lands in the vicinity of Livingston, are putting in a plant of seventy-five coking furnaces. Lots for sale by C. LIVINGSTON & CO., 63 E.
