OUR GERMANS.

Are Aroused and Decide to Make a Fight for Their Rights.

The Meeting at Turner Hall Last Night and the Resolutions Passed.

Three hundred citizens of German birth met last evening at the North Minneapolis Turner hall, to take further action concerning the effort to be made to secure what they consider justice from the present administration of the city in regard to laws governing the personal rights and liberties of the citizens of Minneapolis.

Geo. Thiele was chosen chairman, J. Doehl secretary.

The meeting read the minutes of the last Wednesday held a week ago at the West side Turner hall, at which the following resolutions were adopted:

To the honorable, the city council of the city of Minneapolis:

At a meeting of citizens of your city, of German birth, held September 16, 1884, at the West side Turner hall, the following resolutions were passed:

Whereas, the larger part of this city has been excluded from all privileges of license and selling liquor under your recent license ordinance, and a large number of good and orderly citizens with their families are deprived of present means of support by this excluding means, and

Whereas, the policy of the law is that this council should upon each application for a license determine in a just and fair spirit simply whether the applicant is a proper person to be licensed, and not to allow any part of the city to be wholly disfranchised, and

Whereas, other and further odious and oppressive provisions have been enacted in this ordinance prescribing not only severe fines and penalties for all violations, but making it discretionary with the courts to impose imprisonment in addition to unusual and excessive fines, and

Whereas, the city council has furthermore authorized and placed at the disposal of the mayor the sum of $1,000 for the purpose of engaging spies and informers for the prosecution of offenses tried and not affecting the public peace; and

Whereas, all these measures are contrary to the spirit of free institutions and injurious to the material prosperity of our city, unjust and unequal for

Therefore, We hereby respectfully, but earnestly call upon your honorable body to modify and amend the ordinance so as to make it consistent with the liberal spirit of American institutions and the peace and progressive welfare of our rising city and its great destiny as the happy home of liberty-loving, active and free men of all civilized countries here together as citizens and friends.

As attorney Ebert asked that the protest should be translated into German. His many friends in the audience probably would get a better understanding of what was meant.

While waiting for the translation Otto Hees, editor of the Evening Herald, made a short address in which he urged that the Germans, regardless of party, shall unite and demand the repeal of the objectionable ordinances.

W. Popp followed, urging that the Germans should rouse themselves at once and no longer remain passive to these impositions. He was in favor of radical measures, and thought the way for the Germans to secure their rights is for them to assert their rights, and that too, with a vigor and an earnestness which could not be mistaken. His remarks were received with applause.

The German translation of the resolutions was next read and discussed thoroughly by paragraphs.

D. B. Johnson made a very vigorous speech denouncing the hypocritical course of the administration, and urging the Germans to assert themselves.

After considerable discussion it was decided that the resolutions should be presented to the council by the president and the secretary, and that the obtaining of signatures should be postponed until it was ascertained what attention the city fathers will give the matter.

A HEAVY DEFALCATION.

Some One Gets Away With a Handsome Sum of Money From the Telephone Exchange.

A representative of the GLOBE incidentally dropped on a little matter which has been kept very quiet, but which is destined to create quite a little sensation upon becoming public.

Francis Jewett is the treasurer of the Erie Telephone company and is now in the city as the representative to the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows from Massachusetts. He has combined telephone business with his Odd Fellow duties since his arrival here, and has unearthed an important defalcation in the Minneapolis office.

It is whispered that the books are short about $9,000, and again it is said that the actual amount of the defalcation has not yet been ascertained. The reporter is as yet unable to ascertain who is charged with appropriating the money to his own uses, but it is understood it is no one now connected with the office.

An expert has been employed and is now industriously engaged in poring over the books and accounts with a view to arriving definitely at the amount taken and to locating the blame. Mr. Glidden, the new superintendent, is in no wise responsible for the deficits, as they occurred prior to his advent in this office. The entire facts in the case will probably be known to-day.

THE ABLE ORATOR MAKES RINGING SPEECHES AT PRIOR LAKE AND LAKEVILLE.

IGNATIUS DONNELLY, candidate for congress for this district, per announcement, made one of his campaign speeches in this place this evening.

The meeting was called to order by C. M. Johnson, who introduced Mr. Donnelly by making a few brief and pointed remarks. A heavy rain set in about the time for the meeting to commence.

Nevertheless the people gathered from all parts of the country to hear the ablest orator in the state. Every chair was filled and extra seats were brought in and still many had to stand.

The audience was made up of men from all the old parties but all are Donnelly men. His speech was loudly applauded, showing conclusively that a remark made by one of the leading Republican citizens of Lakeville this afternoon is correct.
