

ENTHUSIASTIC DEMOCRATS.

Messrs. Brislin and Otis Address a large Audience at Hudson.

The Largest and Most Enthusiastic Gathering of the Present Campaign.

[Special Correspondence of the Globe.]

Hudson, Wis., Sept. 20.—The Democrats held an enthusiastic mass meeting at the Opera house in Hudson, Wisconsin, addressed by Messrs. Brislin and Otis, Esq., of St. Paul. A band conducted patriotic music during the evening.

Mr. Otis was the first speaker, and after paying his respects to the ladies and gentleman present, by complimentary allusions to the character of the intelligence of the independent countrymen of the State of Wisconsin, he looked at the present state of the Republic, and said that so many disturbing elements had entered into the canvass in that State it had been regarded as sure for the Republicans, but now it was extremely doubtful.

He entered largely into a discussion of the tariff, and said the present protection tax had been laid on the American people a more all just state of affairs to favor the manufacturers than the slavery of the south prior to the war. After showing up the disastrous results upon our commerce and trade by the present tariff, he said that raw material from South America, that by their close proximity to our shores, and the fact that the market here was driven away by high, unjust taxes and manufactured in England, where there was full and unlimited interchange of products. One reason why commerce with other countries was shackled, grew out of the fact that while we had an abundance of products to export to foreign nations, and nothing to bring back by reason of this tax.

The speaker concluded this branch of his remarks by demanding an unrestricted free interchange of products, and that only a tax for revenue be laid on articles of commerce sufficient to meet the legitimate purposes of a government economically administered.

Section 14 of the act provides that "no officer, clerk, or other person in the service of the United States shall, directly or indirectly, give or hand over to any other officer, clerk, or person in the service of the United States, or to any member or member of the house of representatives, or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the purchase of any office, or to be applied to any punishment for this offense is just the same as for collecting assessments—a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than three years."

Section 12. That no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States, or by any member or member of the house of representatives, or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the purchase of any office, or to be applied to any punishment for this offense is just the same as for collecting assessments—a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than three years."

Section 13. That no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States, or by any member or member of the house of representatives, or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the purchase of any office, or to be applied to any punishment for this offense is just the same as for collecting assessments—a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than three years."

Section 14. That no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States, or by any member or member of the house of representatives, or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the purchase of any office, or to be applied to any punishment for this offense is just the same as for collecting assessments—a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than three years."

Section 15. That no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States, or by any member or member of the house of representatives, or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the purchase of any office, or to be applied to any punishment for this offense is just the same as for collecting assessments—a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than three years."

Section 16. That no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States, or by any member or member of the house of representatives, or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the purchase of any office, or to be applied to any punishment for this offense is just the same as for collecting assessments—a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than three years."

Section 17. That no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States, or by any member or member of the house of representatives, or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the purchase of any office, or to be applied to any punishment for this offense is just the same as for collecting assessments—a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than three years."

Section 18. That no person shall, in any room or building occupied in the discharge of official duties by any officer or employee of the United States, or by any member or member of the house of representatives, or territorial delegate, any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the purchase of any office, or to be applied to any punishment for this offense is just the same as for collecting assessments—a fine not exceeding $5,000, or imprisonment for not more than three years."

CLOSED ITS CAREER.

The St. Paul Team Made Its Last Public Appearance Yesterday.

American Association Gains—Anderson Beaten at St. Louis.

Red Caps vs. St. Paul.

The closing game of base ball for the season at the West Seventh Street park occurred yesterday afternoon in the presence of more than 1,000 people. The St. Paul league team crossed bats with the Red Caps, the well-known amateur organization, and found them a good deal harder to handle than was expected. Indeed the Red Caps led at the end of the fifth inning by a score of 3 to 2. After this, however, the league batsmen gauged Hazzard's curves and scored five runs in the sixth and seventh innings. The battery for the St. Paul team at the beginning was composed of O'Brien and Hengle. The latter tried to hold O'Brien's batting down a couple of innings, but not meeting with conspicuous success he gave way to Ganzel. Dealey, the league change catcher, appeared behind the bat for the Red Caps, and caught without an error. The amateur were very weak at the bat, securing only four hits, and scoring all their runs on errors. The fielding honors of the Red Caps were shared by Martin, Murnane and Wright. Gray, short stop, had his hands full all day, having no less than twelve chances. He accepted seven of the one, more than a majority. For the league team the heavy hitting was done by Carroll, Hengle, and Carroll. The latter was the only one to get on base, and he did so by a single. The Red Caps were out in the eighth inning, and the game was over.

PIVOTAL OHIO.

The Foolishness of Claiming it as a Democratic State.

And a Big Fight Must be Made to Secure an October Victory.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

Washington, D. C., Sept. 21.—The situation of affairs politically is now such that Ohio may prove the pivot of the presidential game. This condition is due to Democratic stupidity and if the blind sight should develop the foresight of certain allies, the result will be a disaster to the party. It is not too late to make an impression upon certain members of the national Democratic committee, and the order was issued to claim Ohio. This claim has been made and the hopes of the rank and file of the sturdy Democracy have been subjected to such a tension that if Ohio should not go Democratic in October the party will be in a state of confusion. It is not too late to make an impression upon certain members of the national Democratic committee, and the order was issued to claim Ohio. This claim has been made and the hopes of the rank and file of the sturdy Democracy have been subjected to such a tension that if Ohio should not go Democratic in October the party will be in a state of confusion.

The effect has been to scare the enemy, and all the machinery of the party is now moving into the state. It has constrained the Republican leaders through fear to bring the presidential candidates within Ohio's borders. This means a terrible battle royal invited by the so-called Ohio Democratic leaders themselves. It is known that the party in Ohio is in a state of confusion. It is not too late to make an impression upon certain members of the national Democratic committee, and the order was issued to claim Ohio. This claim has been made and the hopes of the rank and file of the sturdy Democracy have been subjected to such a tension that if Ohio should not go Democratic in October the party will be in a state of confusion.

The management of the St. Paul team. The team until all its competitors had ceased to be active in the game. The attendance at the game yesterday makes it certain that the shortage, if any, will be insignificant. It is understood that an effort is being made to keep the team in St. Paul in order to be ready to enter some league next season. The St. Paul team is now in a state of confusion. It is not too late to make an impression upon certain members of the national Democratic committee, and the order was issued to claim Ohio. This claim has been made and the hopes of the rank and file of the sturdy Democracy have been subjected to such a tension that if Ohio should not go Democratic in October the party will be in a state of confusion.

Blaine Believed to be Bartering Cabinet Positions for Campaign "Soap."

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

Washington, Sept. 20.—All the signs multiply showing that the party of organizing and corruptors are to be employed by the Blaine managers in the canvass. Blaine's visit to New York is a part of the programme to raise money for the fight to be waged in the purchase of Ohio in the October election. The office of secretary of the treasury under Blaine will be sold, if it is not sold by the end of the month. The presence of Blaine in New York is convenient for the purpose of hatching up a trade and dicker with Mr. Arthur for the full use of the administrator's influence. It does not appear that Conkling, Gresham, Grant, the Camerons and some other prominent stalwarts are anxious to repeat the operation of being cheated as they were in 1880 and 1881—proceeding for which they regarded Blaine as responsible, but the great bulk of stalwarts, including Mr. Hamilton Fish, will march with the procession.

Blaine will not stay long in New York. He is to make a flying visit to Philadelphia, scheduled to hypocrite promises of office in exchange for party funds. He will then go through New York state by the line of the New York Central railroad, hoping that this swinging around the circle will bag a lot of votes. He is to start next Monday or Tuesday.

Ignatius Donnelly at Newark.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

Newark, Sept. 20.—Hon. Ignatius Donnelly, per appointment, made one of his able speeches Saturday afternoon to one of the largest audiences ever gathered together at any political meeting in Newark. The meeting was called to order by Senator Tilden. Mr. Donnelly was also made chairman. He introduced the Hon. Ignatius Donnelly by making a few well selected remarks. When Mr. Donnelly came forward loud applause greeted him. He spoke for two hours in German hall to an audience that packed the hall completely. The audience was almost wholly foreign, made up of Irishmen, Germans, Scotchmen, and nearly all farmers, who left their plows and threshing machines to hear Mr. Donnelly and show by their presence that they are his warm supporters. During the evening speech farmers continued to gather, singing their way into the hall to hear the speaker. It has been said that the Irish were all going to vote the Republican ticket but such is not the case in this section.

New Horse Disease.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

FORREST, Ill., Sept. 20.—A disease going the rounds here is playing havoc with some of our best horses. The horses are attacked with something similar to a bad cold. The lungs become affected, the horses have a high fever, and then general debility follows and death generally relieves their suffering. The epidemic is prevalent in Ogles and Stephenson counties, and large numbers of horses are dying from its effects. As yet veterinarians have been unable to ascribe a name for the disease or give a cause for the attack.

NEW YORK INCENDIARISM.

Circumstantial Evidence Pointing That a Rivington Street Tenant Burnt His Own House.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

New York, Sept. 21.—For several weeks past an epidemic of arson has reigned in this city. It culminated at an early hour this morning in a diabolical attempt to burn a small tenement house while its tenanted occupants were soundly sleeping. Fortunately the attempt was not entirely successful, resulting only in the partial destruction of the building and the death of the wife of the alleged perpetrator of the deed. The latter is being detained, and the tenant who was discovered at 2:30 o'clock this morning by a policeman, who gave the alarm and aroused the occupants of the burning building, all of whom escaped with but slight injuries.

THE NEW ST. PAUL LINE.

A Change to be Made in the Route of the Chicago, Freepport & St. Paul Railway.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—President W. O. Wright, of the new Chicago, Freepport & St. Paul line, has issued a circular, of which the following are extracts: "It was originally contemplated by the managers of this enterprise to construct the same along the east bank of the Mississippi river, and all their efforts have been heretofore directed accordingly. Late surveys and reconnoitring have, however, shown that it is practicable, though quite extensive line, running parallel with and from twenty to twenty-five miles eastward of the Mississippi river, and possessing certain advantages over the proposed river bank line, can be constructed at an additional cost of from $2,500 to $3,000 per mile. It has been represented to us that if we adopt this interior route, it will be a saving of $1,000,000 in the cost of construction. It is now being ascertained that if this road be constructed along the river bank no railroad along the proposed interior line will ever be constructed. To give you a general idea of the route, the proposed line will run from Chicago to Freeport, Ill., in about an air line, thence northward up the valley of the Peconica river, crossing the Peconica river, and thence northward to the north bank of the Wisconsin to the mouth of Mill Creek, in Richland county, thence northward through Bazza, in Richland county, in Missouri county, thence northward to Jacks county, Whitehall, in Trempealeau Co., Durand, in Pepin county, and River Falls, in Pierce county, north upon Lake St. Croix in the town of Troy, in St. Croix county, thence in a direct line to St. Paul. The whole will be forty-five miles shorter than any other line between Chicago and St. Paul.

Yellow Fever Brought North.

[Special Telegram to the Globe.]

New York, Sept. 21.—The British steamship African, from Santiago, arrived at Brooklyn, Aug. 30, without stopping at quarantine. Here she unloaded a portion of her cargo and then proceeded to Perth Amboy, N. J., where she arrived on the 31st. The day before yesterday James Benson, aged twenty-one, born in Newfoundland, and William Hydes, aged thirty, born in England, were taken to the Long Island College hospital in a carriage. They were suffering from yellow fever. They stated that on Thursday they arrived at Perth Amboy on the British steamer African, from West Indies, and that they were the only two men in the crew who were sick. Friday night Benson died and yesterday morning Hydes breathed his last. There is a question as to the fact that both cases were genuine yellow fever. The two men were accompanied by a doctor, who is the captain of the African, who stated that the men were suffering from malaria. The captain was allowed to depart without being questioned by the health authorities, so that it is not known how the fever was brought to Perth Amboy, N. J., or how it reached New York.

Another Fire at Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 21.—The scenes of two weeks ago were repeated to-day on a smaller scale. The fire then was thought to have originated in an accident. To-day's occurred led to the belief it may have been incendiary. This time a fire broke out in the store of a lumber yard, on the upper flats, and destroyed a large amount of property, including 2,000,000 feet of lumber. When the flames were fairly under control, a dense smoke was seen pouring from the inside of a dry house. The fire was extinguished with a loss of about $30,000. It broke out at 4 o'clock, when the department was about going home, a thick smoke as if from coal oil suddenly poured forth from the inside of the dry house. The fire was extinguished with a loss of about $30,000. It broke out at 4 o'clock, when the department was about going home, a thick smoke as if from coal oil suddenly poured forth from the inside of the dry house.

The United States Sued for Damages.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Suits have been entered in the United States court of claims against the United States by the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal company, and Great Falls Manufacturing company, for damages aggregating in two cases nearly a million dollars. The action has been brought by both companies on account of proceedings taken to be caused by the proposed extension of the Washington aqueduct as provided by an act of congress of July 15, 1882, work upon which has already been begun. In the case of the canal company $900,000, are claimed as damages for the appropriation by the government of certain lands belonging to the company, and for damage to its rights in the waters of the Potomac river; while in that of the Great Falls company, $1,000,000 are claimed as damages, in order made to be brought by Benjamin F. Butler, on behalf of the stockholders.

A New Comet.

DOSTROV, Sept. 21.—A cable message at the college observatory from the European Association of astronomers, announces the discovery of a bright comet by Wolf, of Zurich, on the 17th inst. The comet was observed at Straßburg, Saturday evening. Its position on September 20 was 44 degrees, 67 minutes, Greenwich mean time right ascension, 21 hours, 15 minutes, 32.3 seconds, declination 22 degrees, 22 minutes, 54 seconds. Daily motion in right ascension plus 30 seconds, in declination south 23 minutes, 17 inst. An observation at Harvard observatory tonight shows the comet discovered by Dr. Wolf is a circular two minutes in diameter and well defined with a nucleus of magnitude 12. Its position is as follows: Sept. 21, 14 hours, 36 minutes, 30 seconds, Greenwich time, right ascension, 21 hours, 15 minutes, 55.1 seconds, declination 21 degrees, 59 minutes, 41.7 seconds.

A Yacht Wrecked.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Sept. 21.—The yacht Estelle in a squall Saturday evening went ashore on Black Rock, several miles from here. The occupants of the yacht were Elias H. Fisher, and wife, S. Clifford Hathaway, and Mert Hathaway, sons of Savery C. Hathaway. They sat on a rock all night. The sea ran high and it was very cold. All suffered intensely, being wet through. They were taken ashore this morning and brought to the city. The yacht is a total wreck.

The Future Premier of Ireland.

DUBLIN, Sept. 21.—The National league held a meeting at Ballinacree, Joseph W. Kenny, member of parliament for Clonsilla, declared that Ireland would never be contented until she was free. The Irish members of commons, he said, opposed a Liberal government because they expected more from the Conservatives. Kenny adopted the name of "The National league and peasant proprietor." Kenny was cheered as the future premier of Ireland.

Rev. Newman Hall.

BOSTON, Sept. 21.—Rev. Dr. Newman Hall, of London, preached in Mount Vernon church to-day to a crowded congregation, from the text Romans viii. 28. In the afternoon and evening Dr. Hall preached to very crowded assemblies at the churches of the city. His sermons were prefaced by a few remarks, in which he declared himself a total abstainer, and a persistent advocate of temperance practices.

THE BOSTON. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 21.—Harry Clay, a well known politician, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded this morning by Andy Wepler, claimant of the Eleventh ward. Clay was drinking and wanted to borrow money from his friend Wepler, who wouldn't let him have as much as he wanted. Clay began abusing him and went out and got a pistol to shoot him. On returning he fired a shot into the pistol, and they were ready to fight it out. They took stands and Wepler fired the ball striking Clay in the groin, and down he fell in the thigh. Clay was taken to the hospital, where he is lying. Clay is a member of the great Henry Clay. He made the voyage to the Arctic regions in the Ill-mated Proteus. He is prominently mentioned for 200 seconds, in declination south 23 minutes, 17 inst. An observation at Harvard observatory tonight shows the comet discovered by Dr. Wolf is a circular two minutes in diameter and well defined with a nucleus of magnitude 12. Its position is as follows: Sept. 21, 14 hours, 36 minutes, 30 seconds, Greenwich time, right ascension, 21 hours, 15 minutes, 55.1 seconds, declination 21 degrees, 59 minutes, 41.7 seconds.

Too Many Wives. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 21.—Geo. (see in under arrest for eloping with a twenty year old girl from Central Illinois. The girl refuses to give her name and is now in a house in South Minneapolis. The sheriff is expected to arrive from Illinois to-day. Geo. has a wife in Illinois. The prisoner claims to have lived in Minneapolis last year and worked for Contractor Chase on street improvements and grading, but he is not known and his story is doubted. The couple arrived here two days ago. They say they had agreed to get married, but no ceremony had been performed. They are reticent and no particulars can be obtained.

ALL AROUND THE GLOBE. A German paper, commenting on the sudden resignation of Sidney Everett, secretary of the American legation at Berlin, says: "The relations of Everett with the American colony in Berlin lately became unbearable, and Everett has no longer the confidence of his countrymen." Capt. Eads has arrived in New York from Europe.

H. H. Jacobs, chemist, of Philadelphia, was found in the woods near Worcester, Mass., yesterday, naked and suffering from exposure. He was evidently not in his right mind. He says he has not eaten anything since Friday.
