

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

The committee on claims failed to get a quorum yesterday. The committee on police will hold a meeting at 7:30 o'clock to-morrow evening. It is now the style to go out on the promenade with an autumn leaf in the right hand. There will be a special and important meeting of the board of education to-morrow evening. A new meeting was placed upon the floor of the clerical department in the county treasurer's office yesterday. Henry Muller, a fine looking lad of seventeen years of age, was adjudged insane in the probate court yesterday, and sent to St. Peter. A young woman was brought over from the Sixth ward at 11:30 last evening in the patrol wagon in a shameful state of intoxication. G. V. Bacon's subdivision of lots 11 and 12, of Euclid & Mackubin's outlots, containing sixty lots, was examined and approved yesterday. Dr. Frey's drug store, in the Welz block, corner Westminster street and Lafayette avenue, will be opened for business to-morrow morning. Chief Black denies that the water gave out at the hydrant at Saturday morning's fire, but states that in order to get two streams on the fire he had to lay 3,750 feet of hose. When fire was discovered at the county jail building yesterday, the way the record books of the county auditor's office were run into the vault was a caution to slow coaches. The St. Paul Gospel and Temperance union, Hon. J. B. Brislin, president, meets at the Jackson street Methodist church at three o'clock this afternoon to complete its organization. The temperance meeting at the Jackson street M. E. church this afternoon will be addressed by the Hon. J. B. Brislin, president of the Christian Temperance union, W. D. Ladd, and others. The state auditor's clerical force got moved back into their old quarters at the state capitol yesterday, and the clerical force of the secretary of state department hope to get similarly settled by Tuesday. A drunk and disorderly negro named Roberson, who was making a riotous, drunken disturbance at the corner of Sixth and Wabasha streets early last evening, was promptly pigeon holed at the city hall. Detective Walsh, of the Northern Pacific Railroad company, returned from the north last night, having arrested and jailed a half dozen confidence men, who have been "working" the northern extension of the road. Fire Commissioner E. H. Schlick on yesterday received a splendid photograph of his store, Fourth and Wabasha, showing the fine manner in which it was decorated at the time of the recent German national convention. Andrew E. Johnson, of the firm of Kellogg, Johnson & Co., was at the residence of State Treasurer Chas. Kittleson, 318 Summer street, on Friday night, and knew nothing of the burning of his factory until he read it in the morning papers. Mahler & Thompson, the jobbing firm that became financially embarrassed a few weeks ago, have made a satisfactory agreement with all their creditors, and the business will be continued under the name of J. M. Mahler, agents. Mary Fry was granted a divorce from James D. Fry for desertion, in the special term of the district court yesterday, and Judge Brill took the similar case of Cornelius Williams asking divorce from Mary R. Williams under advisement. The entertainment given by the German society, last Sunday, for the benefit of Albert Glatzner, netted between $300 and $400. In view of the untimely death of Mr. Glatzner, last week, the money came as a merciful messenger to the afflicted family. The shoe factory fire on Saturday morning destroyed considerable fencing on Von Minden street, forty feet of which fronted the residence of Messrs. Ed. Hannan, of the state capitol. A man named Oula, a tenant in this house, was the first to discover the fire. By the order of Acting Postmaster General Hutton, on and after October 1, all postoffices of the first class shall keep open until 6 o'clock p. m. for the issue and payment of money orders, for the receipt of matter intended for registration and delivery of registered matter. Mrs. Col. Allen received a copy of an invitation yesterday extended by Rev. Father Carroll, of New York, to Col. Allen and the Sitting Bull party, to attend the services this morning at the college of St. Francis Xavier. Fifteen seats have been reserved for the party and they will attend in a body. Extra arrangements are being made for a grand rally to-morrow evening of the Fourth ward Cleveland and Hendricks and Merriman club. The meeting which will be held at Gelderman's store, University and Farington avenues, will be addressed by Gen. Johnson, president of the club, Normandin and others. A big time is expected. Harry Young, the industrious commissioner of immigration, has his bet noir. Some frankish inmate of the capitol watches until he goes out of his room for a moment and slips in and writes in one of Harry's "scratch books." "Why should America be the dumping ground of Europe?" It grieves the zealous commissioner to think that any one should value his effort to "dump" settlers on our prairies so lightly.

The Cranks Rather Work Out Their Fines Than Replenish the Cash Box. "There they are; see! A monkey with green eyes and big teeth; look at 'em; two yellow dogs—they will eat me; take them away, please!" and a strong man fell back in his cell with a wild shriek and a pitiful groan. The man was Mike Johnson, and he was laboring under an attack of the disorder commonly known as the jim-jams. The scene above described took place in his cell at city hall about two o'clock yesterday morning. He was arraigned with the rest of the prisoners at 9 o'clock, and he presented a horrible and abject appearance. The poor wretch had been on a terrible debauch, and while crazy drunk he stole a watch from a mechanic at work on the bank building at Fourth and Robert street. When put in his cell he acted like a maniac stripping all of his clothing off. He shook like a leaf yesterday and was sentenced to sixty days. Thomas Hinsek, another crank, acted in almost a similar manner. He went into a saloon on Seventh street armed with a razor and two guns, and he made a play at the barkeeper. The latter did not wait on the order of his going, but he went for a copper. Officer Schweitzer came along and ran the crank in, just as he was about to use one of his revolvers. When looked up he discolored himself and acted like a crank generally. Yesterday he played the crazy act, refusing to say a word. The hearing was continued to Oct. 3. A genteel looking man named Squires was arraigned on the charge of stealing a basket of grapes. He resides in Minneapolis, and while waiting for a train at the Union depot he mailed the fruit from a passenger. When arrested he said he wanted to present them to his wife. Yesterday he said that a man named Johnson had told him to watch the grapes and that the latter had not come back. He got $50 or sixty days. James McCaffery went into a saloon Friday night and asked a stranger for a chew of tobacco. The latter said he didn't chew, when Mack said he guessed he would have to whip him. About this time the barkeeper came along and made him walk Spanish to the street, where a copper grabbed him. Yesterday he was sentenced to ten days. W. Beecher and an old reprobate named Theo. Hund were up on the charge of disorderly. They had a row at the canery or the sign of the one quart joint on Eagle street Friday night, and Hund made a hostile overture to Beecher when the latter whipped him. The testimony was unfit for publication. Hund was sent up for twenty and the other man for five days.
