

MILWAUKEE LETTER.

The New and Old St. Pauls Church Buildings.

Notable Deaths of the Week—New Police Torgery.

A Elegant Residence—A Noted Catholic Shrine—Short Notes.

[Special Correspondence of the Globe.]

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 4.—A week from tomorrow the first service will be held in the new St. Pauls church, corner of Knapp and Marshall streets. It is a massive structure of brown sandstone, and is seemingly as solid as the rock-ribbed hills of time. Its interior is elegant in every detail, and the ensemble is dignified and impressive. Money has been lavished upon altar, organ, windows, and every feature wherever ornamentation would be attained. The windows are many of them unsurpassed in the country or in the world. The rose window in the facade, sixteen feet in diameter, is a gift from Mrs. E. H. Broadhead. The transepts each contain a window 18 by 25 feet, heavily mullioned and divided into three panels. The east window is devoted to a memorial of Bishop Kemper, and when completed will have few equals in the world. The opposite window is filled with separate gifts and memorials, the center panel being a gift of Mrs. James E. Jenkins in memory of her father, the late Judge Andrew G. Miller. At the left is a fine window, the gift of Judge and Mrs. Hamilton in memory of their daughter, at the right a window given by another summer in memory of her parents. On the ten windows in the side aisles, four are already occupied by beautiful memorials, one a gift from Daniel Wells, being remarkable as a work of art. The other memorials are by Mrs. Geo. Mitchell to her parents, and Mrs. Higby and Mrs. Swan to their husbands. In the west transept a floral window is a gift from John P. McGregor in memory of his wife. Two rich windows of dark ruby jewels are a gift from Mrs. Straw. The vestibule windows are given by Mrs. John Whaling. The value of these windows, including the unfinished Kemper memorial, is $24,000. Charles T. Bradley made the church a gift of the organ, which is valued at $10,000. The rectory, which is to adjoin the church on Knapp street on the east, has not yet been started, and there is another summer in memory of her parents. When the finishing touch of the builder shall have been given the edifice will represent a value of over $300,000.

THE OLD. The putting on of all this elegance necessitates the desertion of the old church on the corner of Jefferson and Mason street, plain of exterior and interior, but rich with memories and hallowed with associations. Many a heart will not find amid the elegance of the new sanctuary that subtle attraction which drew them to the old church that knew their baptisms, their marriages and their burials. Within its walls life now dust had offered up praise to the Creator, and down its aisles the clay of the departed had been borne to the tomb. Not all the elegance in the world can fill the place of these memories, which will cling to those who hold them. The younger members of the flock will grow impatient with the new work, which will in time also become a stoneware of memories, as dear to the present young as those of the old are to the aged of to-day. The original church structure, from which the old building grew by process of frequent expansion, was finished in the winter part of 1843. The details of its construction and furnishings, and the building of the parsonage adjoining are records of devotion to a worthy cause that surmounted many obstacles and achieved success in the face of trying difficulties.

THE SITE OF THE OLD CHURCH. The deed of the property upon which the old church stands has already been transferred to Robert Layton, and a house mover is engaged in moving the old frame building that once served as a rectory. The church proper will be torn down pursuant to an agreement between Mr. Layton and the trustees of the church. The pews, carpets, etc., have been removed, and the work of demolition will proceed rapidly. Mr. Layton is anxious to clear the lot without delay so that the foundation of the public art gallery which he intends to donate to the city, may be excavated, if not laid before the winter sets in. At all events he wants a "clear deck" for work next spring. The working plans of the gallery have not yet been transmitted to Mr. Layton by the English architects, the Messrs. Audsley, but they are expected to arrive before long. The building will consist of a one story and a high basement, and will stand in the middle of the lot, with a gallery on all sides. It will have a heavy portico and a heavy ornamental to stone for its lack of windows.

WORK OF "THE REAPER." Mrs. Mary Layton, widow of the late John Layton, and mother of Frederick Layton, the well known pork packer and provision dealer, died at her residence in the town of Greenfield, Monday night, in the eighty-third year of her age. She was a native of Cambridge, England, and came to Milwaukee in 1843, when her son Fred was in his eighteenth year. She was an aunt of Mrs. Geo. Dickens and Robert and Alfred Dawson, of this city. Her remains were interred in Forest Home cemetery Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Cottrill is a sister of the bride.

The wedding of Miss Kathryn Smith and Rev. L. DeLancy Townsend on Thursday was the society event of the week. On their return from an eastern trip the newly wedded pair will reside at Watertown, Wis., where Dr. Townsend has charge of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. D. W. Eaton will be married to a wealthy English gentleman in a few weeks. Gen. McCook, U. S. A., will be married to Miss Cook in this city, at Nashotah, next week. John D. McLeod was married to Mrs. Genevieve Chapman at the residence of J. P. C. Cottrill, on Farwell avenue, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Cottrill is a sister of the bride.

Griggs' Glycerine Salve. The best on earth, can truly be said of Griggs' Glycerine Salve, which is a sure cure for cuts, bruises, scalds, burns, wounds, and all other sores. Will positively cure piles, tetter and all skin eruptions. Try this wonder healer. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Only 25 cents. For sale by P. J. Dreis, St. Paul, Minn.

"I Have Suffered!" With every disease imaginable for the last three years' Our Druggist, Anderson, recommending "Hop Bitters" to me, "Used two bottles!" Am entirely cured, and heartily recommend Hop Bitters to every one. J. D. Walker, Buckner, Mo.

I write this as a Token of the great appreciation I have of your Hop Bitters. I was afflicted with a rheumatic rheumatism. I used seven years, and no medicine seemed to do me any good. I tried two bottles of your Hop Bitters, and to my surprise I am as well to-day as ever I was. I hope "You may have abundant success" in this great and valuable medicine. Anyone wishing to know more about my cure! Can learn by addressing me, E. M. Williams, 1103 16th street, Washington, D. C.

Next to a bonanza mine a big brewery is the most potent wealth producer that man can own. The wonderful growth of Milwaukee's immense breweries and the wide extent of their trade, give sufficient backing to the assertion, but if more were needed it would be found in the heavy investments by the brewers in city real estate during the past year. They have been buying here, there and everywhere, and many a property owner has been made nervous by the purchase of an adjoining lot by a brewer. The business is so closely allied to the saloon interest that brewery property has become synonymous with saloon property. But brewers have an eye to dollars that have not touched malt, and are as willing to take a margin on realty as on beer. Just now Valentine Blatz is putting some of his money into an elegant castellated residence on the fourth corner of Van Buren streets, formerly occupied by the Collins residence. The ground dimensions of the structure will be 60x80 feet. Vertically it will include a high basement, two lofty stories and a French roof. The material to be used is Milwaukee brick, terra cotta and stone, and Vert Island sand stone trimmings. There will be no woodwork on the exterior of the house; the porticos will be constructed of solid granite and brick. The interior will be finished in hard wood, and will have all modern improvements, including clothes shafts to the laundry, dust shafts, etc. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy in October next. The cost is placed at $50,000 by the architect, but it will probably be much greater than that. Builders are chary about giving big figures for assessors to jot down.

HOLY HILL. This Catholic shrine, mentioned in a recent letter, is destined to become one of the most famous resorts for pilgrims and penitents in the country. It is located in Washington county, near Schells, thirty-two miles north of this city. Holy Hill is the apex of a series of hills which have the plan, though not the shape, of a pyramid of cannon balls. The surface of these hills is composed of coarse gravel and stones, but there are many fertile spots in the valleys between them. The church of St. Mary's of Help, which crowns the summit of Holy Hill, stands out in bold relief against the sky. It is reached by a steep pathway called the "Way of the Cross," which is marked at regular intervals by wooden crosses, bearing pictures illustrating the last scenes of the life of Jesus Christ. Before these crosses the weary and persistent pilgrims kneel and pray for the intercession of the Virgin Mary and the forgiveness of sins. Devout Catholics regard the hill with deep veneration, and many stories are told of the bodily ailments. It has become the resort of the halt, the maimed and the blind, who go there to seek supernatural relief. The hill was first brought to notice twenty years ago by Francis Sobers, a religious recluse who resided upon it. Sobers spent most of his time in praying and begging, and one day disappeared as mysteriously as he came. A second hermit appeared and lived a short time on the hill, increasing its reputation among devout Catholics. In 1856, Father Francis Xavier Paulhuber, formerly of St. Mary's church, Milwaukee, purchased the property, containing forty acres, from the government, and presented it to the diocese. A rough wooden cross was at first erected on the hill to serve as a guide to the pilgrims. Later a rude chapel of rough timber was erected, but this gave way to the present neat and substantial church building of brick with stone trimmings and stone foundation, which was erected four years ago. The church was consecrated by Archbishop Heiss in 1881. The summit of the hill affords the pilgrims a glorious view. Before him in pleasing undulations lie fertile fields and pastures interspersed by heavy woodlands. To the south, many miles distant, are the famous chain of Waubesa lakes, and the smoke of the rolling mills at Milwaukee, thirty-five miles away, is seen in the southeast. On a clear day, through a strong glass, some of the church spires of Milwaukee may be seen. The hill is between 800 and 1,000 feet above the level of Lake Michigan, and is said to be the highest hill in Wisconsin.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL. Harvey D. Phatt, agent of the Merchants Dispatch Freight Line in this city was married at Washington, D. C., on the 27th ult., to Miss Josephine E. Taylor. The young couple have arrived home and are now engaged in house hunting. The Light Horse squadron had its semi-annual muster Monday evening. The roll contains the names of seventy-one members in good standing, each having a complete set of accoutrements and all necessary outfit as required by the state. The remains of Chas. A. Avery, formerly connected with Peck's Sun, who died suddenly at Wausau, were brought to this city on Saturday and held at an undertaking establishment to await the arrival of the dead journalist's mother from Kansas. On Tuesday the remains were taken to Racine and interred, pursuant to a written request left by the deceased. Mr. Avery's life was insured for $3,000 in the Royal Arcanum, payable to his mother. About fifty members of the press of Wisconsin were banqueted at the exposition Tuesday afternoon. Fred E. Burgin has resigned the position of city editor of the Sentinel and betaken himself to New York city, where he will hereafter reside. It is understood that he will join the staff of the World. Mr. Burgin took with him an elegant gold headed cane, a gift from his Social associates. Henry E. Legler succeeds Mr. Burgin on the Sentinel.

Gen. McCook, U. S. A., will be married to Miss Cook in this city, at Nashotah, next week. John D. McLeod was married to Mrs. Genevieve Chapman at the residence of J. P. C. Cottrill, on Farwell avenue, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Cottrill is a sister of the bride. The wedding of Miss Kathryn Smith and Rev. L. DeLancy Townsend on Thursday was the society event of the week. On their return from an eastern trip the newly wedded pair will reside at Watertown, Wis., where Dr. Townsend has charge of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. D. W. Eaton will be married to a wealthy English gentleman in a few weeks. Gen. McCook, U. S. A., will be married to Miss Cook in this city, at Nashotah, next week. John D. McLeod was married to Mrs. Genevieve Chapman at the residence of J. P. C. Cottrill, on Farwell avenue, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Cottrill is a sister of the bride. The wedding of Miss Kathryn Smith and Rev. L. DeLancy Townsend on Thursday was the society event of the week. On their return from an eastern trip the newly wedded pair will reside at Watertown, Wis., where Dr. Townsend has charge of the Episcopal church.

Griggs' Glycerine Salve. The best on earth, can truly be said of Griggs' Glycerine Salve, which is a sure cure for cuts, bruises, scalds, burns, wounds, and all other sores. Will positively cure piles, tetter and all skin eruptions. Try this wonder healer. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Only 25 cents. For sale by P. J. Dreis, St. Paul, Minn.

"I Have Suffered!" With every disease imaginable for the last three years' Our Druggist, Anderson, recommending "Hop Bitters" to me, "Used two bottles!" Am entirely cured, and heartily recommend Hop Bitters to every one. J. D. Walker, Buckner, Mo.

I write this as a Token of the great appreciation I have of your Hop Bitters. I was afflicted with a rheumatic rheumatism. I used seven years, and no medicine seemed to do me any good. I tried two bottles of your Hop Bitters, and to my surprise I am as well to-day as ever I was. I hope "You may have abundant success" in this great and valuable medicine. Anyone wishing to know more about my cure! Can learn by addressing me, E. M. Williams, 1103 16th street, Washington, D. C.

Next to a bonanza mine a big brewery is the most potent wealth producer that man can own. The wonderful growth of Milwaukee's immense breweries and the wide extent of their trade, give sufficient backing to the assertion, but if more were needed it would be found in the heavy investments by the brewers in city real estate during the past year. They have been buying here, there and everywhere, and many a property owner has been made nervous by the purchase of an adjoining lot by a brewer. The business is so closely allied to the saloon interest that brewery property has become synonymous with saloon property. But brewers have an eye to dollars that have not touched malt, and are as willing to take a margin on realty as on beer. Just now Valentine Blatz is putting some of his money into an elegant castellated residence on the fourth corner of Van Buren streets, formerly occupied by the Collins residence. The ground dimensions of the structure will be 60x80 feet. Vertically it will include a high basement, two lofty stories and a French roof. The material to be used is Milwaukee brick, terra cotta and stone, and Vert Island sand stone trimmings. There will be no woodwork on the exterior of the house; the porticos will be constructed of solid granite and brick. The interior will be finished in hard wood, and will have all modern improvements, including clothes shafts to the laundry, dust shafts, etc. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy in October next. The cost is placed at $50,000 by the architect, but it will probably be much greater than that. Builders are chary about giving big figures for assessors to jot down.

HOLY HILL. This Catholic shrine, mentioned in a recent letter, is destined to become one of the most famous resorts for pilgrims and penitents in the country. It is located in Washington county, near Schells, thirty-two miles north of this city. Holy Hill is the apex of a series of hills which have the plan, though not the shape, of a pyramid of cannon balls. The surface of these hills is composed of coarse gravel and stones, but there are many fertile spots in the valleys between them. The church of St. Mary's of Help, which crowns the summit of Holy Hill, stands out in bold relief against the sky. It is reached by a steep pathway called the "Way of the Cross," which is marked at regular intervals by wooden crosses, bearing pictures illustrating the last scenes of the life of Jesus Christ. Before these crosses the weary and persistent pilgrims kneel and pray for the intercession of the Virgin Mary and the forgiveness of sins. Devout Catholics regard the hill with deep veneration, and many stories are told of the bodily ailments. It has become the resort of the halt, the maimed and the blind, who go there to seek supernatural relief. The hill was first brought to notice twenty years ago by Francis Sobers, a religious recluse who resided upon it. Sobers spent most of his time in praying and begging, and one day disappeared as mysteriously as he came. A second hermit appeared and lived a short time on the hill, increasing its reputation among devout Catholics. In 1856, Father Francis Xavier Paulhuber, formerly of St. Mary's church, Milwaukee, purchased the property, containing forty acres, from the government, and presented it to the diocese. A rough wooden cross was at first erected on the hill to serve as a guide to the pilgrims. Later a rude chapel of rough timber was erected, but this gave way to the present neat and substantial church building of brick with stone trimmings and stone foundation, which was erected four years ago. The church was consecrated by Archbishop Heiss in 1881. The summit of the hill affords the pilgrims a glorious view. Before him in pleasing undulations lie fertile fields and pastures interspersed by heavy woodlands. To the south, many miles distant, are the famous chain of Waubesa lakes, and the smoke of the rolling mills at Milwaukee, thirty-five miles away, is seen in the southeast. On a clear day, through a strong glass, some of the church spires of Milwaukee may be seen. The hill is between 800 and 1,000 feet above the level of Lake Michigan, and is said to be the highest hill in Wisconsin.

PERSONAL AND GENERAL. Harvey D. Phatt, agent of the Merchants Dispatch Freight Line in this city was married at Washington, D. C., on the 27th ult., to Miss Josephine E. Taylor. The young couple have arrived home and are now engaged in house hunting. The Light Horse squadron had its semi-annual muster Monday evening. The roll contains the names of seventy-one members in good standing, each having a complete set of accoutrements and all necessary outfit as required by the state. The remains of Chas. A. Avery, formerly connected with Peck's Sun, who died suddenly at Wausau, were brought to this city on Saturday and held at an undertaking establishment to await the arrival of the dead journalist's mother from Kansas. On Tuesday the remains were taken to Racine and interred, pursuant to a written request left by the deceased. Mr. Avery's life was insured for $3,000 in the Royal Arcanum, payable to his mother. About fifty members of the press of Wisconsin were banqueted at the exposition Tuesday afternoon. Fred E. Burgin has resigned the position of city editor of the Sentinel and betaken himself to New York city, where he will hereafter reside. It is understood that he will join the staff of the World. Mr. Burgin took with him an elegant gold headed cane, a gift from his Social associates. Henry E. Legler succeeds Mr. Burgin on the Sentinel.

CITY NOTICE.

OFFICE OF THE CITY TREASURER. ST. PAUL, MINN., OCTOBER 4, 1884.

All persons interested in the assessment for

The Construction of Sidewalks in front of the following described property: (Under contract of G. W. Reese (Estimate No. 4) for term beginning April 1, 1884, and ending November 1, 1884.)

WILL TAKE NOTICE,

that on the 29th day of September, 1884, I did receive a warrant from the City Comptroller of the City of St. Paul, for the collection of the above named assessments. The following is a list of the supposed owners' names, a description of the property in front of which walks have been built, repaired or reconstructed, and the amounts assessed against the same, to-wit:

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. East Third street, North side. St. Paul Proper.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Cedar street, East side. Litchfield's Subdivision of Block 1, Medill's Addition to St. Paul.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Cedar street, West side. St. Paul Proper.

East Third street, South side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. East Third street, South side. St. Paul Proper.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Exchange street, Northeast side. Rice & Irvine's Addition to St. Paul.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Exchange street, Southeast side. Rice & Irvine's Addition to St. Paul.

Fifth street, North side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Fifth street, North side. Kitson's Addition to St. Paul.

Fourthteenth street, North side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Fourthteenth street, North side. Tinker's Addition to St. Paul.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Ironquois street, South side. Clark's Addition to St. Paul.

Charles street, South side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Charles street, South side. Magoffin & Breckenridge's Addition to St. Paul.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Jackson street, East side. Tinker's Addition to St. Paul.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Lisbon street, South side. Whitacre, Brisbane & Mullen's Subdivision of Lots 1 and 2, Leech's Out Lots to St. Paul.

CITY NOTICE.

OFFICE OF THE CITY TREASURER. ST. PAUL, MINN., OCT. 4, 1884.

All persons interested in the assessments for

The Construction of Sidewalks in front of the following described property: (Under contract of G. W. Reese (Estimate No. 3) for term beginning April 1, 1884, and ending November 1, 1884.)

WILL TAKE NOTICE,

that on the 29th day of September, 1884, I did receive a warrant from the City Comptroller of the City of St. Paul, for the collection of the above named assessments. The following is a list of the supposed owners' names, a description of the property in front of which walks have been built, repaired or reconstructed, and the amounts assessed against the same, to-wit:

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Warren & Rice's Addition to St. Paul.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Decatur street, South side. Irvine's Second Addition to St. Paul.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Eaton Avenue, East side. Marshall's Addition to West St. Paul.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Eva Street, West side. Marshall's Addition to West St. Paul.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Exchange street, Northeast side. Rice & Irvine's Addition to St. Paul.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Exchange street, Southeast side. Rice & Irvine's Addition to St. Paul.

Fifth street, North side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Fifth street, North side. Kitson's Addition to St. Paul.

Fourthteenth street, North side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Fourthteenth street, North side. Tinker's Addition to St. Paul.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Ironquois street, South side. Clark's Addition to St. Paul.

Charles street, South side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Charles street, South side. Magoffin & Breckenridge's Addition to St. Paul.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Jackson street, East side. Tinker's Addition to St. Paul.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt. Lisbon street, South side. Whitacre, Brisbane & Mullen's Subdivision of Lots 1 and 2, Leech's Out Lots to St. Paul.

Warren & Rice's Addition to St. Paul.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Decatur street, South side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Eaton Avenue, East side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Eva Street, West side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Exchange street, Northeast side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Exchange street, Southeast side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Fifth street, North side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Fourthteenth street, North side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Ironquois street, South side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Charles street, South side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Ninth street, South side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Norris street, North side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Rosabel street, West side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Summit avenue, North side.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Whitney & Smith's Addition to St. Paul.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description, Lot, Block, Assmt.

Supposed owner and description.

Table with columns: Supposed owner and description