

VOL. VII

THE SIGNAL GUN.

All Ears Listening for the Report to Come from Buckeyedom.

Secretary of State Newman Believes He Will Have a Good Majority.

An Expose of Republican Methods of Colonizing Virginia Negroes and Other Fraudulent Voters.

Joe Pulitzer, of the "World," Gets a Congressional Nomination at the Hands of Tammany.

"Me Too" Platt, Takes the Inside Track for Lapham's New York Senatorial Shoes.

Connecticut Election—Butler Interrupted at Kalamazoo—Hendricks and Jingo Jim in West Virginia.

Bright Prospects in Ohio.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 6.—Secretary of State Jas. W. Newman returned Saturday from a tour of eight days in northern Ohio, and left for his home in Portsmouth to-day.

The previous night he addressed a rousing meeting at East Liverpool. During the trip Mr. Newman took the Democrats with him, where it is conceded that the Democrats will make large gains this year, and also the Western Reserve, where the Republicans are talking about gains.

Mr. Newman says: "I never saw the Democrats in Ohio working so enthusiastically and intelligently as in this campaign. I did not meet a single dependent Democrat in all my travels over the state. In the northwestern counties the outlook never was better. They will, without an exception of any special locality, give the largest Democratic majority that was ever known in that section. All of the county organizations up there have resolved to increase their majority over last year, and they are confident they can and will do it. They have a large reserve vote, and it will all be out next week."

"How do you find the outlook elsewhere?" Crossing over into the Western Reserve, I was gratifyingly surprised at the situation. I went there expecting a wet blanket and to find the Democrats discouraged and paralyzed. Blaine had been swinging around that section and Logan charging through it. I imagined our friends would be overwhelmed, but, to my surprise, I met here the most enthusiastic and jubilant Democrats that I found anywhere in the state."

"What effect did the presence of Blaine and Logan have?" The hippodrome has not frightened the Democrats at all. In fact, they are laughing at it. They said they expected to hold their own and in some places make heavy gains. The most gratifying meeting I had had was at Warren, Trumbull county, where Logan had just made a stand. In Mahoning county, and especially at Youngstown, the Democrats expect to make handsome gains. If the Republicans expect victory from gains on the Western Reserve they will be sadly disappointed. At one place there was a factory where fourteen Republicans had come out for Cleveland, and would vote the Democratic state ticket. They called themselves "The Floppers."

"How do you account for this outlook on the Western Reserve?" "Well, the Democratic gains here are due in a great measure to renivals as well as to many changes for reform in administrative affairs. In one county I know they fell short last year 1,200 votes. They said they could not find them, and investigation showed that about that number had moved away. In the northwestern counties the Democrats are constantly coming in to join the victorious side."

The following may explain as to some of the renivals that Mr. Newman learned of on Western Reserve. A gentleman wrote from Hillsdale, Mich., as follows: "I came from Three Rivers, Mich., last night. There were two carloads of people on special cars. There were sixty voters, all for Blaine. I talked with some of them and found that they moved two years ago from Warren and that vicinity, in Ohio, that they were on their way back to make a visit and would stay about two weeks. I think you had better look into the matter and have them watched. You can get further information from the conductor of the train by writing him at Toledo, care Lake Shore & Michigan Southern railroad. His name is O. B. Clark."

It is reported that in one precinct of the Ninth ward of this city over 200 negroes have been colonized for business one week from to-morrow. It is also said that efforts will be made here to poll fraudulent colored voters in the 11th ward.

Reports are being received daily at Democratic headquarters of the imposition of negroes. The people in Kentucky and Virginia tell of their departure from their respective places. Mr. Henry M. Trimble, formerly of Angaz county, Va., an old soldier who served with Ben Le Veve, writes that he meets gangs of negroes almost daily on cars en route for the north. He enclosed clippings of advertisements that are constantly appearing in Richmond papers all as follows:

WANTED—ONE HUNDRED COLORED coal miners to start to Ohio Tuesday evening, Sept. 30. Wages earned, from $2.50 to $3 per week. J. P. Justus, Employment Agent, No. 9 North Fifteenth street.

WANTED—TWO HUNDRED COLORED coal miners and laborers, with or without families, to be ready to start for Ohio Tuesday, Sept. 30. High wages. J. P. Justus, Employment Agent, No. 9 North Fifteenth street.

Mr. Trimble says these men are taken in charge by agents and located at different points in Ohio. He thinks most of them go to the Hocking and Mahoning valleys. These advices have caused the Democratic state committee to make an investigation, and they have finally got onto the men who are receiving the colored voters and placing them in this state.

Produce Men for Cleveland. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] GRAND FORKS, Dak., Oct. 6.—Ed Neustadt, chairman of the New York Produce and Maritime Exchange Independent Cleveland and Hendricks club, New York city, was here to-day. He said the club had already several hundred members and its membership was increasing daily. No one that has ever before voted the Democratic ticket is admitted. The club has already printed over half a million campaign documents, and sent them to every produce exchange in the United States. Mr. Neustadt to-day received a telegram from New York from the secretary of the club saying that Butler was being strength only in New York, and that Tammany would not give its strength to any other than Butler from Cleveland, and that New York state is sure for Cleveland. Mr. Neustadt left for Minneapolis to-day to encourage the produce exchange there, as they have already fallen in with the New York club and stretched a Cleveland and Hendricks banner in front of their building.

Tammany's Nominations. NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—Tammany hall made the following congressional nominations to-night: Sixth district, N. Muller; Seventh, John J. Adams; Eighth, S. S. Cox; Ninth, Joseph Pulitzer, editor of the World; Tenth, Abram S. Hewitt; Eleventh, John J. Harby; Twelfth, Orlando B. Potter; Thirteenth, Egbert L. Viele. The German Independent Citizen's association of the Sixth, Eighth and Tenth districts endorsed the Tammany candidates. In the other districts conference committees were appointed.

Counter Demonstrations. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] COLUMBUS, Oct. 6.—Members of county committee from points along Blaine's second route were at the Democratic state headquarters to-day and arrangements are completed to give Mr. Blaine a warm reception. The Democrats will hold meetings at all the stops made by the opposition party, and strive to outdo the Republicans in demonstrations, attendance and enthusiasm. As Blaine goes this time in the close districts and to many Democratic counties, it is thought that he will be overshadowed. Great efforts will be made to do it. The leading Democratic speakers of the country have been summoned to address the Democracy as the hippodrome passes by. There will be millions of documents strewn along the way, such as Brooks' letter charging Blaine with being connected with companies in the Hocking valley, where the strikers are up in arms, the Mulligan letters and other papers. Carl Schurz will be the speaker in this city when Blaine is here this week. Most of the Cleveland and Hendricks clubs of the state are arranging to concentrate at Lancaster Saturday night, where Blaine stops for the Sabbath, and on which occasion the Republicans are going to get up grand final demonstrations. As the feeling is now high there may be trouble, especially at Lancaster, where the processions of the two parties will pass on the same street.

All Want to be Senator. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.—There is more friction in the New York Republican state committee than Mr. Blaine's friends enjoy, and the trouble is that there are too many candidates for the United States senatorship, which Mr. Lapham gives up. There are Tom Platt, ex-Gov. Cornell, Whitelaw Reid, Chanany M. Dewey, Frank Hiseock, Collector Robertson and Chairman James D. Warren, all acting for it and working against one another. Warner Miller, too, is taking an active part in the fight, although efforts have thus far been directed toward beating Platt.

Now, Mr. Platt is doing the best sort of work for Blaine by raising the cash necessary to conduct the campaign. He is a Wall street man and is daily with Gould and Dillon and Huntington and the men whose schemes will be aided by Blaine's election. He has wrong contributions out of men whom other Republicans could not approach, and, in fact, he has done all of the successful work in this direction yet accomplished. The Warner-Miller crowd are consequently jealous of him. They have no special abilities themselves either for running a canvass or begging the cash that keeps it going. They fear that Platt is doing Mr. Blaine's cause so good good that, in the event of Mr. Blaine's election, results favorable to Platt may follow. In Platt's every move and suggestion they see only one motive—Platt's return to the senate. So they are all fighting Platt and Platt naturally is fighting back. This and the quarreling between the others is seriously hurting Mr. Blaine in New York state.

Cleveland at Work. ALBANY, Oct. 6.—Gov. Cleveland spent the day as usual, attending to routine business of his office. Solid With the Business Men. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Gen. John F. Farnsworth is in the city, and was asked for his political impression. "I think Mr. Cleveland will be elected," he replied. "Cleveland is peculiarly strong with the business men of the country and will get a very large vote that is never demonstrative. It is a vote that quietly votes its convictions. Now, I was in New York city when Cleveland was nominated, and the first man I met was Wm. Dowd, recently the Republican candidate for mayor."

"What do you think of the nomination of Cleveland, Mr. Dowd?" "I asked. He replied, "I am sorry to say that I think it is a very strong one."

"And," continued Gen. Farnsworth, "I have met that sentiment all over the country. Recently I traveled from Washington to Chicago and thence to Boston and naturally there was a good deal of discussion of politics on the cars. I would meet men—business men—who would ask me what I thought of the election. My reply invariably was that I thought Cleveland would be elected, but I always added that I was for him and might be biased in my judgment. Very frequently the response was 'Well, I am a Republican and have always voted the ticket, but I am going for Cleveland.' I tell you there is an enormous Republican vote in the country that will be cast for Cleveland."

Blaine in West Virginia. FAIRMONT, W. Va., Oct. 6.—Blaine's party left Wheeling at 10 o'clock this morning by special train for the Baltimore & Ohio road for Grafton. At the Wheeling depot there was quite a demonstrative crowd, and as the train moved slowly out of the city, workmen came out of their shops, and the people out of their houses and cheered. The first stop was at MOUNDVILLE.

The chairman of the Republican state committee introduced Blaine, who was warmly received. He said: "I am glad to meet the citizens of Marshall county, I am glad to be in West Virginia. I consider it one of the encouraging signals of the times that an earnest contest is going on in what was once a slave state for the ascendancy of Republican principles as Republican principles of this year mean a tariff for the protection of American labor. If West Virginia is in favor of that she is Republican, if she is opposed to it she is not Republican. The decision rests with her citizens. I know no state in the Union more directly interested in the promotion of manufactures than your state. Your rich beds of coal and iron, your vast forests, all your natural resources favor the great development of manufacturing industries. They can be developed under a high protective tariff. They cannot be without it."

At Cameron, Littleton, Mannington and Farmington there were brief stops, and at each point Blaine spoke briefly of the importance of West Virginia of a protective tariff. At Fairmont there was quite a large meeting, and Mr. Blaine left the train and addressed the meeting from a stand. Here, as at all the preceding points, the people were very enthusiastic.

AT GRAFTON. FAIRMONT, W. Va., Oct. 6.—At Grafton there was a large and remarkably enthusiastic meeting. The little mountain town was packed full of people from the surrounding country. Mr. Blaine was escorted to a stand where Hon. John W. Mason introduced him to the people. When the demonstrations with which he was received had subsided, he said: "Citizens of West Virginia, as your distinguished chairman has remarked, I am not a stranger to your state. I have known it personally for more than forty years, and I have known this section of it well. I was born on the banks of the river a few miles below the point where it enters Pennsylvania, and you do not need to be told by me that I have always unity of feeling among the inhabitants of the Monongahela valley. The West Virginia of forty years ago was comparatively a wilderness. The West Virginia of to-day is a prosperous and civilized state in the United States. West Virginia, as an independent commonwealth, began her existence during the civil war, and at that day, the most liberal estimate of total property according to the enumeration of the United States census, did not exceed one hundred millions of dollars. In 1870 the census gave you an aggregate of one hundred and ninety millions, and in 1880 it showed that you possessed a capitalized wealth to the amount of three hundred and thirty millions of dollars. From the close of the war to the year 1880, West Virginia had, therefore, gained in wealth the enormous sum of two hundred and fifty millions. You have faced pretty well, therefore, under Republican administration. Profoundly as I appreciate the honor to listen to me and I would ask him as a candid man what agency was it that nerve the arm of industry to smite the mountains and create this wealth in West Virginia? It was the tariff, and a financial system that gave you good money. Before the war you never had circulating in your midst a bank bill that would pass current five hundred miles from home. You do not to-day have a single piece of paper money in circulation in West Virginia. It is not good all around the globe; not a bill that will not pass certainly in the money markets of Europe as in New York or Baltimore. So that the man who works for day's wages knows when Saturday night comes that he is not going to get any more money. Under the protective tariff your coal industries and your iron industries and the wealth of your forests have been brought out, and it is for you voters of West Virginia to say whether you want this to continue or whether you want to try the experiment of free trade. I say with all respect that there is not a Democratic statesman on the stump in West Virginia conspicuous enough to be known to the nation (I speak only of those I know) who advocates a protective tariff. I do not know of any such statesman who will acknowledge that a tariff for protection is constitutional, and therefore, as honest men, they are bound to oppose it. The Morrison tariff bill would have struck at the interest of West Virginia in many vital points, and it is a sad fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it will not be helped. I make bold to say that the tariff is a protective tariff, and it must not be expected to be sustained for her by others. If she wants the benefit of a protective tariff she must give to a protective tariff the benefit of her support. I am glad that I am addressing to West Virginia not to vote upon a tradition or a prejudice, but to vote upon a fact that representatives in congress from West Virginia voted for that bill. There is a good old adage which I beg to recall to your minds, that 'God helps those who help themselves,' and if West Virginia is not willing to help itself, it