

MINNEAPOLIS NEWS.

The Minneapolis office of the DAILY GLOBE has been removed to 213 Hennepin avenue.

The Daily Globe can be found on every morning at the following news stands:

Nicollet House news stand, St. James Hotel, 101 South Washington, W. H. Gendish, 601 South Washington, W. E. St. John, 517 Cedar Avenue, H. J. Worth, Central Exchange, Geo. A. Morse, 200 Central Exchange, E. A. Taylor, 220 Hennepin Avenue, C. R. Murphy, 206 Hennepin Avenue, H. Hooper, 1221 Washington Avenue North, and Helderly & Co., 55 Central Avenue.

Democratic Judicial Convention, Fourth District. A Democratic convention of the Fourth Judicial District will be held at Turner's hall in the city of Minneapolis, Minn., on Wednesday, the 8th day of October, 1884, at 10 o'clock a. m.

The counties in said district are entitled to delegates therein as follows, viz: Anoka, 3; Hennepin, 3; Isabella, 1; Wright, 8.

The Academy of sciences will meet this evening. The board of trade will hereafter hold weekly meetings.

The Washburn Mill company has re-elected its old board of officers. During the past five weeks W. M. Stundieff has lost five children from diphtheria.

Francis Murphy will continue his temperance work in this city during the present week. The second ward Democrats will organize a Cleveland and Hendricks club this evening.

The Ruthries will hold a meeting this evening at Higgins' hall, in South Minneapolis. Matts Isaacson was yesterday adjudged insane by the probate court, and committed to St. Peter.

To-morrow evening a meeting of the Seventh Ward Democratic club will be held at Ebert's hall, South Minneapolis. Twenty-two warranty deeds were yesterday filed with the register of deeds, the considerations of which amounted to $46,140.50.

The Fourth Ward Democratic club will meet on Wednesday evening, instead of Friday evening, as heretofore announced. Sid France's play is "Marked for Life."

If he holds out long enough the play threatens to have the largest run on record. The board of tax levy will meet to-day, but is expected to adjourn over to the next day because of the sickness of one of the members.

Butler says he won't wager $50 with Mart in a wrestling match, but is willing to put up $25. Mart will take it and don't you forget it. Prof. Danz' orchestra of twenty-five pieces rendered a choice programme at Turner hall yesterday afternoon. Hundreds of people attended.

At the rehearsal of the Flour City minstrel last evening, it was decided to show at Duluth Friday evening next week. A special card will be provided. A plat of the rearrangements of lots 15 and 16, block 1, Bradford's addition, was yesterday filed with the register of deeds. The addition lies on Lyndale Avenue, near Bassett's creek.

Prof. A. J. Dexter, who has been dangerously ill, since his return to the city, from an attack of neuralgia of the brain, had sufficiently recovered to leave for Chicago last evening. It seems to be an understanding that Sunday concerts will be allowed to run until after election. The Republican nominees on the county ticket have made the request. After election the screws will be put on again.

The Fifth ward Cleveland and Hendricks club will meet this evening at 8 o'clock at Window hall, corner of Washington and Second Avenue south. Hon. O. C. Merriam, H. P. Herring and others will make addresses.

Ed. O'Reilly and John Mackey, the two men arrested by Officer Kirkham for holding up Nicholas McHenry, of Dakota, are still in the lockup, and will probably be arraigned this morning. Joseph Mills gave, in the municipal court yesterday, as an excuse for stealing that coat on Sunday, that he was drunk. He paid a fine of $1.50 and seemed satisfied that he got off luckily.

It is supposed that the Minneapolis & St. Louis railway fire was of incendiary origin, and Chas. W. Woods has been arrested on suspicion. His friends, however, are confident that he is innocent. In the district court yesterday Minnie B. Weld was granted a divorce from her husband, Luther R. Weld; Susan L. Burke was also granted a divorce from Theodore D. Burke, the custody of children and $300 permanent alimony.

Loren Fletcher says the Pioneer led him to declare that he had buried the hatchet and was willing to support Gillilan. The Gillilanites can rest assured that Fletcher is on the rampage and that it will be Gil, who will be a hell of a fix this time. A. J. Black, the man who attempted to break into Burton's clothing store on Saturday night, and was apprehended by the merchant's police, waived an examination yesterday. He was held to the grand jury, and in default of bonds in $500 was remanded to custody.

Judgments were yesterday entered up in the district against F. M. Upham and E. H. Upham for $7,134.35, and against E. A. Upham for $2,643.89. The suits were brought by the security bank on preliminary notes. A man made a sneak on a small book case at Boutell's second hand store, 207 Nicollet Avenue last evening, and the property was found in the room of a young man at 82 Washington Avenue south. He claimed he did not do the stealing, and was allowed to go in the absence of proof positive. Some boys found floating in the river at Twenty-third Avenue south a man's leg in a decomposed condition. The member had evidently been amputated as the marks of the surgeon's saw and knife were plain. The leg was fractured at the knee and ankle.

Anna Clair is again before the criminal court. This time at the instance of Henry Kruswilde. She is charged with selling liquor at her place, on Third Avenue south, without a license. Her trial is set for the 14th. Maria Wille, she languishes in duress in default of bonds in $200. The Journal acknowledges that the Democrats have placed a very fair ticket in the district, however, the Democrats have placed in the field two notably strong candidates, viz: Frank L. Morse and Judge Isaac Atwater. The Republicans in that district will have to work hard if they defeat these experienced politicians and legislators.

James H. Millhollen and Minnie Faber, Henry Saldon and Maggie Adelman, Mike McHenry and Annie Honser, Walter Burgess and Carrie Elder, Frank Hoag and Augusta Fogelberg, Jacob Kohler, George Baer, Edward D. Kingland and Lida E. Pope, John Schae and Leno Fischer, George Baer and Amelia Olson, Alfred Roper and Annie L. Whitcomb were yesterday granted marriage licenses.

The regular meeting of the Sixth Ward Democratic club was held last evening at Martin's hall, South Washington Avenue, and despite the humidity of the atmosphere a large number of enthusiastic Democrats were in attendance. Stirling addresses were made by the Hon. Mathew Walsh, D. B. Johnson, P. F. Swenson, John Lally, W. E. St. John, and others. The reading of the club speeches will be given by Anton Grethen, Dr. Ames and D. B. Johnson.

Nelson & Swansons, saloon keepers at No. 1319 South Washington Avenue, were arrested yesterday at the instance of officer Grace, and a fine of $35 satisfied the desires of justice.

Col. John T. West, the millionaire land lord, returned to Minneapolis yesterday. He will only remain long enough, however, to transact certain business matters which will leave for Cincinnati, which place he will probably make his nominal home in the future.

Goodhue & Butts, a Nicollet Avenue wall paper firm, made an assignment yesterday. John C. Hall brought an action in the municipal court for a writ of attachment, alleging as a ground for the cause that the firm had made an assignment and had secreted goods with intent to defraud creditors.

Yesterday Detective Gleason ran down the burglar who got away with $1,000 worth of jewelry by breaking into J. Zuckerman's jewelry store at No. 530 Washington Avenue south. The prisoner says his name is John Smith and that he hails from Colorado. This is an evidence that he is endeavoring to hide his identity. On his person was found $300 worth of the goods stolen.

Wm. Norman and David Ray, the two men arrested for burglarizing the Benson Bros. clothing store at No. 225 South Washington Avenue, were arraigned in the municipal court yesterday. They waived an examination and were held to the grand jury in $1,000 bonds. He had confessed his guilt to the detectives. Norman refused to waive and his examination will occur to-day.

The loss suffered by the burning of the carpenter shop of the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway company, proves more serious than was supposed. The loss will reach $30,000, but it is fully covered by a policy in the Phoenix of London, represented by E. B. Ames. The shop contained, besides the machinery, two passenger coaches, one combination car, seven flat cars, and two box cars. It is estimated that $2,000 worth of tools belonging to the workmen were also destroyed. The building will be reconstructed at once on a more extensive scale.

Hon. E. M. Wilson has gone on an eastern trip. N. P. Clark and family, of St. Cloud, are in the city. Geo. T. Wallace, of Scotland, is registered at the West. Dr. J. B. Moffett has gone on a short trip to eastern cities. C. M. Coe, editor of the Victoria, B. C., Times, is visiting in the city.

Frank L. Crocker has gone to Winnipeg to give a lecture on bridge building. Rev. W. W. Satterlee goes to Duluth to-day to attend the state M. E. conference. W. J. Ives and Wm. E. Harrington, prominent business men of Hutchinson, are in the city.

Dion Boucault and Joseph Jefferson were the guests of Long Meadow golf club Sunday. J. H. Bosard, F. R. Fulton, W. J. Anderson were Grand Forks people in the city yesterday.

Prof. A. J. Dexter left for Chicago last evening, having partially recovered from the sickness which has prostrated him. E. A. Green, Philadelphia; C. A. Dyer, St. Louis; O. Lindblom, Chicago; J. N. Bradley, Lake Wales; S. P. Goodhue, Lake Inwood, D. T. were visitors at the chamber of commerce yesterday.

C. V. Whitten, of Boston, is in the city. He is one of the owners of the Boston block. Col. John T. West, C. W. Shepherd and J. C. Shepherd, the latter a brother of the manager of the West hotel, arrived yesterday from Chicago. Col. West after a few weeks' rest expects to return to Cincinnati.

THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. $1,000 Appropriated for the Portland Avenue Extension—Other Business. At the meeting of the county commissioners yesterday the following business was transacted. Present—Commissioners Chown, Gilman, Schaefer and President Austin. The overseer of the poor farm presented the following report: Receipts—Board of inmates, $181.71. Expenditures—Hired help, $116; number of inmates Sept 1st, 41; received during the month, 6; cared for, 47; discharged, 3; died, 1; number of inmates Oct. 1, 44.

The committee appointed August 5 concerning the change in highway in the north-east quarter of section 10, town 117, range 23, reported in favor of the change. The St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway company agreeing to maintain the bridge across its right of way at that place. One hundred dollars was appropriated for the expense of the reports of the St. Paul, Minneapolis & Manitoba railway company concerning the special laws affecting Hennepin county, prepared by the county attorney, was referred to Commissioners Gilmore and Austin to be reported upon at the next meeting.

Bids for furnishing coal and wood for the court house, jail and poor farm were opened and referred to Commissioners Gilmore and Schaefer. Bills amounting to $6,991 were ordered paid. Ten thousand dollars was appropriated to be expended on the Portland Avenue extension in Minneapolis. One hundred and fifty dollars were appropriated to aid in defraying the expense of the examination of the work of the Hennepin county schools at the New Orleans exposition.

THE BOARD OF TRADE. The $10,000 Note to Secure a Fund for the New Orleans Exhibition "A Bird's-Eye View of the World's Exposition." The board of trade appointed E. S. Conner as secretary of the committee to raise the $10,000 note to raise funds to defray the expenses attending the New Orleans exhibit, reported that he had called upon the National Bank of Commerce, and found that they were willing to cash the note provided forty responsible citizens endorsed it. He had only secured thirteen names. The board of trade appointed E. S. Conner as an addition to the committee. It was decided to raise a fund for the purpose of circulating a large number of copies of the hand-book to Minneapolis, and the matter of raising money was referred to the committee on finance and city affairs. The resignation of G. A. Wheaton as director, was referred to the executive committee. R. Klump, of Seattle, Wyoming territory, sent a communication respecting his scheme of a hand book for the New Orleans exposition, and the same was given reference. A communication from the United States senate committee on transportation routes to the sea ports was read by Mayor Pillsbury. The board of trade for the years 1873 to 1883 inclusive, and the secretary was instructed to mail them. It was proposed to make a change in the hours of holding meetings, but after a discussion it was held on the table. Adjourned for one week. Judge Young's Liens. To the Editor of the Globe: I desire to say through your paper (it can not be said through so contemptible a paper as the Tribune) that the editorial in the Tribune of yesterday (Sunday) on the judgeship, written evidently by a premium liar, is false in every particular. Mr. Young does not profess a single qualification absolutely necessary in a judge. The Tribune knows that the bar did not recommend him, but did in a most forcible manner declare his unfitness for the position. The fact that he is open to serious criticism by all classes, irrespective of party, is a conclusive objection to his candidacy. The Tribune, why does it dare to deliberately lie? Shame upon such an editor, a desecration of the chair. But he is a brother dealer with the judge. Will there be in the Republican convention no men to save the district from a judicial tyrant and incubus? No one to save us from a threatened disaster!

Snow, drunkenness; committed five days. W. A. Jones, drunkenness; paid a fine in $5.50. Joe Riley, drunkenness; committed ten days. Wm. Norman, larceny from the store of Benson Bros.; continued until this afternoon; remanded in default of bond in the sum of $1,000. Black, attempted larceny from the Boston clothing store; examination waived and defendant held to await the action of the grand jury in $500 bonds; committed in default of bail. Anna Clam, selling liquor without a license; continued until October 14th in $300 bonds; remanded in default of bail. A Wrestling Match. In Sunday's GLOBE was published a challenge by Sil. Most, of Hudson, to Adam Butler, of Minneapolis, to wrestle collar and elbow for $50 a side. Or rather the challenge was that Butler could not win a single fall in three trials. In answer Butler's organ last night said: "Most, with whom Butler had a wrestling contest at Hudson, is in the city and wants to make a match. Mr. Butler stated to a Journal reporter to-day that inasmuch as Most was forty-five pounds the heavier man, it would be foolishness on his part to risk money in a contest unequal. However, just to keep the fun going, he will make a match for $25—but not for another dashed cent—added he."

Both gentlemen called at the Globe office and consummated preliminary arrangements for a collar and elbow wrestling match to occur in Mark's hall on Tuesday night of next week for $25 a side and the entire receipts of the contest. The contestants agreed that Prof. C. O. Duplessis should be the referee, and that the first bout should occur at 8:30 o'clock, and a forfeit of $5 each was placed in the writer's hands. As Butler has never been thrown in this city he has many friends, and great interest is being felt in match and the hall will probably be well filled.

WORTHINGTON. [Special Correspondence of the Globe.] WORTHINGTON, Oct. 6.—The Democratic county convention for Nobles county held here, was promptly called to order at 1 p. m., and called up by H. C. Shepard, chairman of county committee, who was elected president of the convention and Jens Langseth secretary. It was deemed inexpedient to nominate a county ticket as the only officers to be elected are county attorney and court commissioner, and the Republicans having made good nominations for these offices. H. C. Shepard, John M. Gran and W. A. Peterson were elected delegates to the representative convention to be held at Fulda, Murray county, on the 8th inst. After the Democratic convention had adjourned a Prohibition convention was convened, which nominated C. C. Christianson for court commissioner, and Peter Thompson for county commissioner of this district, but making no nomination for county attorney, which leaves L. M. Lange, the Republican nominee, a clear field. A Prohibition representative convention was also held, which nominated W. J. McAlister, of Murray county, as its candidate. He is said to be a merchant of Clayton, Murray county, and will undoubtedly carry the whole Prohibition strength, although it is thought by some that he will be withdrawn before election, with a request that all Prohibitionists vote for the regular Republican nominee, Mr. Peterson, who also lives near Clayton. We have not been visited by frost yet, and grass is still green. Fall plowing and threshing well under way. Crops all good, especially corn and flax.

NEWPORT. [Special Correspondence of the Globe.] NEWPORT, Oct. 5.—On Thursday, Oct. 2, the mercury stood at 88 in the shade. No frost here yet. Mr. L. E. Everett returned from Big Stone last week, and will spend the winter here. Mrs. J. H. Haganin returned last Friday from the east, much pleased with her visit among relatives and old acquaintances. Mrs. J. D. Moore, of Devils Lake, formerly a resident here, is spending a few weeks very pleasantly with relatives and numerous old friends in this vicinity. Mr. John A. Ford had several crabapple trees in bloom in September, and if the frost holds off long enough will have another crop of apples this fall. The church festival which was appointed for last week, on account of the severe rain storms which had been during the week did not come off as expected; but, Providence permitting and nothing else interfering, will take place at Good Templars hall to-morrow (Friday) evening, Oct. 7.

SAUK RAPIDS. [Special Correspondence of the Globe.] SAUK RAPIDS, Oct. 6.—On Saturday evening Sheriff John F. Quinn made the arrest of Daniel Chapel, charged with horse stealing, in the woods near Princeton, Chapel is now in the Benton county jail to await trial. ADRAIN, MINN. One of the Most Thriving Villages on the C. St. P. M. & O. Railroad. Adrian, in the western part of Nobles county, has a population of about one thousand, and is one of the most thriving villages in the southwestern portion of the state. It stands about 100 miles west of the center of Nobles county with no other rival in sight, being eighteen miles west of Worthington and fifteen miles east of Luverne. The nearest town on the north is thirty-two miles, the nearest on the south, twenty miles. It is on the line of the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha railroad, surrounded by as fine a farming region as the sun ever shown upon. The Kaukaunzi river runs through the corporation and furnishes an abundant water supply for all practical purposes. It has a public park planted to trees fifteen to thirty feet high. The streets are well graded and the sidewalks wide and extensive. It has a good frame public school building, at present containing but two departments, but will soon be enlarged to three. The English branches, higher mathematics and natural sciences are taught. The organized churches are the Catholic and Methodist Episcopal. The Catholics own a very tasty church edifice and the Methodists have one in process of erection. The law is represented by L. S. Nelson, who has been there five years, and who practices in the state and federal courts. Real estate is handled by L. S. Nelson & Co., who have an acre of 600 acres of well land and a large number of improved farms and town lots. The bank of Adrian, J. R. Jones cashier, and that of Mylius Bros., furnish the banking facilities. Dr. M. Sullivan is the only physician, who looks after the bodies, while the Rev. C. M. Sturtevant (Catholic) and J. H. Buttman, Methodist, have an eye to the souls of the people. The dealers in general merchandise are A. M. Becker, J. R. Jones & Co., McKenzie & Evans, Joe Cowin and Uveling Bros.; groceries, E. C. Chapman, who is also the "Pebony" of the place, hardware, L. C. Clemons and A. G. Lindgren; druggists, A. J. Rice; harness, A. Hyke and S. J. Titus; boot and shoe stores, Lays & Keller and Jno. Myers; millinery, Miss Anna Hendricks and Mrs. J. M. Roderick; and there are also three grain warehouses. The large flouring mill of J. Belford & Son, manufactures by roller process, and makes large shipments for the general market. There are two lumber yards, one by J. Belford & Son, and there are two hotels, that of L. S. Roberts and the Coleman house, and the restaurant of L. S. Barnett where a hungry traveler can always be accommodated with a good, clean, square meal. There are the usual number of blacksmiths, carpenters, wagon and repair shops, where everything is built and repaired from a wooden leg to a Corliss engine. Last but not least in the line of industries there is a good barber shop and two meat millinery stores, those of Miss Anna Hendricks and Mrs. J. M. Roderick. Objects of special interest are the residences of F. J. Porter, A. J. Rice, E. I. Casper and A. M. Becker. The first three are very fine houses, but Mr. Becker's, now in process of completion, will be the largest as well as the most imposing in the city. In design and finish it has few equals west of St. Paul. The grounds will be equally ample and magnificent. Mr. Becker's large double store, 100 feet deep, filled with $15,000 to $20,000 worth of goods is also worthy of mention. The reading public will not fail to note the business enterprise of this thriving little town; and when I add that the community at large is highly moral and intelligent, supporting a local paper, the Guardian, which is the most important in the county, and county, they will see that the element of growth and prosperity are abundant and active.

BELLE PLAINE. [Special Correspondence of the Globe.] BELLE PLAINE, Oct. 6.—A sad accident occurred here on Saturday. John Conlin, an old and respected citizen, one of the first settlers of Carver county, having settled there in 1855, on his road home when passing the depot, his team was frightened, and becoming unmanageable, threw the old gentleman out of the wagon and he was caught between the hind wheel of the wagon and the box, and was carried in that condition about half way up the approach to the iron bridge where he fell. He was very badly bruised about the head and body so bad that he died in less than fifteen minutes after the accident. Mr. Conlin was sixty-five years of age and leaves four children. H. Pleviot's store building was sold at auction to-day for $1,175. We understand that John Sullivan was the purchaser. Mr. Loomis, the representative of the GLOBE, added quite a number of names to the subscription list of the best daily in the state. Some heads are quite thick since the county convention at this end of the county. The court house ring proved themselves too sharp for the big guns from Belle Plaine, and the consequence is that another convention are the order of the day, which is the usual state of things here about election time. Another accident occurred Saturday. As the evening train west passed this place, some gentleman on route for St. Peter, in getting off fell and was pretty badly hurt. He was taken aboard the train by his guards.

KASSON. [Special Correspondence of the Globe.] KASSON, Oct. 6.—A daring burglary was committed at this place Saturday night. The residence of D. K. Dibble was entered from a back window and ransacked, the burglar obtaining from the pants of Mr. Dibble between $8 and $9, and about $2 from his father-in-law, Mr. Chase, an old gentleman ninety-four years old. In a stand drawer near his bed Mr. Chase had two $30 gold pieces which were not found. Mr. Dibble was awakened by a noise in the direction of the room occupied by Mr. Chase, but thought nothing of it, as Mr. frequently got up during the night and often went out doors, so nothing was thought strange when a man walked past the door, but soon Mr. Dibble got up and then found Mr. Chase asleep, and going to the back door saw the burglar coolly walking away towards the barn. Mr. Dibble immediately called with a double barreled shot gun and went out, but could find no one, and being a cripple from a broken leg, could not follow him. Chloroform was freely used, and the odor from the drug pervaded the house all day Sunday. There was an unsuccessful attempt to enter the residence of Mr. Perry Nelson the same night, probably by the same party. Report came to this place yesterday of the suicide of a young man in the neighboring town of Milton Saturday afternoon. The name of the suicide was Rudolph Bumgartner, aged about twenty-two years and son of Melchor Bumgartner, a former resident of Mantorville. It appears the young man went into the woods and got a rope, saying there was a big tree in the grove he wished to kill. Nothing more was seen or heard of him until Sunday morning, when his body was found, he having evidently shot himself directly in the forehead. No cause can be assigned for the rash act. The Internal Machinery. Even when we go to sleep, the complicated apparatus of the inner man is continually at work. Heart, lungs, liver, kidneys and all, keep at work from birth until death. How important it is that all these should be in perfect order! Let any of them run down, or let the blood become impoverished, and the result is disease. It is in the "Brown's" that the life is the sure restorative. Witness, for instance, the case of Mrs. Gillespie, of San Antonio, Texas, who was for a long time a great sufferer. She says, "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters for dyspepsia and general debility with great benefit."

OUR FASHION LETTER. New York Fashions—Winter Millinery: Cloaks; Street Dresses; Evening Costumes; Visiting Costumes; October Notes. (Special Correspondence of the Globe.) New York, October 4th. Pert little embroidered bonnets have driven away ostentatious millinery in the past few days. Embroidery indeed is the coming hobby; a grand race will be run and the fortunate one who can wear a seventy-five dollar embroidered crown will be counted winner. In these model crowns ornamentation exceeds that which is ornamented: one is told that camel's hair is the foundation but a superscription of evocatively wrought gilt excludes it from view and we take it on trust. Descending from such sublime height, we find embroideries where a velvet or satin foundation is visible but upon all manner of devices are adroitly executed: medallion, layenge, floral and Eastern patterns being seen while intermixtures of ribbons. These braids in truth are constantly apparent in millinery and peeping from the rim of some modest specimen afford a stylish glimmer. Laces are heavily laden with metal interweavings and in gradual gradation to the plain, are chosen where effects of lightness are desirable. They impart a broken outline to the peaked bonnets or lie in soft contrast beside the envious feathered medleys that are placed as a finish on fashionable fronts. One would think indeed that Sitting Bull on exhibition had caught a yearning for the feather which he wears above his forehead. At all events we have many imitations, and groups of four or five dyed chicken feathers stand erect as an outcome from patched together breasts, while as a further example of the bizarre let me tell of a modest assemblage of such feathers from which extends a pair of bird's feet. This was at a recently refined millinery establishment. In different styles come beautiful chenille imitations of berries or acorns with attendant leaves. Nature is not consulted as to color, but they are none the less pretty and are tasteful as they are novel. Let no one think however that simplicity is abandoned, for nothing on the contrary can be more unobtrusive than some felt capote modestly trimmed with plain velvet.

NEW CLOAKS. Make way for the bustle, either by an ample tube giving room for it or by plaitings and puffings which help on the good work if they do not entirely accomplish it. Everything is devised for at least some puffery at the back, the more the better in a fashionable view. As long as the bustle has been the doctor's bill nothing can be longer, convenient or enough in case of emergency as the dress is not visible, and from such extreme limit, we see ascending gradations till the border land of jacketness is reached, where the field opens up to an equal candidacy from the part of the mantilla and dolman family. Frieze stuffs will play a large part in outdoor garments as every where else in dress this winter. Students people will gladly avail themselves of that which may give breadth and will have garments made entirely of such cloth, or goods or in combination with something plain and this will be the more readily brought about since all kinds of material even the richest show frise varieties and combinations of two or even three fabrics are fashionable. Very stylish results will be brought about by mixing in outdoor garments of cloth with plain, rough or frise. Black cloth is at a discount and will be held in contempt beside dahlia, plum, stone, gray blue and reddish browns. Braiding again comes in as an element in all kinds of garments, Jersey webbing in fact, and is used in all kinds of garments, say that velvet, plain, broadened, uncut or frise will stand in rivalry to rich silks and satins.

STREET AND INDOOR. Americans are beginning to realize the wide difference between indoor and outdoor wear and as an outcome we find special style attached to plain cloths suits of some elegant, dark color. Even the vanity of a trimming is discarded for a plain tailor finish, and those severe but extremely tasteful street suits have affected other wool goods where nothing pleases more than simplicity. Tinsely is an abhorrence, being reserved for the proper and the proper which is becoming more and more gorgeous. Unspeakable is the grandeur of broadcades; plain velvet, silks and satins serve only as effects, or when worn alone are so extravagantly relieved by lace, tulle or exquisite passementerie as to make the plain fabric itself a thing in place of principals. It is chiefly in the latter case that artificial flowers are being employed with more freedom than formerly. The rage for natural flowers is declining because of speedily withering and are now often used in most appropriate ways for complete toilette of plain fabric with a few corresponding also put in the hair. Combinations of velvet, silk or satin with finishings of lace, chenille fringe on passementerie are the foundations from which arise however a far greater number of costumes for carrying over visiting, smaller gatherings etc. The prominence of velvet or the fine quality Nonpareil velvet is very apparent, the latter being in unprecedented demand owing to its richness of pile and the fact that it is brought out in all the new colors both for day and evening. For children's wear it is extremely popular.

OCTOBER NOTES. The cut velvet, Ottoman silk or satin afford choices for wedding dresses, often with broadcades, frise stuffs or frise figured fabrics in combination. Lord and Taylor issue this season a series of pamphlets so full of information on all departments of dress that after reading them I fear the ladies will scarce care to read my letters. Bronze slips with bronze hosiery to match will be a leading color for dressy occasions but changeable hosiery showing blue and gold, bronze and red, and blue and other stylish unities will also be much worn. Neck dresses for indoors is as elaborate as ever and kerchiefs, plastrons and jabots of fine white lace or embroidery give opportunity for a great deal of pleasing extravagance. Black lace is still stylish and may be relieved by a spray of flowers. Accordion platings are genuine novelties where in boxes on counters repose dress patrons a portion of which have been pressed by machinery into folds that open out at pleasure. Often they extend the length of the skirt. A Texas Steer on a Bum. Jersey City, N. J., Oct. 6.—Two Texas steers escaped from the stock yards this afternoon.
