YESTERDAY'S MARKET. On 'change wheat advanced 1/4 cent; oats were 1/4 cent; and the market generally was firmer. At Milwaukee wheat advanced 3/4 cent, and at Chicago it closed 1/2 cent better than Tuesday.

MECHANICAL dentistry offers profitable and suitable employment for women, says a Philadelphia dentist. THERE seems to be a demand for Democratic papers this year. The edition of the New York World last Sunday was 115,000.

Blaine has written a letter to Billee McKinley denying that he was a Know Nothing or edited an organ of that party. AIN'T getting rather warm in Ohio. It looks as though it might be hot at Lancaster on Saturday night when the Republican and Democratic processions meet on the same street.

UPON the seventh page of the GLOBE a telegram from Cincinnati announces the death of Mrs. Huntington, formerly Mrs. Shumway, of $300,000 to Bishop Whipple for education use at Fairport, N. Y.

WHEN a gentleman of the calibre of "Judge" Tourgee, of carpet bag fame, is extolled as among the chief Blaine advocates the party founded by Chase, Seward, Lincoln and other giants of the generation, appears to have pretty nearly run to seed, and of a poor quality at that.

BLAINE A KNOW NOTHING EDITOR. Blaine Journals falsely deny that James G. Blaine was ever a Know Nothing. He was one of the editors of the Kennebec Journal, in 1856, and that year supported, Fillmore and Donaldson, for President and Vice President, the Know Nothing candidates, styled "the American Ticket."

THE AMERICAN TICKET. FOR PRESIDENT, MILLARD FILLMORE, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, ANDREW J. DONALDSON, OF TENNESSEE. "Put None but Americans on Guard."

THE SCORPION'S LASH. In 1850 ex-Secretary Geo. S. Boutwell, of Massachusetts, was an ardent Grant man, and his chief argument was that if Grant was not nominated Blaine would be an event which he declared would be a ruinous calamity to the Republican party and infinitely injurious to the country.

Washington Board of Health. WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The board of health keeps a form of existence, although it has no appropriation this year and has to shift for itself pecuniarily. The resignation of Dr. Johnson, of Chicago, is still unacted upon, but there is said to be little prospect of concession in accordance with which, as soon as Dr. Johnson's resignation is accepted, Mr. Dunwoody, the present chief clerk, is to be appointed a member of the board from Iowa and then elected secretary.

Washington Board of Health. WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The board of health keeps a form of existence, although it has no appropriation this year and has to shift for itself pecuniarily.

mainly to oppose the protective tariff, because it still, even in the manufacturing districts, the East. Since then the manufacturing industries of the country have traveled westward until Ohio has become one of the largest manufacturing states in the Union. And it is not only in the manufacturing districts that the protective tariff has become a great agricultural and great manufacturing interest.

The Enthralled Yell of the West Virginians for Cleveland Still Ringing in the Kennebec Citizen's Ears. Logan Doesn't Fancy a Remark Made to Him by a Man in a Crowd and Spits in His Face. Steve Elkins' Hippodrome Continues to Lash its Affections on the Buckeye Populace.

A Million for Votes. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A stalwart Republican candidate for the West Virginia legislature, the information of an important and startling character has just come into my possession, which I feel it my duty to give to the public. I have long been a Republican and a stalwart, but I believe the success of the Republican party, with such an infamous man as James G. Blaine, is a disgrace to the party and a calamity to the country.

Logan's Trip to Philadelphia. WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Gen. Logan, accompanied by a delegation of the Young Republican club of Philadelphia, left this morning for Philadelphia. WILMINGTON, Oct. 8.—At 12:30 p. m. Logan entered the opera house arm in arm with Mayor Dennis. The cheering and the applause were loud and long. Logan was introduced by the people. He expressed his pleasure in being welcomed to the city and his appreciation of the honor.

Blaine's West Virginia Reception. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 8.—Mr. Blaine ended his West Virginia tour yesterday and departed for Canton, Ohio. The two days he spent within our borders must not only have convinced him of the utter futility of trying to make West Virginia Republican, but must have demonstrated to him the last degree of his own impotence in the matter.

Logan's Temper Gets the Best of Him. CHARLESTON, W. Va., Oct. 8.—Last Monday evening while Gen. John A. Logan was speaking from the platform of the city square, a solitary marching club was formed in front of every aspect. Republicans here are terribly chagrined at the result of the visit, which is doubly disastrous after the royal reception given to Hendricks on Saturday.

Blaine's Movements. MASSILLON, Oct. 8.—Mr. Blaine, accompanied by Hon. Wm. McKinley, arrived at Massillon, Ohio, yesterday morning. The scenery between the two places is very beautiful, and as the weather was fair, the carriage ride was refreshing from railroad travel.

The Straight Out Withdrawal. RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 8.—At a meeting of the straight out Republican state committee to-day, Gen. W. C. Wickham, J. F. Desondor and G. C. Cock resigned. A resolution was adopted withdrawing the entire electoral college and resigning the members of the committee present there was only one dissenting voice to the action taken.

Doktor's Nomination. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] FANCO, Dak., Oct. 8.—At the Republican legislative convention to-day for the north district, D. H. Twomey, of Cass, and C. D. Austin, of Ransom, were nominated for the council, and A. B. Lockin, of Cass, S. C. Stubbins, and P. J. McGee, of Richland, and S. W. Wilkins, of Dickey, for representatives.

number of citizens mostly of Scandinavians, therefore Republicans, composed the audience, who had to a last resort accept Blaine and St. John volunteer speakers from the crowd. At the close of the meeting the chairman called for the names of Blaine and Logan, and the names were answered by cheering and loud almost unanimously for Cleveland and Hendricks to be the next president and vice president.

STATE POLITICS. A Democratic Rouser. [Special Correspondence of the Globe.] SHERY, Pa., Oct. 7.—The campaign was opened here last night by a rousing meeting addressed by Hon. J. J. Thornton, the Democratic nominee for congress in the Second district, and F. L. Randall, Esq., of New Union. The house was filled with a large audience of Democrats and Republicans, and for nearly two hours the speakers discussed the issues of the parties in a manner that drew forth enthusiastic applause.

CONLEY vs. TEMER. Providence, R. I., Oct. 8.—John L. Sullivan, in an interview with a Bulletin reporter, said he intended to train down to 200 pounds or less for a set to with Luffin. He is willing to wager $5,000 to $10,000 that he will have the best of Luffin from the start and is confident of easily disposing of him.

High Water in Iowa. CANSON CITY, Oct. 8.—The Nishnabotom river has risen to a height of sixteen feet above low water. The river is now in a rapid current, and the depth of two feet. The approaches to the Rock Island railroad bridge, four miles north of here, were washed out, but were temporarily repaired so that trains now cross with but little delay.

High Water at Eau Claire. [Special Telegram to the Globe.] EAU CLAIRE, Oct. 8.—The rivers in this section of the state continue at a remarkable high stage for the time of year. The rains for the past few weeks have been almost constant, to the detriment of the crops and the stock. The water is now in a rapid current, and the depth of two feet.

Extradition. WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—In regard to a dispatch from Canada which appeared in the papers this morning, it is denied at the state department that any negotiations are now pending between our country and Great Britain looking to the amendment of the extradition law, so that it will cover defaulters. There has been correspondence between the two governments on the subject of amending the extradition treaty, but the United States government has not waived, nor the British government admitted, the right of either government to try an extradited person for any offense than one on which extradition is based.

THE BELATED CENSUS. WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—The census bureau has dwindled down as the result of the census here being the last of the census, and comparatively small proportions, but what is left of it is in a very unsatisfactory condition. It has really had a head ache. Gen. Walker resigned, two years and a half ago. He was succeeded by Dr. Seaton, who was so thoroughly broken down in health that he was unable to do the work of the bureau, and after trying for four years or a little over, he was obliged to give it up.
