

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

There will be a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union this afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the parlor of the Y. M. C. A.

The freight check clerks held a well-attended ball at Market hall last night, and had a well laid supper at Burns' Market hall restaurant.

A reception will be tendered Rev. S. G. Smith, of the First Methodist church, this evening, at the residence of H. S. Fairchild, No. 133 Summit avenue.

Out of the fifty-five employees at the Western Union telegraph office who have a vote at the coming election, only fifty-three of them will vote for Cleveland.

City Engineer Somers remarked yesterday that if the weather remained clear during the day Rice street would be ready to open to the public this morning.

The smoke stack of the boiler room of the new baggage building, just below the Union depot, was completed yesterday, and it is understood that the fires will be built to-day.

An action was begun in the United States circuit court yesterday by Chris C. Shuler and others against Marcus K. Swartz to enforce payment of a promissory note for $4,940.

Dr. Hort, of the health department, has completed a list of the butcher shops in St. Paul. In all there are sixty and the shops will be divided into districts and inspected daily.

The entrance way to the magnificent carpet and curtain emporium of Col. John Mathews, No. 17 East Third street, has been recently inlaid with a mosaic of polished and beautifully colored wood.

The first annual ball of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Division No. 2, will take place at Market hall to-morrow evening. No pains or expense have been spared to make the affair an enjoyable success, and it should be well patronized.

Capt. E. C. Blunt, chief ordnance officer and inspector of rifle practice at headquarters department of Dakota, Fort Snelling, Minn., has received orders to report at the war department, Washington, D. C., as inspector of rifle practice for the army.

Dr. Ancker county physician, entered a complaint of insanity against a German laborer named Wm. Koebler yesterday afternoon, who will be examined in the probate court this forenoon. Koebler is a laborer about twenty-four years old, speaks his English, and his native tongue.

Deputy Sheriff P. P. Quaky, of Houston county, accompanied by G. T. Paulson and Geo. F. Samples as guards, committed the following prisoners to the penitentiary at Stillwater yesterday: Wm. Hohl, for robbery, sentenced to one year, and John H. Raymond and Frank McLain, eighteen months each for burglary.

Miss Addie Daly is a most estimable and highly respected young lady who lives with her father, Joseph B. Daly, at No. 699 Preble street, but Miss Daly is a victim to one of those unhappy conditions or malicious designs to which any exemplary young lady may be exposed. On Monday night two "beautiful but frail girls" were found on the street gloriously drunk, and were taken to the city hall, where they gave the names of Georgia Field and Addie Daly, and of course the names got into the papers, as Miss Daly of Preble street is the only Addie Daly in the city her relatives feel naturally much indignation that her name should have been stolen and so polluted and dragged into a police court. Miss Daly, though beautiful, is not frail, but the pride of a happy family circle.

Headache is overcome by St. Jacobs Oil, the lightning pain-cure. Price 50 cents.

A Blaine Supreme Court.

"How would the bar or any one else like to see a majority of the Supreme Court made up by the author of the Mulligan letters?" asks our esteemed friend, the Advertiser. It is almost certain that there will be so many retirements from the Supreme bench in the next four years that the new appointments, with Stanley Matthews, will be a majority of the court.

The Wall of One Who is Sick of It. [St. Louis Globe-Democrat.] Oh for a yard of bloody shirt, in place of the dreary miles of Mulligan in the present campaign.

Roses and Lilies of the Valley. [Rambler.] Boston ladies pin a knot of sweet flowers to their bonnet strings.

Strength, Vigor, Elasticity. "Recovering from typhoid fever, I quickly gave me strength." So writes Mr. Peter Bourassa, East Douglas, Mass. "Nothing makes my stomach feel so easy," says Mr. Joseph Bateman, Lawrence, Mass. "I have more strength than any other bitters I have taken," declares Miss Nellie O'Brien, of the same place. What is it that these convalescents write about? Why, Brown's Iron Bitters, the greatest iron medicine in the world!
