

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

St. Paul Arion ball at Turner hall this evening.

Four deaths were reported at the health office yesterday.

The State Library received the twenty-second Supreme Court Reports yesterday.

The period has arrived again for the Chicago Tribune to grapple for the copyright of "Beautiful Snow."

Ground was broken on East Sixth street, between Jackson and Sibley streets, yesterday for the new block to be erected by Judge Nelson.

The sum of $2,300 was disbursed by the city treasurer yesterday in payment of interest on city bonds, and $640 interest on bond of education bonds.

Edward P. Sanborn, of the well known legal firm of John B. & W. H. Sanborn, was wedded last evening to Susie E. Dana and the bridal party took the train for the east at 9 p. m. for a trip to New England.

At 11 o'clock last night Officer Zirkelbach took into custody a trio of suspicious loafers gluing the names of Thos. Burns, A. McIntyre and Chas. Doohier. They were prowling around Sibley street and could give no account of themselves.

W. J. Dounebeck, St. Paul, was before United States Commissioner Cardozo, yesterday, on the charge of opening letters not addressed to him. The examination was continued until next Tuesday, and he was released on bail of $1,000.

An adjourned meeting of the board of water commissioners was held yesterday, at which the engineer was instructed to prepare estimates for the water supply system on Dayton's bluff. The estimates will be submitted at the next meeting of the board.

Last midnight Andrew Olson, a drunken Swede, was arrested at the corner of Third and Sibley streets. His left eye was completely closed and he presented the appearance of having been slugged. A considerable sum of money was found on his person.

Great indignation is expressed by the Swede roachmen of this city at the statement that their annual ball was attended by colored members of the fraternity. They desire it understood that the color line was strictly drawn, and that no African citizens were present.

The Minnesota refrigerator car for the New Orleans exhibit, laden to the roof with fruits and other perishable articles, is presumed to have got on the warm side of the frost line by this time, having passed through St. Paul on the river road on Thursday evening en route southward.

Chas. Doohier, of Winthrop, and Angus P. McIntyre, of Duluth, two very suspicious characters hanging about the city for several days, were locked up at the city hall last evening and will probably be given a ticket of leave from Minnesota in the municipal court this morning.

The friends of Gov. L. F. Hubbard have purchased a life sized crayon portrait of excellence, the work of skillful St. Paul artists, which is finely framed in bronze, and will be given a prominent place in the Minnesota exhibit space at New Orleans, and afterwards presented to his family.

The prolongation of Dick Richard's physiognomy has led his barber to suspect that something has happened. The barber refuses to sell Dick any more tickets, eight cents for a dollar, but demands ten cents straight. Unless he can steal his shop the barber will lose money even at that figure.

Chief Clark got his eye upon a fellow named P. Gorman and another fellow on Second street last evening, who seemed to have a drunken man named Nels Silene in tow. Thinking that robbery was on foot, the Chief made a break for the trio and secured P. Gorman and the drunken man, the other thief getting away with Nels' carpet bag.

A committee from Minneapolis called upon Gov. Hubbard yesterday to borrow some Emmett artillery guns to celebrate the election of Cleveland and Hendricks with in that city this evening. The governor gave his consent provided some of the Emmett boys go up to the flour city and man the guns on the occasion, which it was thought they would do.

Little Maude Davidson, "our St. Paul favorite," after an absence of nearly two months, visiting the leading towns of Minnesota and Dakota, will give her first public exhibition in St. Paul on rollers at the Jackson Street Roller rink this evening. Her friends will be out in force, and we question if the rink will accommodate the half of those who may wish to attend. A word to the wise—go early.

A telegram was received yesterday by Mrs. E. N. Larpenteur, of this city, from Baltimore, Md., announcing the decease of her only brother, James Desvarreux, at that place on Wednesday evening last at the age of eighty-two years. The deceased was a native of the West Indies and left those islands and took up his residence in Maryland at the time of the memorable insurrection there.

The joint committees of the board of trade, Jobbers' union and chamber of commerce held a meeting yesterday and made their final arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the 400 expected excursionists from Watertown and Waverly, who will arrive here on the 25th. Messrs. Averill, Finch, Kelly, Moon and Noyes were appointed a committee on entertainment.

Messrs. Ludvik, Seabury, Schaffer, Hoxsie and Dean are to look after the financial department. Messrs. Tallmadge, McNeale, Hoppin, Hubbard, Farwell, Merrill, Howell and Van Slyke were appointed as a committee to receive the guests and see that they are properly provided with conveyances.

A. J. Dean and wife, Minneapolis, and Sam D. Bond, Montana, are among the arrivals at the Grand Pacific.

G. G. Barnum and wife, Minneapolis, are registered at the Palmer.

J. W. Wooley and A. J. Pratt, of St. Paul, are at the Palmer.

D. W. Stewart, Mrs. L. L. Watson and Mrs. Lillie Durham, of Pipestone, are domiciled at the Palmer.

Frank W. Smith at Sherman Hall.

Frank W. Smith delivered a very interesting lecture in the Grand Army of the Republic course at Sherman hall last evening giving a vivid description, illustrated with painting, blackboard sketches and souvenirs of his capture and confinement in Andersonville prison and the terrible ins and outs thereof, as experienced by the Union prisoners. His better points were on Jefferson Davis, the author of this slaughter pen, whom the Republican party failed to hang, but preferred rather to classify the mistake as a case of the "inability to man."

In fact the lecture was full of interesting data and record and was listened to with deep attention by the audience, the speaker being interrupted with frequent bursts of applause.

Mr. Smith will speak at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms to-morrow afternoon, holding that there are but two organizations on the earth of which he is proud to belong, the one the Grand Army of the Republic and the other that of the followers of our common Lord and Master.

State Fair Grounds.

A meeting of the joint committees of St. Paul and Minneapolis was held at the St. Paul chamber of commerce Friday morning.

All the members were present and a lively interest was manifested in the project of providing grounds for the fairs of the State Agricultural society. There was considerable discussion in regard to the matter in a general way, but the feature of deciding upon the appropriate site for fair grounds was not definitely acted on, but left open for the consideration and final decision at a future meeting to be held at Minneapolis, and to be called at an early day. The members of the committee were quite decided and unanimous that the only proper course to pursue was the purchase of grounds by the citizens of St. Paul and Minneapolis, the grounds so purchased to be presented to the State Agricultural society.

Local Mention.

Cleveland is Elected.

But there is nothing that will equal Dr. Halliday's Blood Purifier for clearing the head and throat of catarrh or that will stop a catarrh cough quicker by taking it in small doses every half hour, if necessary, to stop the cough.
