

THE CITY.

CITY GLOBULES.

A small increase pension for Minneapolis was received at the adjutant general's office yesterday. The pumps on the Vadua's system were started at 12 o'clock, noon, yesterday, and worked to a charm. Two new windows are being put in in the Fifth street side of Odd Fellows block in the Germania bank. John Brady was placed in the cooler last night by Officer Marion, who picked him up on suspicion of larceny.

The vault of the state auditor and clerk of the supreme court departments in the state capitol, have been supplied with ventilators. Before the water is turned on to consumers on St. Anthony hill the work must be done by the plumbers and examined by the inspector.

Marriage licenses were yesterday issued to Christ Nicolson and Emma Smedman, Peter Jacobson and Bertha Thorsen, and Thomas Waring and Marie Jacobs.

The young ladies' guild, of St. Paul's church have arranged to give a tea party at the rectory to-morrow evening, the proceeds of which will be applied to the purchase of a new carpet for the guild room.

The case of Paul A. Lavalie, suing city for $750 damages for flooding his store premises on Mississippi street by the grading of streets, was heard by a jury in the district court yesterday.

Last Saturday, a young man of plausible address and giving the name of W. C. Conroy, passed a forged check for $15 on the Boston One Price Clothing house. The case was reported to the police yesterday and it has not yet been apprehended.

Mr. J. W. Lindquist, clerk of the court at Willmar, is visiting his St. Paul friends. Mr. Lindquist, in connection with the Hon. J. W. Arctander, will on January 1st commence the publication of a new weekly newspaper at Willmar, to be called the Argus.

Arthur Roberts entered a Seventh street restaurant last evening and after a sumptuous dinner refused to honor his meal check. The proprietor therefore froze to his overcoat, whereupon Arthur repaired to the street and was making all blue with his curses when he was nabbed by an officer and locked up at the city hall.

The Woodland Literary circle, composed of young ladies and gentlemen living on St. Anthony hill, was organized last evening with the following officers: President, Arthur Wright; vice president, Paul R. Merrill; secretary, Miss Jessie Young; treasurer, Miss Susie Green. Membership is limited to forty and the meetings will be held semi-monthly at the members' houses.

Market hall was graced by a fair attendance of pleasure seekers last night, the occasion being the benefit ball in honor of the St. Paul Base Ball association. A large number of tickets were disposed of, but for some inscrutable reason only a fair percentage of holders turned out. The programme was unique and varied, consisting of twenty-two dancing numbers, and the occasion was very enjoyable.

Justice Mitchell, in a supreme court opinion, published in the law column of the Globe this morning, affirms the decision of the lower court in striking out certain portions of the answer in the Vermyley divorce and custody of children suit, as irrelevant and redundant and mere matter of course, evidence to prove plaintiff unfit to have custody of his children. Essential faults must be proven, and the evidence admissible must be to sustain such facts.

The governor of Missouri has become jealous of the flattering attention given to the outlaws, but he still continues to recommend to all his constituents the famous Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup for coughs and colds.

President Moore, of the Franklin Building Society Canceled.

At the close of the annual meeting of the Franklin Building society at its hall on Robert street last evening, the members presented President Moore with a beautiful gold-headed cane which was neatly engraved, "To our President, A. Moore, by the Members of the Franklin Building Society, Dec. 2, 1884." The following presentation speech being made by Secretary Theodora Sander: Mr. President: To-night a task has been imposed upon me by a large number of the members of this society, which I wish had not been placed upon me, not because the task is a disagreeable one or I dislike to perform it, but because I do not feel in the habit of performing it as my friends expect and as I would like to see it fulfilled.

This task, Mr. President, is to express to you the esteem and appreciation the members of this society bear toward you. You have no doubt for a long time been convinced of the good feeling existing among the members toward you by your almost unanimous resolution to award to you the honorific position you hold.

It is more than an effort of honor to be the president of a corporation numbering almost 300 members, and having now in round numbers $125,000 assets. Of this corporation you are elected president eight years ago, when it was in its childhood, and so well have the members been satisfied with your rulings and the general performance of your duties, that to this day no one has thought of selecting any one else to fill your place.

This would ordinarily be recognition enough. But quite a number of our members have determined that you should have some proof of their appreciation of your services, which should be visible to the eye and upon which you can lay your hand. Therefore present you in the name of the members of this society with this cane. It is not to symbolize that you need a support. They all know that your backbone is sufficient for all emergencies. But it is to be a constant token of pure friendship and love, which your eye can see and your hand can feel, and as such I beg you to accept it.

Though taken entirely by surprise the reply of President Moore was full of sparkling wit and made with such feeling as well, and thus happily ended the Eighty annual of the Franklin.

CURE FOR PILES.

The first symptoms of Piles is an itching at night after getting warm. This unpleasant sensation is immediately relieved by an application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy. Piles in all forms, Rich, Salt Rheum and Hemorrhoids, are permanently cured by the use of this great remedy. Price 50 cents. Manufactured by the Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piqua, O. Sold by A. P. Wilkes, Seven Corners; F. H. Heintz, 374 Dayton avenue; John Boyden, 233 East Fourth street; and P. C. Lutz, Wabasha street, opposite post office.

Christ Church Fair.

Christ church, corner of Fourth and Franklin streets, presented a scene at once brilliant and beautiful last night, the occasion being the fair given by the Ladies' Aid society of the parish for the benefit of St. Luke's hospital. The attendance last evening was large and there were many articles of elegance and beauty to arrest the attention and elicit the admiration of the visitor. The booths present a most attractive appearance, being laden with every description of the cunning handicraft of the laics of Christ church, who are also deserving of high praise for the charming manner in which they have arranged the beautiful and varied display. The fair is for one of the worthiest objects in the city and aside from the intrinsic value and worth of the display it should be liberally patronized. An elegant supper was served by the ladies last night and the same wholesome treatment will be dispensed to-night.

Who and What Will it Abuse Next?

The Pioneer Press has abused almost everything in St. Paul that it could attack, even to the school system, which, it says, is disgraceful. It seems now to be about to turn its mud machine against private parties. Yesterday morning it attacked the Windsor hotel, and in doing so spoke in a disgraceful manner of the people that attended a hop there the evening before. That wrathful sheet on this occasion used the following language: "The female waiters of the Windsor hotel gave a dance last night, and about fifty couples were present."

Now the truth is the young people of the Windsor gave a hop and invited some of the most respectable citizens in St. Paul, such as Col. Farrington and ladies. Yet this abusive sheet denounces the gathering as "feeling waiters." What has the Windsor hotel proprietors done to this abusive sheet?

MINNESOTA'S ELECTORS

Will Vote for President and Vice President at Noon To-day.

The Republican presidential electors elect presented themselves to Gov. Hubbard at the state capital yesterday and reported that they would meet his excellency at 12 o'clock to-day at the executive rooms and vote by ballot for candidates for president and vice president of the United States singly. Of course, although their "goose is cooked," they will vote for Blaine and Logan, and after drawing $3 per diem and mileage return home with the proud consciousness of having faithfully represented the will of their party, though the action be of no avail.

The following is a list of the electors: At Large—Charles F. Kindred, Crow Wing county; Jno. G. Nelson, Washington county. First District—John D. Allen, Mower county. Second District—A. D. Perkins, Cottonwood county. Third District—L. O. Thorp, Kandiyohi county. Fourth District—W. B. Dean, Ramsey county. Fifth District—Peter Raum, Hennepin county.

At the close of the balloting three certificates of the result will be made out which will be attached to certificates drawn by the governor that these electors are the elect of the state. One of these certificates will be forwarded to Washington by mail, another by special messenger and the other will be sealed up and preserved at the capitol.

MISDEMEANORS KALEIDOSCOPED.

Short Sketches of Yesterday's Doings in the Municipal Court.

At the municipal court yesterday morning James Quill for a saloon larceny was sent up for sixty days, but M. McNearney proved an alibi and was discharged. J. Gilciple, held for disorderly conduct and Harry Armstrong held for the same offense, were both discharged. A. H. Thompson for buying a Northern Pacific laborer's railway pass was jailed to await a hearing to-day. Chas. Anderson having entered a saloon and provoked a fight paid $20 for the costly run. James Moorhead, the incorrigible son of a wealthy farmer, was sentenced for disorderly conduct to suspended to give him time to mend his ways. August Kammel, for howling in the streets like a prairie wolf, will be examined to-day. A. Helt, for bastarding, on complaint of Miss Krizger, gave bail and will array witnesses this morning to prove he is not the sinning man. T. T. Fautleyer, Esq., who lost his legal temper at remarks made in court by Mr. Mackey and called him out to hit him in the eye, solemnly paid a $20 fine there for wounding a witness.

Charles Lehman, a saloon keeper, and the following Minnesotians, en route to Jones Young, his bartender, arrested for assault on Nettie Rosenthal, whose father keeps a tailor shop close by the saloon, will be tried on Thursday, when the particulars of another neighborhood quarrel will be given. Anna Thorsen, for calling a woman next door to her some hard names which the latter was ashamed to utter in court paid $10 fine and as she left the court room after paying the "spot cash" was so mad that she tried to wring the door off its hinges. The circus wound up for the day by G. Ritzky's having his case continued until Thursday to give him time to shoot his vicious "purp" or usher his icy carcass through an air hole in the Mississippi river ice.

CANDY.

"There's a charm about a first-class Candy Store that few places possess." was the remark made by a stranger, (evidently a judge,) as she looked into the display cases of the filling of fine creams, delicious novelties and imported Suggared Fruits. And you would naturally ask: "Where can they be found? Who has had the enterprise to bring such goods to St. Paul?"

And I tell you my boy, that MAHAN & CUMBEY, At 31 and 33 East Third street, have brought these goods within the reach of every one, for their prices are twenty-five per cent. cheaper than any store in the city.
