SAINTE PAUL'S CARNIVAL.

The Carnival of Nations, which closed its exhibition last evening, was the most unique and we may add, the most successful, entertainment ever given in this city.

TAXATION OF PARSONAGES.

The question of exempting parsonages from taxation is being agitated, and will take definite shape by the introduction of a bill, at an early day, into the State Legislature.

WOMEN.

Louise de Lorne, a French girl, is now with greater vim than before her marriage.

ing unlocked and becoming tributary to our city as the commercial centre of this great section. But most especially shall we labor to extend the power and progressive development of SAINT PAUL and MINNEAPOLIS the twin cities of the great Northwest who sit like twin sisters on opposite banks of the Mississippi, occupying the gateway of traffic as it sweeps on in ever increasing tide to the marts of the world.

But the chief merit upon which the Globe shall rely for public support and approbation shall be as a newspaper and a family journal. Neither pains nor expense shall be spared in collecting authentic news items from all parts of the world and giving them to our readers in a bright, intelligent manner that will make the paper indispensable to all news readers.

What declined 1/4 cent at St. Paul yesterday; corn was a little weaker and other grains steady. The Chicago market toned up a little but did not show any great strength, although the close was 1/4 cent higher on all futures except May.

The Northwestern and Milwaukee roads have been denied admission into the Southwestern Railway association.

Ex-Senator Davis, of West Virginia, says he will not accept a cabinet position.

ALASKA AND ITS VALUE.

When Mr. SEWARD favored the purchase of Alaska from Russia, he was met with the opposing arguments that the country was valueless and had little to recommend it beyond its timber and fisheries.

THE DYNAMITE RESOLUTIONS.

The adoption of Senator BAYARD'S resolution relating to the dynamite explosion in London, by the American congress, was a sympathetic expression for a people of our own blood in a distressing calamity.

THE CHICAGO NEWS.

In speaking of Senator Logan's political selfishness as evinced by an apparent desire to throw the election of senator outside of the Republican party if he cannot bag the game himself.

THE PEVY-KINS THE SWORD.

Instead of shouldering their sticks to show this generation how fields were won, our veterans are showing off with pens and pencils.

GEN. GRANT'S MAGAZINE ARTICLE WILL BRING OUT GENERALS McCOOK AND ROBERTSON, AND MAY BE A SCORE OF OTHERS BEFORE HE GETS THROUGH.

TOO MUCH INFORMATION IS SOMETIMES AS TROUBLEASOME AS TOO LITTLE. A BOMELY MAXIM IS THAT TOO MANY COOKS SPOIL THE BROTH, AND NUMEROUS VERSIONS OF ANY FACT, EPISODE OR INDIVIDUALITY ARE RATHER apt TO CONFUSE OPINION AND JUDGMENT IN REACHING A DEFINITE RESULT.

Three Persons Killed and Two Fatally Injured in a Railway Accident on the Lake Shore.

Two Boys Killed by Falling Over an Embankment in Pittsburgh—Miscellaneous Casualty Record.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 31.—Natural gas is responsible for another terrible explosion, which at this hour seems to involve not only a wreck of houses, but a serious loss of life, and maintainings which will follow the victims to their graves.

CITIZENS who reside near where the explosion took place have been very much disatisfied for some time, and have even threatened to tear up the pipes of the Fuel Gas company.

INDIANAN CITIZENS.

There was another explosion of natural gas early this morning in Millin township, opposite McKeesport, on the line of the Carpenter Gas company.

FATAL RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 31.—A sleigh, containing a party of nine persons, while crossing the track of the Lake Shore railway, between Oak Harbor and Port Clinton, Ohio, at an early hour this morning, was struck by the west bound express, and two of the number, Stephen Hall, of Oak Harbor, and Miss Jennie Hoople, of Wauson, Ohio, were killed.

DETAILS OF THE EXPLOSION.

The explosion occurred in three houses. One was the iron City hotel and saloon, operated by an Englishman named George Morris. It was a low frame building, twelve feet front and thirty feet deep.

THE DAKOTA LEGISLATURE.

THE SOLONS AT BISMARCK RUSHING THROUGH APPROPRIATION BILLS AT A RAPID RATE.

BISMARCK, DAK., Jan. 31.—The council passed bills creating the office of commissioner of immigration, appointing $25,000 for the permanent improvement of the school of deaf-mutes at Sioux Falls.

A FATAL FALL.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 31.—While walking along Pennsylvania avenue bluff, near Sixteenth street, this morning, two boys named Robert Spraul and John McKeigan lost their foothold and fell to the bottom, a distance of 200 feet.

A THIRD EXPLOSION.

occurred in George Mueller's saloon, across the street. In the saloon at the time were Anna Mueller, daughter of the proprietor; Lizzie Elmoh, a cook; Dr. Ziegler, of Allegheny, and Jack Stern, a mill worker.

LIST OF THE INJURED.

The complete list of the persons injured by the gas explosion today is as follows: Dr. Ziegler, of Allegheny, blown into the air, jaw badly cut and injured internally.

NORTHWESTERNERS AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—Angus MacDonald, of Winnepeg, is registered at the Palmer today.

THE LAND GRANT FORTALURES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The failure of the effort to get up and pass the bill to declare forfeited the Northern Pacific land grant, which has not been carried, will probably discourage further movement in this direction.
