J. A. SABIN, ST. PAUL.

Are more or less interested in the boom in these Garments, inau gurated two weeks ago, at THE BOSTON, ST. PAUL. Never, for the fourteen years that we have been in business in St. Paul, have we had such a brisk trade in any one department. Everybody seems to be buying a PAIR OF PANTS, and we have had to send telegram after telegram to our manufacturers East to express fresh lots. There is a cause for all this, and it is plainly told. We are selling these pants at about 2 per cent. profit, and the eagerness with which they are bought up proves conclusively that bargains of this kind are appreciated by the people. Men's good, All-Wool Pants, $2 a pair, worth $4, and for $3, $3.50, $4 and $4.50 a pair, we sell you Pants in desirable patterns that you will see would be cheap enough at nearly double these prices.
