could see some 600 feet above me. I suddenly remembered that I had promised to give the pit boss a chew of tobacco at precisely 3 o'clock. Removing my watch from my pocket, I saw I had but little time to lose, and stepped aside just in time to escape the descending cage, which struck the earth hard enough to have knocked me down and perhaps broken some of my bones. On another occasion I made an engagement with a railway to carry me to Chicago at an early hour in the morning. I was on hand at the precise minute expected. It took me four hours later I should have missed the train, as it was only two hours behind time that day.

Once a friend of mine deceived me into an argument on the general plan of salvation. He did not slight the subject, but he made baptism as a saving claim in the ordinance, and in the excitement of the moment I called him a liar. If I had not at that instant remembered that the hour appointed for my dinner was approaching I am afraid I should have come to blows, but my well-known habits of punctuality, in keeping my appointments overcame my anger, and I hurried away, leaving my friend undisturbed and relieved him from all danger.

I have observed some of the dire consequences of prostration in my time. I know a gentleman who was very diligent about little matters of various kinds, especially his promises to pay small sums of money which he had borrowed. I had loaned him 30 cents on Monday, and he had promised that on Friday at 3:30 o'clock he would pay me at my office. He neglected to come, however, and instead of being where he had promised to be at that moment he was standing right where a cowboy had made up his mind to shoot. His form now lies mouldering in the silent tomb, a touching reminder of the fatal consequences of neglect to come, and been shot down like a dog. As it was I passed out of the front door and hastened to communicate with the officers of the law, and to-day I am alive and well and those burglars have no blood on their hands.

A gentleman who was inadvertently cut by his neighbor's throat, once agreed that on a specified day at 12 o'clock he would meet me at a certain place and give half the contents of his victim's pocket for defending him. Instead, however, he remained in jail, and at midnight the hour of our meeting was changed. Anybody can see with half an eye that he had kept his appointment but he had not been cut down an hour later and turned over to the doctors.

Thousands Hastened to Their Graves.

Thousands Upon Thousands!!!

By relying on testimonials written in vivid glowing language of some miraculous cures made by some largely puffed up doctor or patent medicine has hastened thousands to their graves; the readers having almost instinctively taken the same medicine will be performed on them, that these testimonials mention, while the so-called medicine is all the time hastening them to their graves. Although we have of testimonials of the most wonderful cures, voluntarily sent us, we do not publish them, as they do not make the cure. It is our medicine, Hop Bitters, that makes the cure. It has never failed and never can. We will give reference to anyone for any disease similar to their own if desired, or will refer to any neighbor, as there is not a neighborhood in the world but can show its cures by Hop Bitters.

A Losing Joke.

A prominent physician of Pittsburg said to a lady patient who was complaining of her continuing ill health, and of his inability to cure her, jokingly said: "Try Hop Bitters!" The lady took it in earnest and used the Bitters, from that time she was cured, and she is now laughing at the doctor for his joke, but he is not so well pleased with it, for it cost him a good patient.

The fee of doctors at $3 a visit would tax man for a year, and in need of a daily visit over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone. A single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.

Given up by the Doctors.

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?"

"I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured and not nothing but Hop Bitters cured him only ten days ago his doctor gave him up and said he must die, from kidney and liver trouble."

"Don't you get without a bunch of green bugs on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with 'Hop' or 'Hops' in their name."

What One Girl Did is the title of a new story. Whoever has been so mean as to peep on the poor dear ought to be hung on once.—Lowell Citizen.

Several complaints came in yesterday as to the state in which premises in various parts of the city are kept, and the health officer and his assistant will see to it that the trouble is remedied as soon as the frost gets out of the ground. The streets bounded by Main, Second and Chestnut streets and Nelson alley will get a thorough overhauling, as Dr. Clark's report on that section shows a very bad state of affairs.

Yesterday one of the hackmen got a couple of Swedes, who had just got back from the woods, in his hack for a drive around, but he had no idea he would have such trouble in getting them out. It appears they had a bottle of whiskey with them in the hack, to which they had been drinking, and when time was up they refused to get out of the hack and showed fight. One of them was spirited away by friends, while the other was taken to the city hall and his well-learned purse will be lightened a little this morning. The city will spend the money to better advantage than he would.

The action of the city council on Monday evening was most favorably commented on the streets yesterday in ordering the chief of police to detail a man to see to the sanitary condition of the city. The short speeches delivered before the council by Drs. Calne, Merrill, Pelkin, Fiesburg and T. C. Clark were to the point, while the aldermen present showed that they took in the situation and would do their duty to the city. Dr. Merrill, health inspector, and Chief of Police Strout were added to the committee to select a dumping ground, of which committee Aid. Covell is chairman.

FUNCTUALITY THE BEST POLICY.

Reminiscences of Past Experiences Which Show the Advantage of Keeping Your Appointments.

F. E. Huddle is New York Mercury.

If there is one virtue which I possess in greater quantity than another it is punctuality. I never promise a man anything, except money, but what I fulfill my promise at the precise moment fixed by the terms of the bond. Experience has demonstrated to me that punctuality is the best policy, except one in a mutual accident insurance organization, which is sometimes valuable where punctuality is a failure. Several incidents which tend to prove my position have come within the range of my notice in the few years which constitute my checkered career.

On one occasion I was standing at the feet of a coal shaft, directly under the cage, gazing on the mere spark of light which I
